A Formal Announcement by Leaders Was Made Last Night.

ALL ARE SATISFIED

Allegheny County Men Called in Conference Promise Their Support.

PENROSE COMPLIMENTS FLINN

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
Press Building.
PHILADELPHIA, PA., June 9.

Philander C. Knox, attorney general of the United States, will tomorrow morning be appointed to the vacancy caused by the death of Senator M. S. Quay. The governor will, as a supplement to the formal appointment, make a statement defining his reasons for the position he will take relative to a special session of the legislature. It is not probable that a special session will be called, and Mr. Knox will serve until he is elected in January for the full term of six years, beginning March 4, 1905.

Formal announcement of the solution of the senatorial problem was made at 10:30 tonight by Senator Boies Penrose. Ex-Senator William Flinn, in a statement given out this afternoon, had forecasted the decision of the party leaders and clinched the certainty of Knox's selection. Mr. Penrose said:

"Gov. Pennypacker in the morning will appoint P. C. Knox to fill the senatorial vacancy caused by the death of Senator Quay. Mr. Knox will accept. President Roosevelt has consented to Mr. Knox's resignation from the cabinet and approves of his selection as senator from Pennsylvania.

Will Be Elected.

"In making public the appointment of Mr. Knox, the governor will discuss the question of a special legislative session and define his position relative thereto.

"As a candidate for senator, Mr. Knox will have the support of the Republican state organization for the full as well as the short term. His selection is heartily approved by the Allegheny county regular Republicans. Ex-Senator William Flinn had been mentioned for the honor. He had the support of the organization in Allegheny as well as a very complimentary backing in many other counties of Western Pennsylvania.

"Senator Flinn's course in connection with the perplexing questions in the adjustment of the senatorial situation was straightforward and liberal and he assisted very materially in bringing about the satisfactory result.

"I think Mr. Knox's record as attorney general and as a representative statesman of national character cannot fail to be very helpful to the party in Pennsylvania in the approaching election and will aid materially in the election of members of the legislature in particularly close districts.

To Open the Campaign.

"The state committee will arrange for a meeting in the Academy of Music, Philadelphia, for a formal opening of the national campaign early in September. Mr. Knox will be the principal speaker, and he will deliver a speech sounding important keynotes. This meeting will not conflict with the opening of the state capaign, under the auspices of the League of Republican Clubs, which will take place at Reading.

"Relative to his cabinet portfolio, Mr. Knox can take his own time for laying it aside. It will not be necessary for him to resign prior to December. His desk is clear of all important federal matters and he could leave the cabinet at any time without prejudice to his functions as attorney general of the United States."

Senator Penrose made the above official staetment on his return from the annual Farmers' club dinner given by President A. J. Cassatt at his country place at Berwyn. Those present were Gov. Pennypacker, Attorney General Knox, Henry Clay Frick, Senator Boies Penrose, President George F. Baer of the Reading railroad, ex-Senator Don Cameron, R. R. Quay, Effingham Morris, Dewitt Cuyler and Mr. Cassatt.

As stated, the dinner is an annual function of prominent agriculturalists, and it is tenable to presume that politics was not discussed, notwithstanding the presence of distinguished men in public life.

The Final Conference.

Home-stretch incidents of the senatorial sweepstakes were not particularly exciting. There was some hard riding in the last quarter, but Knox had the pole and won in a gallop.

The incident of the day was the final brush between Senator Flinn and his loyal followers and the state leaders. It was not until 4 o'clock this afternoon that Flinn and Penrose flipped the coin. Penrose came first from his offices. With him was Banking Commissioner Robert McAfee, the man who does much and says little. Both wore the smile of contentment, which emphasized the adage that virtue is its own reward. As they lost themselves in the bunch of newspaper men that darkened the corridor of the Arcade building Penrose said:

"I am trying to catch a train. Senator Flinn, Chairman Ford and Leslie will be out in a moment and will have something to say to you boys."

Then Penrose and McAfee entered the elevator.

"Do you mind telling where you are going?" queried a reporter to Penrose.

Statement of Alleghenians.

"No," answered the senator, with a smile: "I am going downstairs," and the elevator confirmed his statement by dropping out of sight. A moment later Penrose's messenger asked the correspondents to enter the private office. Senator Flinn,

Attorney General Fully Explains the Reason He Accepts.

HE TALKS OF TRUSTS

He Modestly Declares President Roosevelt Is as Strong Without His Aid.

EXPLAINS MISCONCEPTIONS

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
Press Building.
PHILADELPHIA, June 10.

"This morning I called up President Roosevelt over the long-distance telephone and laid the situation before him, asking his advice.

"The president, after listening to me, said that as Pennsylvania is such an overwhelmingly Republican state, and as this appointment might open to me a long term of public service, at the same time it would tend to promote harmony among the factions of the party in the state, he thought it was my duty to accept the appointment.

"Now, if Gov. Pennypacker wishes to appoint me, and if my appointment will, in the opinion of the state leaders, make for harmony among the Republicans of Pennsylvania, I shall accept the appointment and stand for the regular election."

In these words Attorney General Philander C. Knox, in an interview, published this morning in the North American, defined his attitude in the matter of the senatorship.

Mr. Knox was asked: "Have you considered the trusts in connection with this matter of the senatorship?"

Will Promote Harmony.

"I have considered nothing except that I was asked to accept this appointment and have been assured that my acceptance will tend to promote harmony in the party," he replied.

"But don't you believe that your leaving the cabinet at this time will seriously interfere with President Roosevelt's plans for curbing the trusts?" the reporter asked.

"I do not," was the reply. "President Roosevelt's anti-trust policies are his own, and my leaving the cabinet can have no conceivable effect on them."

"But with you out of the cabinet can President Roosevelt be considered as strongly armed to prosecute the trusts as he has been with you there?"

"Whether I am in the cabinet or out of it President Roosevelt will follow the policy he has already laid down. The idea that I have ever been especially familiar with trusts is a mistake if a popular one. The fact is that while I was in private practice considerably more than half my revenues were derived from fees paid me by private individual clients. My corporate clients were not numerous and when I was counsel for the Carnegie company it had not become a part of the United States Steel Corporation."

Hundreds Could do as Well.

"But the success you have had in fighting the great combinations has certainly equipped you exceptionally to continue the warfare against them," was suggested.

"Not at all," Mr. Knox replied; "there are hundreds of lawyers in the country who can do with quite as much success what I have done. The Northern Securities Company case presented a new study in the trust scheme. The plan followed in the organization of that corporation was unlike anything ever before attempted. It was so peculiar that had it received the sanction of law it might have been carried on in its operations until all the railroads of the country, and all of the other lines of human enterprise, were gathered together into several great monopolies. That prospect was too fraught with danger to be disregarded, and we started out to check the scheme. By a small margin we won a verdict, but I am not deserving of any special credit in connection with that success.

"I resent the imputation contained in the North American on Thursday that I am a man who can be cajoled into abandonment of action which I have been pursuing and for which I may have been partly responsible after I have in my own mind determined that line of action is a proper one. I am not a man to be forced any more than cajoled into doing anything except what I think is right and what it is my duty to do.

Told of it Wednesday.

"All I know is that yesterday afternoon I was informed that the governor wished to appoint me; that the state leaders thought my appointment would harmonize the various elements of the party; and I was asked if I would accept. I thought it over during the night. This morning I talked with President Roosevelt over the telephone, and he advised me to accept. If the governor still wishes to appoint me, I shall accept the honor, and stand as candidate for formal election when the legislature meets."

"How will your appointment harmonize the party, when it is understood that Allegheny county is required for that purpose? You have abandoned your home in the county, have you not?" was asked.

"That is all a mistake," was the answer. "My home is still in Pittsburgh. The papers have said from time to time that I had offered my home in Pittsburgh for sale and that I proposed to make this my permanent home. There never was any truth in that. I have maintained my voting residence in Pittsburgh; my home is there, and until this thing came up I had no thought except

Attorney General's Assistant Likely to Take Place in Cabinet.

LOSS TO ROOSEVELT

President Makes Sacrifice in Interest of Pennsylvania Senatorship.

GIVES CONSENT TO CHANGE

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
Room 10, Postal Building.
WASHINGTON, D. C., June 9.

Developments in the senatorial situation in Pennsylvania were so rapid today that it is expected here tonight that Attorney General Knox will be the next United States senator from that state, to succeed the late Senator M. S. Quay. He will resign his seat in the cabinet, probably to take effect in the fall. The name of Judge William A. Day, assistant to the attorney general, was mentioned tonight as his possible successor to fill out the unexpired term. One report had it tonight that Mr. Knox had already resigned, but it was announced at the White House that such was not the case. He has been in communication with the president today.

Mr. Knox is expected here tomorrow for a conference with the president, when the question of the time of his leaving the cabinet and his successor will be discussed. Judge Day's name has been mentioned because it is known that he is in close touch with the policies of Attorney General Knox, and President Roosevelt is anxious that these policies shall be carried out so far as possible.

The president would have preferred that Mr. Knox remain at the head of the department of justice until March 4, if such an arrangement could have been made. It was thought here today that the Pennsylvania leaders might agree upon Mr. Knox for the long term, Gov. Pennypacker meanwhile appointing another man for Senator's Quay's unexpired term.

May Wait Till Congress Meets.

Under these circumstances Mr. Knox could have remained in the cabinet until March 4. But it seems that this would complicate the situation in Pennsylvania, and on this account it has been decided to appoint Mr. Knox a senator and then select him for the full term. It is possible that he may remain attorney general until congress meets in December.

Attorney General Knox had only held one public office before he was invited to become a member of President McKinley's cabinet. He was assistant district attorney for the Western district of Pennsylvania in 1876. He succeeded John William Griggs of New Jersey as attorney general in April, 1901, and was the choice of President Roosevelt for attorney general in his cabinet, being confirmed by the senate December 16, 1901.

Judge William A. Day, who is mentioned as a possible successor to fill Mr. Knox's unexpired term, was a prominent corporation lawyer, often employed by the interstate commerce commission, when Attorney General Knox called on him for assistance in the prosecution of

PENNSYLVANIA'S NEW SENATOR AND HIS WIFE

MR. AND MRS. P. C. KNOX.

NAMING OF KNOX WELL RECEIVED

Local Republican Organization Believes It Means Party Regularity in Future.

THERE IS NO SORENESS HERE

The announcement that Attorney General Knox, one of Pittsburgh's foremost citizens, had been agreed upon by the Republican state leaders as the successor of Senator Quay, was well received here last night. While the friends of the others candidates were disappointed, they do not have an objection to offer to the selection of Mr. Knox. On all sides much commendation was heard, and there was general satisfaction over the fact that the illustrious Quay is to have such an able successor. Not since 1834 has this county sent a son to the United States senate.

From the first the local Republican organization declared that the vacancy in the senate should be filled by the selection of an Allegheny county man. The leaders went to Philadelphia determined to win this point. They have won and it is the general belief that in the future the Republican organization of this county and the state will work in harmony and those receiving recognition must be of the regulars in Republican politics.

The close friends of Senator Flinn had hoped that he would be able to secure the senatorial toga and the same is true of the men who had picked F. L. Robbins as a winner. Last night there was no soreness in either camp.

Senator Flinn's friends are satisfied that the selection of Mr. Knox means an end of the Citizens party. They say that in the future these opponents of the Republican party will receive no recognition from the state organization, and that if the men who have been fighting want to continue in politics they will either have to become regular or flock with the Democrats. It is predicted that if the Citizens should endeavor to run a fusion ticket this fall the Republican state organization would not permit the use of the names of the Republican state candidates.

Mr. Knox has always been a stalwart

DAUPHIN LEADERS ARE SATISFIED

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
HARRISBURG, PA., June 9.

Philander C. Knox, attorney general of the United States, who has been selected by the Republican state leaders for Col. Quay's vacant seat in the United States senate, is to be appointed tomorrow.

Gov. Pennypacker left today for a brief visit ot his farm at Schwenksville. Tomorrow night the governor will leave with Adjt.-General Stewart and Private Secretary Wharton for Pittsburgh to attend the unveiling of the Hawkins monument.

Mr. Knox's selection is satisfactory to all the state officials here and the opinion prevails that there will be no organized opposition to his election for the full term by the next legislature.

Dauphin county's Republican organization, which stood with ex-Attorney General Elkin in his contest two years ago for the Republican nomination, has already advised the state leaders that they are in accord with the selection of Mr. Knox, regardless of what Elkin and his friends may do.

Ex-Gov. Stone of Pittsburgh, who was here today attending a meeting of the capitol commission, declined to commit himself when asked what he thought of Knox's selection. Ex-Congressman Graham of Allegheny, who was with Stone, said that Mr. Knox was an able lawyer and his selection was a good one.

"SHOOT, IF THEY RESIST ARREST"

Such Is Bell's Command to Soldiers Hunting for Union Miners.

ORDERS MINE CLOSED

Considers Its Organized Labor Crew a Menace to Public Safety.

WILL DEPORT 100 MORE MEN

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

Victor, Col., June 9.—The commission appointed by General Bell to inquire into the records of the miners under arrest, reported to him today a list of 97 union miners, with the recommendation that they be deported. Gen. Bell accepted their report and announced that the men would be sent out of Teller county as soon as a special train crew could be arranged for.

A squad of mounted infantrymen left today in pursuit of 55 union miners said to be encamped in the Beaver creek region east of this city. The troops have orders to shoot the men when found, if they resist arrest.

In a bloodless assault made by 150 militiamen and deputies led by Adjt.-Gen. Sherman M. Bell on the Portland mine today, the mine was indefinitely closed, to be reopened later on terms which will prevent any workmen securing work without presenting satisfactory working cards from the Mine Owners' association. Gen. Bell says the mine was closed because of "military necessity," as the men working in it were contributing to the support of the strikers and thereby continuing the present conditions in the district. His proclamation also states that dangerous men in the mine should be held.

What promised to be the bloodiest engagement the district had ever seen passed away as mildly as a summer shower. Without the firing of a shot or a harsh word, the general and his force marched up to the mine, took possession, read the proclamation concerning the present disposition of the mine and then left the employes of the Portland company in charge of the plant. Following the closing of the Portland it was announced that the mines will begin to reopen tomorrow, the non-union mines first and others later, and that business is to be resumed in the district at once. All miners who want work must first secure a working card from the Mine Owners' association.

Mine House Hoists Flag.

News of the intended assault upon the Portland and the closing down of the mine spread like wildfire through the town, and the hills and bluffs about the station were black with swarming humanity as the trainload of soldiers with rifles sticking from every window steamed away. Just as the train rounded the hill and stopped for the soldiers to make the ascent to the mine a United States flag was hoisted from one of the mine houses. The deputies sprang to the zigzag steps, scattering as they approached the mine, and Gen. Bell and and staff went straight to the general offices, where the general read the proclamation. Superintendent Curry listened to the reading and then said:

"Now, do you want us to close right away?"

"If it inconveniences you, certainly not," replied Gen. Bell.

"Very well, then, let's wait until the shift comes off at 4:30," replied the superintendent, adding: "Do you want any of the men?"

"I do not," said the generla.

It was then arranged that 24 of the company's employes should be left in charge to guard the property and keep necessary parts running, and Gen. Bell assured the superintendent that he would furnish all the guards necessary to help protect the mine.

MYSTERY STILL OVER FORTRESS

Again Report Declares That Port Arthur Has Fallen.

A DEFEAT FOR CZAR

BOMBARDMENT INEFFECTIVE

London, June 10.—Rumors of the fall of Port Arthur are published today from many sources.

A dispatch from Rome says the Tribuna prints an unconfirmed Vienna telegram announcing the capture of the fortress, with a loss of 11,000 men, killed and wounded, on the Japanese side. La Patrie also reports the fall of the stronghold.

Another report states definitely that the long anticipated Japanese attack on the Russian fortress began yesterday morning and is still in progress.

Other dispatches give rumors of a naval battle between two fleets in the gulf of Pechili, and a definite report of a bombardment in Liao-Tung gulf, near Kai-Ping, which may have foreshadowed a landing there for the purpose of cutting the railroad back of the Russian troops operating around Wafandian.

The Japanese fleet has been bombarding Port Arthur daily from a distance, fearing to attempt closer range of fire on account of danger from Russian mines.

Experts Are Skeptical.

The reports of the fall of Port Arthur do not receive much credit among the experts. It is believed that the Japanese are meeting with success in their approaches to the fortress itself, but it is deemed impossible that the entire line of fort, the capture of which is a prerequisite to the final assault, could have been taken by this time. The best opinion here is that a week at least will elapse before it will be possible to undertake the final assault.

The feeling is growing that the Russians have not been as successful in clearing out the channel at Port Arthur as had been reported, and naval men doubt if a sortie will be possible.

JAPANESE HEADQUARTERS IN MANCHURIA, VIA FUSAN, June 8.—(Special Cable, Herald Copyright.)—The enemy's cavalry have been seen at Siamatza, 25 miles northeast of Fung-Wang-Cheng, and also near Tsaopaling, on the Liao-Yang road.

A thousand Russian cavalry are holding Siu-Yen, and 2,000 others, with six guns, are at a point three miles to the south of that place. The Russians also occupy Tong-Yeng-Hu. No news of fighting has been received from the second army.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 9.—Gen. Kuropatkin telegraphs to the emperor under date of June 8:

"A Japanese brigade attacked a Russian detachment occupying Saimatze on June 7. The Russians retired slowly because of the enemy's great superiority, toward Tanchulin pass.

"Our losses were two officers wounded and 100 soldiers killed an wounded."

The emperor has also received this report from Gen. Kuropatkin dated June 8:

Report of Bombardment.

"A Japanese squadron of six vessels which was later reinforced by 11 others appeared on the west coast of Liao-Tung peninsula June 7 about 1 o'clock in the afternoon. Six of the ships were of the first-class, the others of the second and third-class, and torpedo boats. The squadron cruised in sections, bombarding various points east of Kaichau and Senyuchon, directing their fire on our posts and patrols wherever they appeared.

"The squadron ceased firing at 7 a. m., and steamed away southward. Our losses are none nor did we suffer any material damage. Six ships reappeared south of Kwan-Tsia-Tung and lowered boats. Six other ships bombarded the coast near Senyuchen and the town itself, but there was no landing.

"Japanese troops are concentrating southward with a front extending more than 10 miles from Pulantien to Fang-Tsia-Tung, in the valley of Tassakho.

Forced Japanese Back.

"A Japanese force of two companies of infantry and a squadron of cavlary advanced June 7 northward from Fung-Wang-Cheng into the Ta-Fang-Hung district, driving in the Cossack outposts. A detachment of chasseurs and a com pany of infantry hastened from Ualin to aid the Cossacks. The Japanese aba doned their attack, having lost one cer and a non-commissioned officer

"DEATH TO UNIONISM" IS CRIPPLE CREEK SLOG

Citizens' Alliance Will Draw Line on No Ma Works for a Living, and many Organiza Are Affected Who Will Fight.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

CRIPPLE CREEK, June 9.—"Death to unionism in the Cripple Creek district" is the new slogan of the Citizens' alliance, which has sent a decree broadcast that every person connected with any union here must either sever his connection with such organization or leave the district.

Tyson S. Dines, a Denver attorney, and one of the executors of the Stratton estate, is here in conference with Citizens' alliance leaders. It is announced that he is preparing a form which will be presented to every merchant and business man and all other employers of labor in the entire district pledging them not to employ any person who is affiliated with a labor union.

No person who work be exempt, and the a of unionism in this by members of the the Mine Owners' considered the m taken by the alli upper hold in t forcement will women now a unions.

tured and several men killed. We had no casualties.

"Outposts of Cossacks on the main Liao-Yang road were driven in June 7, but reinforcements forced the Japanese to retire. Our loss during the fighting which lasted until 7 p. m., was Capt. Liatschko and two soudiers killed, and five soldiers wounded.

Among the rumors that fill the city tonight is one of better authority than the average, that Gen. Kuropatkin is himself moving southward from Liao-Yang. It is not possible to authoritatively confirm the report.

The public takes hold eagerly of every scrap of information or misinformation concerning events in the far east. Everyone is alert for official news of a serious attack on Port Arthur which it is felt cannot be long delayed. It is believed that Japanese plans contemplate an attack tomorrow. St. Petersburg is displaying more interest in the fate of Port Arthur than in any event since the first naval reverse.

Except for a brief message of mysterious origin from Rear Admiral Withoft, both the people and the official world are quite in the dark concerning events in Southern Liao-Tung. Every foreign dispatch is studied, enlarged, distorted and verbally transmitted. Crowds larger than usual are before the bulletin boards. They have been standing for hours waiting for the latest information, commenting animatedly on the significance of each message. The feeling continually voiced is for definite news to allay the suspense.

Watching Kuropatkin.

All Japanese movements are interpreted here as caused by anxiety to hamper as much as possible whatever movement Gen. Kuropatkin may be making to help Port Arthur. Not only have the Japanese bombarded the west coast of Liao-Tung peninsula, where the railway runs close to the shore, making feints of debarkation, but Gen. Kuroki has assumed the offensive eastward. He has sent an overpoweringly strong column that drove out the Russians from a fortified position at Saimatze, 20 miles northwest of Fung-Wang-Cheng, inflicting a loss of 100 men.

The authorities say that they are without information concerning the fight at Saimatze beyond the official dispatch that was made public tonight, but that the Russian withdrawal was quite in accordance with Gen. Kuropatkin's prearranged plan, although the Russian losses indicated stubborn fighting. Military critics profess to be not altogether certain whether Gen. Kuroki's movement means a real advance or is simply a feint to distract Russian attention from Port Arthur, but they incline to the latter view.

An official dispatch from Rear Admiral Wittsoeft, dated June 7, reports that the enemy has been bombarding Port Arthur intermittently from the sea, but does not mention serious operations from the land side. The general staff seems certain that the enemy's siege guns have not yet been brought up.

The admiralty is not disposed to credit the report that the Port Arthur squadron has left Port Arthur or the rumor of its juncture with the Vladivostok squadron, although this is evidently part of the program. If it comes to the worst, the Port Arthur squadron will go out and give battle.

At the admiralty the reported action of the Japanese warships in shelling the coast near Kaichau will be interpreted if confirmed as a demonstration to discourage the sending of a strong force south against Gen. Oku's rear.

The mystification concerning the strength of the force sent south continues. The war office, which seemingly is not fully advised in regard to Gen. Kuropatkin's plans, says the commander-in-chief's ability to detach an adequate force will depend upon the number of troops at Gen. Kuroki's disposal, concerning which apparently there is no accurate information here, although the belief is that the Japanese commander has about 48 battalions at Fung-Wang-Cheng and 36 in the vicinity of Takushan.

Looks Like Wireless.

While declining to furnish specific information on the subject, it seems certain that the Russians are now in wireless communication with Port Arthur. By no other way could the receipt of Admiral Witteoeft's dispatch of June 7, reporting the intermittent bombardment of Port Arthur from the sea, be accounted for.

TOKYO, June 9.—(Noon)—Wounded officers who have returned to Japan from the Liao-Tung peninsula give interesting details of the battle of Nanshan Hill. After the first ineffectual attack on the hill the Japanese scouts discovered that there were mines at some spot at the foot of the hill. It was determined that they could only be definitely located by the sacrifice of some men.

Hundreds volunteered to go to what appeared to be a certain death. They led the second advance and found that heavy rains had washed away the covering of earth and had exposed the mines. Engineers cut the connecting wires, rendering the mines useless, and sustained no loss. The volunteers were nearly all killed in the subsequent ineffectual attack on the hill.

Battle in the Sea.

The Osake men, from the right wing, while advancing through the water along the shore, encountered a body of Russians, also in the water. A fierce fight ensued, both sides being waist deep in the sea. When the Russians finally retreated the water was literally crimson. Both sides lost heavily.

During the day the Russians used several war balloons well out of range. In trenches, after they had been captured, were found many articles of clothing belonging to women and children, making it evident that the Russians intended their defense to be permanent.

Official reports show that the first section of Talienwan bay has been completely cleared of mines. Sixty-two have been found and exploded by the force under Admiral Katacka. Two Russian ships were found under water about 1,200 yards west of Sanshan island, one of which is believed to be the cruiser Boyarin. Other sunken vessels have also been found southwest of the same island.

RELEASED FROM CHARGE OF MURDERING TAYLOR

CANTON, O., June 9.—The authorities have released Richard Quigley and Tina La Belle, who were arrested and given a preliminary hearing on the charge of murdering George H. Taylor, a prominent merchant, who was shot and killed in his store some time since. The evidence against the accused couple was not strong enough to justify the authorities in holding them.

FEARED TO FRAME ANY PLATFORM

Utah Democrats Send Delegates to St. Louis Without Reference to Issues.

FOUR ARE AGAINST HEARST

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH, June 9.—The six delegates from Utah to the Democratic national convention will go uninstructed. Four of the six, it is understood, are against William R. Hearst, with a leaning toward Judge Parker as a first choice. Two delegates probably will support Hearst.

For some time before the Democratic state convention, which met today, it seemed almost certain that a bitter factional fight would be waged over the question of instructions to the national delegates with regard to the polygamy question. One faction, led by Brigham H. Roberts, was outspoken in its demands that the delegates be instructed to fight any anti-polygamy plank in the national platform. Another faction strongly favored the adoption of a plank in the state platform similar to that adopted by the Idaho Democratic convention, demanding that the federal government take into its own hands the suppression of polygamy.

It was finally decided by the party leaders to avoid all reference to the question and so thoroughly was this plan carried out that no committee on resolutions was appointed and no platform was presented to the convention. Temporary Chairman Tillman D. Johnson, in his opening speech, made a plea for an uninstructed delegation, and said the only platform the Democratic party needed this year to win was an anti-Roosevelt plank. This was the only reference to national issues made.

The delegates to the national convention are: Joseph Monson, George C. Whitmore, former Senator Frank J. Cannon and Joseph L. Rawlins, S. A. King and Simeon Bamberger. D. H. Peary, Jr., a young mining man of Salt Lake City, was elected national committeeman from Utah.

MACCABEES ELECT THEIR GREAT OFFICERS

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

BATTLE CREEK, MICH., June 9.—The great camp of the Knights of the Modern Maccabees, now in convention here, today re-elected officers as follows: Great commander, N. S. Boynton, Port Huron; great lieutenant-commander, C. H. Thomas, Hastings; great record keeper, A. A. M. Slay, Port Huron; great finance keeper, R. J. Whaley, Flint; great medical examiner, Talbert Sleneau, Port Huron; great organizer, F. W. Stevens, Port Huron; executive committee, A. V. Fredericks, Traverse City; E. J. Jeffries, Detroit; C. H. Thomas, Hastings; Perry F. Powers, Cadillac; G. S. Lovelace, Muskegon; auditors, H. H. Wright, Port Huron; W. R. Kendrick, Saginaw; Lester Clark, Marquette.

The great hive, Ladies of the Maccabees, has rejected the proposed change in the representation of the great hive. It was proposed to change the present representation, one delegate from each hive to one delegate for each 100 members. The salaries of the great hive commander and record keeper were raised from $1,500 to $2,000 per year.

The great camp of Maccabees decided this afternoon to adopt the county plan of representation for the next review, allowing one delegate to each 300 Maccabees. The change is intended to cut down the size of the conventions, which are so large as to be very expensive. It was also decided to do away with semi-annual payments of the per capita tax and make it payable in installments at the first six assessments each year.

The great hive of the Lady Maccabees raised the per capita tax from 50 cents to $1, which includes subscription for the official paper and also convention tax.

RELIEF FOR FAMILIES.

Delegates to Federation Give $1,000 for Miners' Wives and Children.

DENVER, June 9.—One hundred and fifty delegates to the convention of the Western Federation of Miners left for their homes today. At a meeting of the executive board today $1,000 was placed on deposit for the relief of the wives and children of union miners in the Cripple Creek district.

"The executive board will see that no militiamen will take the food out of the mouths of these people," said Vice President Williams. "They have destroyed the co-operative store at Cripple Creek for that purpose, but the board will attend to the wants of these needy ones. More money will be deposited if necessary."

Mr. Williams added that the Victor Record did not voice the sentiments of the Federation officials in advising that the strike be called off.

MISS MORTON VERY ILL.

Operated Upon for Appendicitis—Sister's Marital Trouble Had a Bad Effect.

PARIS, June 9.—(Special Cable)—Drs. Routier and Dieu La Foy, attending Miss Lena Morton, stated this evening that the patient's condition is alarming. Governor and Mrs. Levi P. Morton and the duchess of Valencay passed the day at the bedside. Mrs. Morton said to your correspondent this evening: "My daughter has been ailing for six weeks. Last Monday we removed her to the sanitarium Marie Therese, where an operation was performed for appendicitis. We hadn't an idea it was so serious. We thank our American friends for their kind inquiries."

Blood poisoning is feared and the patient may not survive long. The duchess of Valencay underwent an operation for appendicitis a year ago. Worry over her sister's marital troubles has had a bad effect on Miss Morton.

SWARTZ IS PRESIDENT.

Pittsburgh Bank Clerks Chose Officers of Local Chapter.

The members of the Pittsburgh chapter, American Institute of Bank Clerks, at a meeting in the corporation room of the Keystone Bank building, yesterday chose the following officers for the coming year: President, J. S. Swartz, City Deposit bank; vice president, F. M. Peairs, Second National bank; recorder, J. P. Crisp, Mellon National bank; treasurer, T. A. McNairy, First National bank, Allegheny.

Eight new members were admitted and other routine business was transacted. It was announced that the arrangements now being made for the Pittsburgh delegation to the St. Louis convention in August provide for a special car from this city. The chapter will hold a field day at Ross Grove on June 25.

FIRE CAUSED $4,000 LOSS.

Large Frame Apartment Building in McKees Rocks Badly Damaged.

Fire badly damaged a frame apartment building in Island avenue, near Patterson street, McKees Rocks, shortly after last midnight, causing a loss of about $4,000. The building contained three stories on the front and four in the rear. The first floor was occupied by W. L. Barndollar, who conducted a drug store in the place. His loss is estimated at $2,000, covered by insurance.

The second was occupied by H. S. Neely, a grocer, who owned the building. Mr. Neely's loss is about $1,200, also covered by insurance. The third and fourth stories were occupied by a family named Parker and their loss is placed at about $800. The fire was of unknown origin and lighted the valley up for a long distance. It was reported during the fire that dynamite was stored in the building. All the people escaped before the flames had made much headway.

PITTSBURGH RESIDENCE OF P. C. KNOX IN ELLSWORTH AVENUE

P. C. KNOX WILL BE MADE SENATOR BY GOVERNOR TODAY

Chairmen Ford and Leslie and Fred W. Edwards were the only ones there. Mr. Leslie said:

"Senator Flinn and the rest of us were asked by Senator Penrose to Philadelphia and assist in solving the senatorial problem. We have had two conferences before the one this afternoon. Yesterday afternoon we were requested to add to our list of eligibles the name of Attorney General Knox. That was our first intimation that Mr. Knox was a candidate. We complied with the request, and at the conference now just concluded we agreed to Knox's selection as United States senator to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Col. M. S. Quay.

"Senator Flinn acted with Senator Penrose in the final disposition of the matter. Our principal purpose, that of having the honor go to Allegheny county, has been accomplished. Senator Penrose will make a formal statement later."

Immediately upon the termination of this interview, Flinn, Leslie and Ford, sent a congratulatory telegram to Mr. Knox at his Valley Forge farm. Mr. Flinn had but little to say for publication. Mr. Knox, he said, had sent him a message to the effect that he would accept the appointment if the Allegheny county Republican organization indorsed him for the honor.

Record Speaks For Itself.

"This we have done," said Flinn, "and there is no doubt of his acceptance. Relative to Mr. Knox's fitness for the place I can only refer you to his record. As a lawyer, jurist and statesman, his position is familiar to the American people, and I can add nothing to the popular appreciation in which he is held."

Epitomizing the efforts which culminated in the selection of Mr. Knox, especial credit is due to Senator Flinn and the Republican chairmen of Allegheny county; to Banking Commissioner McAfee, also of Allegheny, who has been the valuable conservative advisor of Gov. Pennypacker; Senator Penrose and Commissioner Durham, and in particular to R. R. Quay. Mr. Quay has been a factor of important potentiality. He has subordinated personal ambition, an ambition that might have been gratified, at least so far as the short term was concerned, and labored honestly and earnestly to bring about the result most helpful to the Republican party of Pennsylvania.

Those who in the past have not warmed to a cordial degree Mr. Quay are tonight sounding his praises, declaring him to be a worthy son of his most illustrious sire.

Appreciated by McAfee.

"I cannot fittingly express my appreciation of the selection of P. C. Knox," said McAfee tonight. "His appointment must disarm the most unfair critics. The press of eastern Pennsylvania has been demanding a senator of the Knox type. It has urged the selection of a man not of the practical school of politics; a man to whom the honor would go because of his intellectual and personal and moral attainments. In Mr. Knox this measure is taken. He has never been a failure in politics. He is hardly on speaking acquaintance with the Republican organization of his home county. He is a stranger to the word factionalism and he is innocent of political action save voting the Republican ticket.

"President McKinley invited him to become a member of his official family because of his legal genius; because he was a man who nothing outside the jurisdiction of official and personal duty; knew him as a man who could not, for any consideration, be swerved from what he thought to be right. Such a man, as senator from Pennsylvania, is above criticism, a credit to the honorable traditions of his illustrious predecessor."

Most Fortunate Conclusion.

Col. W. R. Andrews, secretary of the Republican state committee, said that in the selection of Mr. Knox the leaders had gone outside the realm of politics. They have chosen a man who impressed them only because of his pre-eminent qualifications. As one for many years identified with the details of organization work, Mr. Andrews felt that a most fortunate conclusion had been reached.

There is no material opposition to the selection of Knox. John P. Elkin is still in the manger and with him are Thomas S. Bigelow and Murry A. Verner. They are not happy. Personal disappointment renders them practically speechless. Bigelow alone gave vent to his inner thoughts. He referred to Knox as a "direct representative" of the United States Steel Corporation, which, he said, was controlled by H. C. Frick. With a humor that will be particularly "fetching" to Pittsburghers, Mr. Bigelow said Knox's appointment "illustrated the power of money in politics." This phase of the matter, assuming that it has a place, must be most distressing to both Elkin and Bigelow.

Elkin Was for Stone.

Elkin had no part in the conference of today. His friends say he declared that he would not agree to any selection except that of ex-Gov. W. A. Stone of Allegheny. Insurance Commissioner Israel W. Durham had an hour's talk this morning with Elkin. Afterwards Durham refused to be quoted at length. He said he would not have any controversy with Elkin and that the plowboy in the future must speak for himself.

Mr. Durham was told this morning that Elkin still expected to land. "He ought to know that he would have to land with Penrose before he could land with me," was Durham's reply.

Elkin's friends have said if he was not taken up for the senatorial vacancy, that he would get off the state ticket and hoist the black flag. Mr. Elkin himself has made no such threat, at least, not publicly. I am authorized to say that if such is his intention he cannot act too quickly, also that there will be no difficulty in naming a successor who will be equally satisfactory to the Republicans of Pennsylvania, and one who will poll quite as many Republican votes. But those "in the know" have no hope of Elkin's retirement. He will hold to a sure thing, always has and always will. An effort to secure an expression from Francis L. Robbins failed for the reason that Mr. Robbins left Philadelphia before the official decision was announced. But there is no doubt that Robbins, like Flinn, will "take his medicine like a man," and support the majority sentiment of the party.

ATTORNEY GENERAL KNOX EXPLAINS THE REASON

getting back there to take up my private practice."

"Have you thought about what policies you will favor after you have taken your seat in the senate?" Mr. Knox was asked.

Came Like a Flash.

"I have not given the subject a thought," was the answer. "This thing came to me like a flash out of a clear sky and I have had no time to think about anything."

"Have you any idea as to who your successor will be?"

"I have not the remotest idea," replied Mr. Knox. "The telephone service was so poor while I was talking with the president that I had no chance to discuss that matter with him at all and after he had advised me about the senatorship we just stopped talking.

"I shall, however, go to Washington in the morning to lay my resignation before the president and to confer with him about such matters as pertain to the change in the attorney general's office."

"Can you make a suggestion as to where the president will find a man for your place, who is so well qualified to carry out his anti-trust policies?"

"There are any number of men perfectly qualified to do even more than I have done," was the reply. "The president's trust policies are his own. I have been no more than the exponent of his ideas and in choosing my successor the president will have no difficulty in securing a man quite as well equipped to carry his policies into execution as I have been."

Of More Service in Senate.

"It will be rather difficult to convince the president of that," was suggested, and Mr. Knox remarked:

"I don't admit that; but if I have been of any service to President Roosevelt as a member of his cabinet, I will be of just as much, if not more, service to him in the senate, for my relations with him will be quite as intimate as they have ever been, and any advice I can give him as a lawyer, or by reason of my association with what has already been done, will be very cheerfully at his command."

Linking his arm in that of Henry C. Frick, who came up almost at the moment, Mr. Knox terminated the interview.

NAMING OF P. C. KNOX WELL RECEIVED HERE

Republican, although he has not taken an active interest in local politics. Occasionally he has appeared on the stump. When H. J. Ford was nominated for mayor of Pittsburgh Mr. Knox presided over the convention. Some of his friends say that as a senator they do not expect that he will give a great deal of attention to politics. It is believed that the distribution will be left largely to his colleague, Mr. Penrose.

Effort has been made to creat the impression that Senator Flinn and John P. Elkin would form a political combination to wrest the control of the state from the present leaders. The close friends of the senator all say that there is no foundation for the story. They say that when he agreed to the candidacy of Mr. Knox it meant that he intendes to work in harmony with Senator Penrose.

SOMETHING OF THE LIFE AND WORK OF P. C. KNOX

He Has Been a Resident of Allegheny County for Over 30 Years.

Philander Chase Knox, who has been named by the Republican state leaders as their choice to succeed Senator M. S. Quay in the United States senate, is a product of Western Pennsylvania. For 32 years he has been a resident of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Knox was born in Brownsville, Fayette county, on May 4, 1853. His father, David S. Knox, was a banker in that town. The son did not like the banking business and was sent to Mt. Union college, in Alliance, O. While at school the young man made the acquaintance of Maj. William McKinley. The acquaintanceship quickly ripened into a friendship which lasted until the death of President McKinley.

When Mr. Knox completed his education, in 1872, he came to Pittsburgh and entered the law office of H. H. Swope, then United States attorney for Western Pennsylvania. Later he studied law with David Reed, uncle of former Judge James H. Reed. For a time he was an assistant United States attorney, but his growing private practice compelled him to retire from public life. For years he was senior member of the law firm of Knox & Reed.

Mr. Knox for years has had a national reputation as a lawyer. He was the chief counsel for the Carnegie Steel Company and won many important cases. When, on April 5, 1901, President McKinley appointed him attorney general of the United States, Mr. Knox had made a record as a lawyer which has been excelled by few men. During his public service the prominent part he played in the winning of the Alaskan boundary and Northern Securities cases brought him fresh laurels.

Mr. Knox has a handsome home in Ellsworth avenue, in the East End; a beautiful country place at Valley Forge, near Philadelphia, and a residence in Washington. He is a great lover of outdoor sports and fine horses.

W. A. DAY MAY GO INTO THE CABINET

trust cases. Judge Day became prominent in the beef trust case and instituted proceedings which resulted in an injunction. When congress authorized the attorney general to employ additional assistance in the prosecution of corporation cases a new office was created in the department of justice—that of assistant to the attorney general—and Judge Day was appointed to fill the place. He assisted the attorney general in preparing the Northern Securities case and early this spring went to Paris to complete the Panama canal transfer.

Roosevelt Depended on Knox.

The resignation of Attorney General Knox from the cabinet will be a distinct loss to the Roosevelt administration. The loss will be felt keenly by President Roosevelt, who, especially since the resignation of Secretary Root, has learned to depend more upon the advice and counsel of Mr. Knox than that of any other member of the cabinet. But, in spite of this feeling, the president did not stand in the way of the attorney general making the change. He saw the possibilities in a senatorial career for Mr. Knox and would not say a word to deter him from accepting it. In fact, when he was asked for his consent over the long-distance telephone he advised the attorney general to accept.

No official statement could be obtained from the president on the question during the day, but that he felt that the resignation of the head of the department of justice would be a great loss was shown in a conversation with a visitor when he asked anxiously for any reliable news concerning the choice of Mr. Knox and said he did not know how he would get along without his assistance. Yet when the question was passed up to the president to decide, Mr. Knox having declined to accept without the consent of the president, the answer from the White House was an affirmative one.

Could Have Been Governor.

Two years ago, when the Republicans of Pennsylvania were about to nominate a candidate for governor, the name of P. C. Knox was mentioned in that connection. At that time the president put his foot down on the suggestion, and did it hard.

"Knox is needed right here," said the president. "We need him more than the state of Pennsylvania does, and we want him to stay in the cabinet."

And that ended the boom of Mr. Knox for governor. That was before the attorney general had made his great record by his prosecutions of the trusts; but even then he and the president were formulating their plans for enforcing the interstate commerce laws. Since then Attorney General Knox has conducted the administration through litigation to a triumphant success that has vindicated the law and has proved the sincerity and honesty of the administration in relation to its enforcement.

But a feature of the situation that has been discussed here since it became known that the attorney general was the choice of the Pennsylvania leaders for the senate, is that while the president loses a strong member of the cabinet by the resignation of Mr. Knox from the cabinet, he gains an able supporter in the senate. For Mr. Knox believes in Roosevelt and he will prove a strong advocate for the administration. He will be welcomed into the senate by the leaders of that body and will no doubt at once take a leading position there.

Would Not Have Made a Contest.

The history of the Northern Securities case is so recent that the public is quite familiar with it. It was the crowning success of the attorney general's official career, but his term of office has had many other successes and not a single failure. He conducted all the legal business in connection with the purchase of the Panama canal and that great deal was put through without a single blunder. Even Secretary of War Root, himself a lawyer of national reputation and high standing, was always glad to avail himself of the advice of Attorney General Knox upon matters in his department. Not only in legal affairs but in matters of politics and in all other important questions that came before the administration, the president was pleased to have the advice of Mr. Knox. He came to lean upon him more and more, and for that reason will the more keenly feel his loss.

Early in the day there was general expression of opinion to the effect that Mr. Knox would not accept the senatorship. It was known that he had not been a candidate for the place in any sense and in conversation with a visitor recently, he stated as much. It is certain that he would not have gone into a contest for the place, but when it was offered to him without any conditions by the Republican leaders of Pennsylvania, that put the case in a different light.

UNCLE SAM WILL NOT PAY RANSOM

Government Not Committed to Guarantee Morocco's Pledge to Bandit

ONLY TWO MARINES LANDED

The Pittsburgh Gazette Bureau,
Room 10, Postal Building.
WASHINGTON, D. C., June 9.

Although the life of Ion Perdicaris be at stake the United States will not be forced to guarantee that the sultan of Morocco carry out his pledge to Raisuli, his bandit captor. Rear Admiral Chadwick today cabled the navy department that the minister of foreign affairs at Tangier had received instructions from Fez that the sultan acceded to all of Raisuli's demands.

Secretary Hay, fearing that the sultan might be depending upon the United States to guarantee the payment of the $55,000 ransom, the preservation of Raisuli's immunity from arrest within a certain district and the humiliation of Raisuli's enemies now holding office in Morocco, sent firm instructions to Consul Gummere. That official will tell the sultan that the United States can offer no guarantee to Raisuli and will not do so. The state department considers Mr. Perdicaris' life of much importance, but the danger in setting a precedent which will encourage brigandage and blackmail is considered more vital.

There is confidence expressed here that the negotiations will come to a satisfactory conclusion soon. Consul Gummere also cabled today that the sultan's answer had not yet reached Raisuli, who is sequestered with his captives in the Moroccan mountains. It is hoped that the brigand will accede to the sultan's agreement to pay the ransom, even though the guaranty which he first stipulated should be extended by the United States and Great Britain is not forthcoming.

Brig.-Gen. John P. Story, a chief of artillery, U. S. A., has received a cablegram from his daughter, who is the Countess de Buisseret, wife of the Belgian minister to Morocco, for whose protection Rear Admiral Chadwick yesterday sent two marines to the Belgian legation. As Miss Caroline Story, the countess was extremely popular in Washington society. She was married in 1896 to Buisseret, who was counselor of the Belgian legation in Washington and who is now occupying his first post as minister, having been sent to Morocco from Vienna, where he was counselor of legation up to a year ago. Admiral Chadwick has known the countess for many years, and in a cablegram to the navy department today said that the Belgian minister was at Fez, whither he had recently been summoned by the sultan. The "landing of an armed force" reported without qualification by Admiral Chadwick yesterday was regarded humorously here today when it was learned that the "force" consisted of two marines.

STOPPED AFONG BEAUTY AT STEAMER GANGPLANK

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 9.—Mrs. Carrie Riggs, wife of Lieut. Riggs, of the United States navy, was stopped at the gangplank of the steamer Coptic and refused a landing today on the grounds that she is a Chinese woman. It is not unusual to stop Chinese women married to United States naval officers, but the woman in this case was beyond this. She is one of the Afong girls, the world famous beauties of Honolulu. Immigration Commissioner Hart H. North later let the woman land.

Mrs. Riggs is not the only one of the Afong girls who have married into the navy, an elder sister being the wife of Admiral Whiting. Mrs. Riggs, who is 22 years old and has the traditional Afong beauty, traveled on the steamer with a millionaire brother, Tony C. Afong, 43 years old, and a nephew of Chun Wing Sen Afong, aged 16, who is to enter a college in this country.

The brother and nephew had come on the Siberia from Shanghai where the aged head of the Afong house now lives and had stopped over at Honolulu, where Mrs. Riggs joined them and they completed the voyage on the Coptic.

Scotch Basso Was Concert Star in Hamilton Hall Last Night.

David Baxter, the Scotch basso, made many new friends last night at the concert given in Hamilton hall, Wood street. His splendid voice had fine opportunities in the numbers he sang, and in his rendering of "Myself When Young," from "In a Persian Garden," Mr. Baxter's work met with the utmost enthusiasm, and he was obliged to repeat the number. His singing of Dudley Buck's "Sunset" was magnificent and was a fine example of the dramatic power he possesses in such large measure.

Not a little credit for the success of the program is merited by Mr. Francis Edward Edgar, the Angelus soloist, whose fine work elicited the heartiest applause. In accompanying Mr. Baxter's songs, Mr. Edgar showed great delicacy and appreciation of the requirements and gave ample evidence of the marvelous possibilities of the piano player in the hands of the musician.

This series of concerts is attracting great attention in musical circles and are welcomed as a decided innovation.

This afternoon Mr. Sidney M. Hamilton, an American pianist of much talent, will make his first appearance since his return from a stay of several years in Leipsic. ### CORPSE HAS BEEN IDENTIFIED

New Castle, Col., June 9.—A posse of ranchmen and cowboys living in the neighborhood of Garfield, west of this place, came upon three men supposed to be the Denver & Rio Grande train robbers who dynamited the express car of a train near Parachute, Col., Tuesday night, and in a battle which followed one of the men pursued was killed.

The other two escaped into Garfield canyon and at last accounts were completely surrounded. It is thought that escape is impossible. The dead man was brought to this place tonight and was identified as one of the three men who worked several days last week on the Denver & Rio Grande section near Parachute. He went under the name of J. H. Ross.

It is reported that at least 200 men, heavily armed, are watching the other two men in Garfield canyon and will shoot them down if they attempt to escape.

DOWIE MAKES A POOR IMPRESSION IN BERLIN

His Talk Soon Destroys Religious Fervor—Rent of Apartments Considered Enormous.

By MALCOLM CLARKE.
[Special Cable to The Gazette.]

BERLIN, June 9.—The people of Berlin have seen Dowie, the second Elijah, and he has made a poor impression. The American prophet arrived here yesterday and the first meeting took place last night in the largest hall in the city, which was crowded to the doors, and hundreds had to stand outside unable to get in. Many brought along prayer books and knelt down at the beginning of the service. The prophet, however, soon succeeded in destroying their religious fervor and made himself as ridiculous as he did in New York. An interpreter translated his talk. The chief of police had his official stenographer take every word, for fear he would attack the emperor. His rather incoherent speech, however, contained absolutely nothing of the slightest interest, much less anything which might be construed as lese majeste. That his main object was to boom up his American city and to replenish his coffers was evident to everybody, although he made no direct appeal for money. He claimed that he had gained 250 new recruits in Switzerland and that he hoped to gain at least 100 times as many in Germany. No one expressed any desire to join him or his army.

Another meeting took place tonight, opened with a demonstration of healing performed by Mr. Dowie and his helpers. Forty dollars a day Mr. Dowie pays for apartments, recently used by a member of the Vanderbilt family, is an enormous sum, according to the German way of thinking.

PRINCELY PARTY SAILS.

German Tourists Were Greatly Pleased With Their Visit to America.

NEW YORK, June 9.—(Special.)—Prince Zu Hohenlohe Scillingfurst and his party, who have been making a tour of this country, sailed today on the Deutschland. In the prince's party are his sister, Princess Elizabeth Zu Hohenlohe, Victor, hereditary Prince von Ratibor, Prince Karl von Ratibor, Princess Elizabeth von Ratibor, Count Mortiz von Rumerskirch, Frau Maria Borgnis and Fraulein Marie Borgnis.

The prince said that he had enjoyed himself thoroughly during his stay in America. "The Americans are a grand people," he said. "I admire their intelligence and their democratic ways. The country and its institutions are something beyond the imagination of one who has never seen them."

M'KENNA NAMED FOR JUDGESHIP

Pittsburgh Attorney Commissioned to Federal Bench of Porto Rico.

HAS GONE TO WASHINGTON

Judge Charles F. McKenna left for Washington last night in response to a telegram from Congressman John Dalzell, who informed him that President Roosevelt had signed his commission as United States judge of Porto Rico, and asked Mr. McKenna to visit the capital as soon as possible.

Judge McKenna received no official communication of his appointment, and he would not, therefore, be interviewed as a man who has received the appointment. He will, no doubt, receive his commission today from the hands of the president, upon whom, as in duty and inclination bound, he will call. There is no term of court in Porto Rico just now, the summer vacation being on, and court will not convene until October, so that there is no need of the judge's presence until then.

Charles F. McKenna.

It is probable that Judge McKenna will take a trip to Porto Rico a few weeks before court begins, for he will have to look after quarters for himself and family and he may wish to become acquainted with the district and the people. United States court is held in four places in the island, but the city of San Juan, on the northern coast, is the capital and the headquarters of the court.

Judge McKenna was busy yesterday receiving the congratulations of friends. Everybody he met had congratulations to offer, and while he was in his office he was constantly attending to similar good wishes over the telephone.

Takes Effect at Once.

L. W. Strayer, staff correspondent of The Gazette at Washington, last night sent the following:

The commission of Charles F. McKenna, as United States district judge of Porto Rico, was signed today by President Roosevelt. Representative Dalzell, who had recommended Mr. McKenna for the place, called at the White House this morning to talk over the case with the president, and while he was there President Roosevelt attached his name to the commission. Senator Penrose had withdrawn his opposition to the appointment, having written a letter informing the president that he had no objections to the naming of Mr. McKenna. The commission takes effect at once, as the term of Judge William H. Holt, whom Mr. McKenna succeeds in the island, expired on June 5. Judge Holt was from Kentucky.

In notifying Mr. McKenna by wire today, Mr. Dalzell asked him to be here tomorrow to meet Gov. Winthrop, the newly appointed executive of Porto Rico, who is expected to be here then. The president was anxious that they should meet and confer upon conditions in the island, and they will both have a talk with Secretary Taft of the war department.

Controversy Soon Ended.

It will be recalled that the appointment of Mr. McKenna to this position was first made during the closing hours of congress upon the recommendation of Representative Dalzell and with the approval of Attorney General Knox. But Mr. Dalzell had not consulted with either Senator Quay or Senator Penrose in the matter, and consequently when the appointment came before the senate for confirmation it was held up. The senators said that they had no specific objections to Mr. McKenna, but thought they should have been consulted about an appointment of such importance as this, and, besides, they claimed to know nothing of Mr. McKenna's political affiliations. Congress adjourned and the appointment died with it.

Influence was then brought to bear to have the senatorial objections removed, and before Senator Quay died explanations had been made that satisfied him. Following Senator Quay's death, Senator Penrose stated that he would no longer oppose the appointment of Mr. McKenna, and promised to notify the president of his attitude. This he did in a letter, and as a result the commission was promptly signed, as President Roosevelt was pleased to see a settlement of the political differences in the case, as he believed Mr. McKenna to be the man he wanted in Porto Rico. While Attorney General Knox declined to take any part in the political controversy, he wished to see the Pittsburgh lawyer appointed for the same reason that the president did.

BIGELOW HAS PLANS.

Will Make Next Fourth of July Celebration the Greatest Ever Witnessed Here.

Director Bigelow has decided that the next Fourth of July celebration shall be greater than any ever before held here, not excluding the one in which President Roosevelt participated. The other day it seemed as if the usual sports would be omitted and there would be nothing but fireworks, but the director has made other arrangements.

In a day or two he will consult with the sporting editors of the newspapers, who have usually had charge of the sports, and in conjunction with them he will map out an elaborate program of sporting events. Then he will consult with his fireworks expert, whom he expects to produce rare and excellent effects. There will be no public speaking.

The fund now amounts to $910. Director Bigelow wants $10,000, and he is confident that there are enough public-spirited citizens to raise that amount. Contributions to the fund were received by Mayor Hays yesterday as follows: Dilworth, Porter & Co., $100; the Jones & Laughlin Steel Co., $200; the Monongahela Tube Co., $25; the Phillips Mine & Mill Supply Co., $50; the Allegheny National bank, $200; Daniel McCaffrey's Sons $10, and James Madden, $10.

Not Fined for Carrying Revolver.

Considerable attention was centered on the case of J. E. Morgan of Fairmont, W. Va., who had a hearing yesterday before Magistrate Stewart on a charge of carrying concealed weapons. Morgan's daughter left Fairmont with a man over a year ago. Her parents never heard of her afterward. Tuesday her father came to this city and saw his daughter riding in a street car. He obtained a revolver to defend himself from her lover, if he met him. Magistrate Stewart discharged Morgan when he learned the circumstances.

IT IS ILLEGAL, SAYS THE MAYOR

He Will Veto the Resolution Giving City Firemen a Vacation With Pay.

BIGELOW TO CLEAR SIDEWALKS

Mayor Hays intends to veto the resolution giving city firemen two weeks' vacation with pay. The mayor wants it understood that he has no special objection to a vacation for firemen, but he holds that the resolution as it passed both branches of councils is clearly illegal.

The case has two phases, either one of which vitiates it, the mayor holds. On general principles, he said yesterday, resolutions providing for the expenditure of money must originate in councils, be referred to a committee, be printed, pass councils and be signed by the mayor. Whichever way this resolution is looked at, the mayor thinks, it provides for an expenditure of money, for if the firemen get a vacation with pay, money is expended. If it is asserted that no money expenditure is contemplated, on the ground that there is no provision in the resolution for the payment of substitutes, then, the mayor maintains, the fire service might be crippled by giving firemen vacations and providing no money to employ substitutes. Some members of councils say that there are enough votes to override the mayor's veto of the resolution.

Treasurer Will Obey Resolution.

City Treasurer Frauenheim will deposit city funds with the four city depositories named by the finance committee and approved by councils. He took this resolution even after an interview with Controller Larkin. The controller tried to impress the treasurer with his opinion that the method of selecting the depositories was illegal. The controller told Frauenheim that the resolution naming the depositories should have gone through the same procedure followed by ordinances. It should have been offered in councils, referred to the proper committee, affirmatively recommended by the committee, then passed by both branches of councils and signed by the mayor; whereas the resolution under which the city treasurer is required to deposit city funds in certain banks is only a concurrent resolution of both branches and will not be submitted to the mayor for his approval and veto.

Frauenheim said yesterday that he did not know what else he could do but to obey the resolution if it were signed by the city clerk and both presidents of councils. It is said that the mayor was opposed to the selection of depositories in the manner followed. If that is the case, it is pointed out, it is within his rights to order the city treasurer, his appointee, to refuse to obey the resolution.

Controller Larkin's Opinion.

Controller Larkin says the contract with the present depositories does not expire for seven months. When they expire, he said, the mayor and the treasurer must sign a contract with each depository, and, with only the concurrent resolution to back them up, the contracts will not be worth anything. It is not certain that the mayor will consider himself bound to sign a contract under a councilmanic resolution that ignores his rights to approve or veto.

Under Director Bigelow's directions, the department of public safety is now preparing a list of the merchants and property holders who maintain what he calls "nuisances," in the shape of sidewalk areaways, cellar elevators opening on sidewalks, show cases and stands obstructing the sidewalks.

It will be a long list, for many of the obstructions have existed for years, although the sidewalk elevators are a development of the modern skyscraper. As soon as the list has been prepared and printed the director will notify offenders to abolish the obstructions and inform them that if they do not obey the ordinance on the subject they will be prosecuted.

MASS MEETING CALLED.

Bricklayers to Take a Stand Regarding the Tuck Pointing Dispute.

A general mass meeting of the bricklayers and stone masons in Allegheny county will be held in the Forbes street Turner hall this evening to take action on the dispute between the contractors doing the tuck pointing and cleaning on the Wabash station. The bricklayers stopped work because the contractors engaged men not in the union. The contractors and workmen have held two conferences, but no settlement was reached.

The workmen will be asked to decide tonight whether to claim the tuck pointing or let non-members do the work. Another conference will be held Saturday, when the matter will be settled. William Bowen, national president, and John Nolan, general organizer, attended yesterday's conference.

Week's Deaths in Pittsburgh.

There were 122 deaths in Pittsburgh last week. Typhoid fever caused 14 and pneumonia 9. Four cases of typhoid fever and one each of scarlet fever and diphtheria were reported in the city yesterday.

Old Glory and Flag Day.

Next Tuesday is Flag Day. It is shameful to have to acknowledge it, but it is nevertheless true, Flag Day is not impressed upon the mind of the American patriot. The writer yesterday asked half a dozen men in succession, some of them of the Grand Army, the date for Flag Day, and none could give it. Similarly any number of people forget to fling Old Glory to the breeze on that day.

Of all the days in the year the Star-Spangled Banner should proudly float on Flag Day. It is an educational day, a day when the young of the land are to be told of the glories of the best of all Flags.

In Basement of East Store there is every size U. S. Flag that anyone can call for, all sizes in which silk flags come, all sizes in which bunting flags come. Get your Starry Flag at once and fly it next Tuesday from the loftiest place you can find on your house.

Novelties From Abroad.

In one of the windows of the East Store there is an inviting exhibit of many new things which we have recently brought over from various European countries.

Many of the objects are quaintly pretty, indeed all of them possess a degree of quaintness rarely seen in goods of the classes represented.

Excuse us, please, from cataloguing the various specimens. Take for granted there is something from abroad which will interest you—and have a look. Not at all expensive.

Mostly decorative pieces, same as now being shown at World's Fair, St. Louis, and which will not be seen elsewhere until next Christmas.

Today Buy Children's Finest Summer Hats for Half Price and Close to Half Price.

We gave the facts last evening, but for those who missed this bit of news, recapitulate. It's a first clearance of the finer sorts of hats for small boys and girls—they are this season's choicest styles, taken from our regular stock with the regular prices still plainly discernible on them.

English Sennet and Milan Straws predominate—as to shapes, the Colonial, the Middy, the Sailor.

Caution: On account of the prices being thus sharply reduced, no hats sent on approval and none exchanged.

Fine Milan Straws and Silk Sailors, hats that were fine value for $2.00 and $2.50, today........ $1.50
Fine Milan Straws and Silk Sailors, hats that were fine value at $2.50 and $4.00, today........ $2.00
Fine Milan Straws and Silk Sailors, hats that were fine value at $5.00 and $6.00, today........ $3.00

Colored Umbrellas, $2.00 Each.

The weather that we have been awarded all week, and for many weeks this present season, is a potent argument in favor of owning a Colored Umbrella—equally practical for sun or rain. When you can't decide which it is going to do—decide on carrying a colored umbrella, and be prepared for any sort of weather.

To get back to the $2.00 umbrellas—plenty of colors to choose from now, but there's no saying how long they'll last. Solid colors, 26 inches, pure silk, tape edge—blue, red, brown, green and black.

At the same price there are some with borders of white, new patterns and styles, same as we are showing in $4.00 goods. One particularly attractive style shows a very deep border of polka dots around edge and center.

Articles for Traveling—In Leather Goods Department.

In this department, first floor, East Store, are many useful articles for both men and women who travel.

Safety Pockets—Toilet Cases—Flasks—Medicine Cases—Folding Mirrors—Folding Photo Frames—Clocks—Jewel Boxes—Tie Boxes.

All variously priced, but at the same time inexpensive.

Eagle Steel Lawn Swings.

When buying a lawn swing, we suggest that you buy a steel one. Steel swings don't rust, therefore they may be left out in all sorts of weather. Steel swings are the strongest, a swing, like a chain, is as strong as its weakest part, but these steel swings haven't a weak spot in them.

We are the sole agents for the Eagle Steel Lawn Swings for Pittsburg and Allegheny.

Four-seated swings, $12.50; two-seated swings, $9.50.

"My Commencement"—In the Book Nook.

A most satisfactory collection of books suitable for commencement prizes and gifts may be found here—in great variety of titles.

"My Commencement" is a timely book for graduates—just published. This book will be found to be a convenient form in which to keep a record of one's commencement and all the interesting facts connected with it, including an account of the exercises, brief sketches of the teachers, the classmates, newspaper clippings, etc.

The keeping of such a record will afford a great deal of entertainment, not only at the time, but in after years when this great occasion of youth is no longer fresh in mind—it will serve to recall many pleasant memories which would otherwise be forgotten.

The book costs $1.00.

Friday, June 10, 1904.

The Gazette desires to call the attention of those of its readers who contemplate summer trips to the announcements of the many summer resort hotels published, on page 14 of this issue.

There is a natural revulsion of sentiment at Victor, Col., induced by the wanton destruction of its newspaper plant. In that matter the non-union men and their sympathizers perpetrated the same crime against liberty that the union men committed when they undertook to prevent other men from working in the mines. In fact, the Colorado imbroglio has been marked on both sides by high-handed outrages that have disgraced the commonwealth.

This is the day set by the Japanese for beginning the attack upon Port Arthur. The date was set after the capture of the heights at Nanshan. Undoubtedly there has been severe fighting during the approach toward the fortress, and there have been rumors that the fortress has been attacked. There have also been rumors that the Japanese were repulsed. But unless they have miscalculated the real attack is to begin today, and the correspondents have been promised access to the news on the scene of conflict by the middle of next week. St. Petersburg itself is evidently at high tension of anxiety and apprehensive that the Japanese plans will be carried out on schedule.

Chicago has suffered a severe loss in the death of Levi Z. Leiter, best known to the general public as the father of Lady Curzon, vicereine of India. Mr. Leiter, however, has been a prominent factor in the business life of Chicago for more than a quarter of a century. He was one of the galaxy of enterprising business men whose public spirit led them to co-operate in promoting the interests of their city, and whose efforts were crowned with a success that challenged the admiration of the world. To these men Chicago meant more than merely a favorable location in which to amass wealth. They gave of their time and their means to boom the city, to improve the city, and to endow it with institutions the advantages of which few of them had enjoyed in their immature years. Mr. Leiter will be missed from the city by the lake.

Charles M. Dickinson, consul general at Constantinople, at home on vacation, speaks entertainingly of conditions in Turkey and in the Balkan states. He perceives undoubted influence from the Japanese-Russian war upon the politics of the Balkans and the sentiment of Turkey. Turkey, he says, is strongly pro-Japanese, though its government is maintaining strict neutrality. The causes of Turkish sympathy are not far to seek, since Russia has stood for years as the barrier to all Turkish ambitions. Mr. Dickinson, praising the Russian dealing with brigandage in Manchuria, adds another reason, perhaps unconsciously, for Turkish hatred of her neighbor at the north. Brigandage is practically inseparable from Mohammedanism throughout the world, though now rare in countries dominated by other religions.

Sir Charles Dilke, discussing the Kongo scandal yesterday, proposed that the United States, which he holds responsible for the creation of the Kongo state, should be invited to investigate the charges of Consul Casement and apply the needed reforms. Sir Charles draws it pretty strong in holding this country responsible for the Kongo state, though it did propose a compromise to preserve the serenity of Europe. As to our taking an active part in the investigation of abuses charged, and in applying remedies if the charges are sustained, that is a matter to be considered. The United States will not interfere in the quarrel between England and Belgium, or mix deeply in the affairs of Africa, but under proper circumstances it may see its way clear to serve the interests of humanity. Assuredly it will never sanction such abuses of power as have been charged against the Kongo government.

Pittsburgh is preparing to entertain a large crowd of visitors on Saturday upon the occasion of the dedication of the Hawkins memorial in Schenley park. The high esteem in which the late Col. Hawkins was held in Western Pennsylvania, where he was known as a valiant soldier and genial gentleman, will draw thousands of his friends to the city to honor his memory. The presence of the governor and the military will also prove attractive to the people of the surrounding counties. Every arrangement has been made to make the day a memorable one in the history of the city, and Pittsburgh will be in her most hospitable mood to entertain her guests, as well as to honor a brave warrior. The Hawkins statue is a fine piece of sculpture, which does honor to the artist and to the city, as well as to the man in whose memory it is erected. It is to be hoped the weather will be propitious so our guests may be entertained as they should, and that the program may be carried out without a hitch.

Mr. Knox for Senator.

A happy solution of the senatorial problem has been arrived at in the selection of Attorney General Knox. No one will question his fitness for the legislative duties of the senatorial office or his ability to give distinguished representation to the commonwealth in the councils of the nation. In these respects he may be said to be an ideal choice for the position. Thoughtful, learned, able, eloquent, he is exceptionally well equipped for eminent public service. Moreover, he is prominently identified with one of the great issues of our times—that of government regulation of corporate enterprise. By sending him to the senate, Pennsylvania gives to the nation the man who is probably best qualified by his special study and experience to promote efficacious legislative treatment of the problem.

As attorney general he has had occasion to make a thorough study of the problem in all its phases. He has won renown by his success in asserting the supremacy of public authority. He will take with him to the senate an intimate knowledge of the requirements which legislation must fulfill in order to be salutary and effective. It is indeed an auspicious combination of circumstances that concurrently with the labors of the department of commerce and labor, in gathering data for legislative consideration, the attorney general who has familiarized himself with the legal aspects of the problem shall be translated to the senate to assist legislative consideration. In the great series of speeches by which, in the fall of 1902 and in the spring of 1903, President Roosevelt elucidated the trust problem, he several times called attention to "the way in which the law has been administered by the profound jurist and fearless public servant who now occupies the position of attorney general, Mr. Knox." Again he referred to "the consummate skill and ability" with which Mr. Knox had managed the duties of his office. It will be recognized as an event of national importance and of striking co-operation with the purposes of the administration, that this profound jurist and fearless public servant is now provided with the enlarged opportunities of service which senatorial position confers.

As regards matters of party management, the point may be raised that Mr. Knox is without training or experience. It is certainly true that he has never been a politician in the ordinary sense of the word, but he has shown himself to be an eminent statesman, and it will be regarded as creditable to Pennsylvania that it has made a choice based upon qualifications of statesmanship. A service has been rendered to the national party interests which will redound to the benefit of state political interests. The selection has already had a tranquilizing effect upon faction contention, and party sentiment will acquiesce in it as a wise decision. It is above and beyond all faction interests and will tend to promote party harmony.

It is intensely gratifying to local pride that the honor has gone to a Pittsburgher. A very unpleasant impression has been produced upon the community by evidences of faction spite carried to such a pitch as to cause opposition to any local candidate. This spirit has been manifested even by Pittsburgh newspapers. The Pittsburgh district, great as its importance and extensive its representative character, has never had a United States senator since the short term of William Wilkins in 1831-1834. At a time when the general tenor of party sentiment was favorable to the selection of a Pittsburgher, local faction influences were vigorously exerted to turn aside the honor to some other locality. Happily that effort was unsuccessful. Even faction spirit must now admit the eminent propriety of the choice made, and although Mr. Knox will enter the senate by appointment, the legislature will confirm his position by their election.

The Most Progressive Section.

We have all been accustomed for so many years to regard the west as the scene of the most rapid industrial progress that it has become a traditional belief. At the same time there is a parallel tradition to the effect that the south is rather slow and inert. It is the tendency of traditional beliefs to outlive the facts upon which they were originally founded, and such appears to be the case as regards these estimates of sectional progressiveness. While the west continues to be the scene of rapid development, there are evidences that the south excels in industrial enterprise. Recent statistics tell a story of activity there which is simply astonishing.

Exports from the south last year constituted nearly the whole of the increase over the preceding year shown in the returns of national commerce. The total increase was $38,418,613, of which $35,342,395 was at southern ports. Railroad building, mining, lumbering, manufacturing are all making rapid strides in the south. An index of this progress is afforded by the great number of banking institutions springing up to accommodate business interests. During the past four years, 1,930 national banks have been incorporated in the entire country, with an aggregate capital of $112,253,000. Of these 697, with an aggregate capital of $34,385,000, are located in the south, or nearly one-third of the total.

The volume of bank clearings is usually regarded as furnishing a good measure of the extent of business activity. According to this standard the business activity of southern cities far exceeds that of cities of the same size in the north and west. Clearing house returns for the month of May credit New Orleans with $58,468,033, as against $54,410,017 for Cleveland with over 100,000 more population; $31,018,730 for Milwaukee with about the same population; $42,416,584 for Detroit, also with about the same population, and $28,553,910 for Buffalo which has 70,000 more population than New Orleans. The case of New Orleans is not exceptional, for southern cities in general show a heavier volume of transactions in proportion to population than northern and western cities. Salt Lake City reported bank clearings for May amounting to $11,408,749 for a population of 53,531. Seattle with a population of 80,671 reported $16,395,088. These are exceptionally fine showings of business activity, but Richmond with a population of 85,050 reported $18,370,279, Galveston with a population of 37,789 reported $13,976,500, Houston with a population of 44,633 reported $20,858,914. Compared with various eastern cities these amounts appear enormous. Wilmington, Del., with a population of 76,508 reported only $4,534,441 for the month; New Haven with 108,227 population, reported $8,360,794. Memphis and Rochester are cities of about the same size, the latter having the advantage, but the bank clearings of the former amounted to $16,362,802, as against $12,879,372 for the latter. Louisville with a population of 204,731 reported $45,676,260, or more than such big cities as Detroit, Buffalo, and Milwaukee.

A comparative statement of the returns of bank clearings for five months made by the Financial Chronicle shows that the south is the only section displaying an increase. It shows a gain of over 13 per cent, while the middle states show a decline of over 17 per cent, New England over 6 per cent, while the west has remained stationary, a slight decline in the middle west being offset by a slight gain in the far west. The Pacific slope shows a gain of a fraction of one per cent. If commercial statistics are to be trusted business activity is now greater in the south than in any other section.

Warning has been sent out of the existence of a dangerous $100 counterfeit bill. The size of the bill limits the interest in the announcement to a comparatively small area.

Talked of in Gotham

By GEORGE C. JENKS.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, June 9.—It takes a long time to get a big bridge in running order, even after it is built and opened for traffic. This is the experience of New York with its new Williamsburg span. A bridge cannot be regarded as in running order until trolley cars are in operation, making it possible to get across its mile or so of length without walking. Some sort of circumlocutory hitch has arisen in the matter of awarding contracts for the construction of terminal facilities, which may prevent the operating of cars on the bridge until next Christmas. It is important that everything shall be done regularly, and the corporation counsel has found a flaw in some contracts which prevents his approving them.

To the casual outsider it looks as if it should be a simple thing to prepare new contracts. To the corporation counsel's office nothing is simple. A technical question has been submitted to that authority and due deliberation must be exercised before an opinion is furnished. Meanwhile, working people who live on the Brooklyn side of the East river and use the new bridge morning and evening are cursing the corporation counsel and all his myrmidons—unreasonably, no doubt, but none the less vigorously. The railroad companies are going ahead with their part of the work. They are laying rails and making electrical connections, and could start their service at once if their terminals were ready. They have their rolling stock, and their motormen and conductors are eager to get to work. Perhaps the delay now may prevent a great deal of dispute later, and for that reason is to be deplored only as an unfavorable annoyance. That is the view some New Yorkers take of it—New Yorkers who do not cross the bridge once a year. As for the corporation counsel's office, it says nothing, but collectively continues to saw wood with characteristic placidity.

Will Not Club College Boys.

"Aw, what yer goin' ter do with them kids?" commented a Broadway policeman this afternoon on the row between 50 Yale freshmen and the police in New Haven, early this morning, as a windup to the festivities of "bottle night." The policeman paused reflectively. Then he went on:

"I see that none of the policemen were hurt and all the college boys got away after wrecking a trolley car and having a pitched battle with the police. Well, what else would you expect? You don't suppose the cops were going to use their night sticks on the heads of those lads. Not much. Not much. We don't do it here, either. Boys will be boys, you know. I don't say it is right to let these sons of rich men have things all their own way, either in New Haven or in New York. But what are you to do? The way we fix it here is to run a few of them into the Tenderloin station if they are too loud, and let them pay their fines in court. But you will notice that there is never any fanning with night sticks. It wouldn't do. Their fathers would not stand it. No sir."

"Monk" Eastman Gang Dies Hard.

Although "Monk" Eastman is peacefully making mats in Sing Sing prison, some of his band are still annoying the police. One of the members was chased over tenement roofs on the East Side today, after taking part in a murderous assault on a man who had offended them. The fellow was caught, and will probably go to Blackwells Island. Most people had supposed that the Eastman band had gone to pieces when its leader was sent to prison. But such organizations die hard, and it may be necessary to catch a few more of the members before it will be wiped out altogether.

Stage Beckons Hannah Elias.

If Hannah Elias manages to escape a prison sentence, she can go on the stage. Two managers are after her, one of them in St. Louis, where he wants her to appear at a salary of $2,000 a week. A man who professes to know her tastes and inclinations said today that she would be likely to accept one of the offers.

Cardinal Satolli Missed His Luncheon.

Cardinal Satolli got into New York today. He was to have been welcomed down the bay by a large party of clergy and laity as he came up on the steamer Prinzess Irene, but the fog mixed up arrangements and there was a much quieter reception than was intended. An elaborate luncheon had been prepared on board the steamer Sea Gull, on which the reception party were cruising about the harbor, but, as they missed the liner until she had nearly reached her slip, the luncheon went to the officers and crew to prevent its being spoiled.

The cardinal did not mind, however. He was pleased to see his friends on the pier, and he will be entertained at the archepiscopal residence, adjoining the cathedral, with heartiness enough to make up for the hitch this morning. One reason was that the liner was late, and no one knew just when she would arrive. A delay of that kind always takes some of the effervescence out of a formal welcome.

Building Fireproof Wharves.

Work has begun on the rebuilding of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western piers on the Jersey side of the North river that were destroyed by fire less than two weeks ago. It will take some time to get the charred relics of the old piers out of the way, but a large force of men will keep at it till all is done. The new wharves will be fireproof, it is understood.

Sunday School Parade Abandoned.

The annual Sunday school parade of the eastern district was dispensed with in Brooklyn this afternoon on account of the bad weather. A reception, however, was held at the Hanover club, at which Mayor McClellan and the Sunday school people exchanged courtesies. There was the usual application for a half holiday on behalf of the children, and the usual refusal of it by the school authorities. In former years the school authorities have refused to let the children off and the latter have been compelled to play "hookey" or stay away from the parade. The school officials requested the Sunday school people to have their parades on Saturdays, but the request was disregarded in this instance.

Sea Food Is Also High.

The effects of the hard winter are felt in the food markets of New York in many items. Not only are beef, potatoes and eggs all much higher in price than usual at this season, but shell fish, especially crabs, are out of the reach of ordinary housekeepers. The long, cold winter killed most of them, both hard and soft shelled, and we shall have to get along without them in a general way throughout the summer. Butchers predict a further rise in the cost of meat next week.

The Quiet Observer

By ERASMUS WILSON.

I reckon that this big disease that's rulin' all their minds,
About the little varmints crawlin' underneath our rinds,
Is caused by some fool microbe that has got in their skulls
An' won't let loose a minnit till they's nothin' left but hulls;
An' this theory epidemic that I'm speculatin' 'bout
Is worse than any other that the docs has figured out.

—Medical Exchange.

Whether special microbes cause special diseases or not need not bother the average man and woman; nor is it very likely that the microbe will bother them if they live after a common sense fashion, and refrain from the sin of eating unfit food or neglecting their bodies.

If men were fed as naturally as are horses and dogs that are properly cared for, there would be comparatively little sickness, and epidemics would become exceedingly rare. Even those the germs of which are borne on the wings of the winds would find such powerful resistance on the part of the people that they would become unimportant.

Every germ must have its own peculiar soil in which to develop or it remains inactive, or at least innocuous.

This must be true since we are told by those who know that the air we breathe is loaded with all sorts of germs, including tuberculosis, pneumonia and various fevers. These are taken in freely every hour of every day, but do no harm unless, perchance, they find lodgment in a nose, mouth or throat that is in a condition favorable to their development.

In this way, and in this alone, are we able to account for the escape of so many from these diseases.

Among several members of a family one only is stricken with a germ disease, although all have eaten the same food, drank from the same hydrant, breathed the same air, and mingled together around the same hearthstone.

There seems to be no other way to account for this than that the physical condition of the one stricken by the disease was favorable to the development of the germ. What may have caused or what constituted this condition is a most important question for consideration by medical scientists.

This we know also, that different kinds of cultures have to be provided for different kinds of microbes, and these have to be prepared with great exactness as to the proportions of the various elements they contain.

This germ business is interesting to some and entertaining to others, but it is rather too fine for the edification of the masses. Plain, tangible facts are much more easily grasped and understood than are theories based on material facts that have to be sought for with microscopes of high power.

And then our ancestors got along right well for several hundred years without even suspecting the existence of microbes, much less knowing that their bodies, the food they eat, and the water they drank, were simply teeming with disease germs.

And there are those who contend that the discovery of the microbe has made matters worse instead of better. This point need not be discussed here and at this time.

But all, or nearly all, will agree that physical ailments are the natural, the logical, and the necessary results of wrong living and unlawful conduct. That nature surely punishes those who violate her laws is too generally conceded to require argument.

And with the book of nature open before us, and the accumulated experience of man for ages past, and the boasted intelligence of the race, why isn't the present generation practically free from all forms of disease, contagious or otherwise?

The plain, simple reason for this condition of affairs is that the people are not taught how to live properly, nor are they provided with the means necessary to preserve health, as shown by the lack of conveniences essential to their comfort as well as to their protection from diseases due to anti-infection, or self-poisoning of the body and vital organs.

Of the thousands who crowd our city parks and other places of public resort on Sundays and other occasions, hundreds return home sick or infected more or less. The poisons developed in the body for want of proper attention so derange and weaken the vital organs and delicate membranes and tissues that they are unable to resist disease.

This is so manifestly true and so common sense that a serious denial by medical scientists or laymen would be a great surprise.

It is not necessary to go farther in order to find one of the principal causes for the many ailments prevalent, and the many cases of each of these.

Ask your family physician, or any doctor, if such flagrant disregard of well-known laws of nature does not lead to many, if not a majority of the ailments that afflict the people in this as well as in any other city where ample provisions are not made for their convenience and comfort.

Were this a matter involving an expense approximating the cost of a filtration plant, or a sewage and garbage plant, there would still be very slight grounds for complaint after taking into account the full benefit of the latter and the danger of the former.

Nor can the crowded condition of our city, narrowness of streets, nor extent of territory be urged as serious obstacles to the establishment of necessary sanitary posts, for European cities are more crowded, their streets narrower, and their extent greater, and they have them and could not be induced to dispense with them.

The cost of the establishment and maintenance of a system of sanitary conveniences for the benefit of the general public would be a mere trifle when results are taken into account.

And all that is necessary to secure the establishment of such a system is for the people to ask for it earnestly and persistently. Arguments are scarcely needed in the case, since all are fully aware of the pressing necessity for something of the sort.

*****

Vast sums are being spent on various schemes for improving the sanitary condition of cities.

But how much, or rather how little, is spent for the improvement of the sanitary condition of the people?

A bath house is a good thing, since it enables those who patronize it to get rid of the loose and comparatively harmless dirt that may be sticking to the outside of the body, but that is of very trifling importance as compared with the prevention of the accummulation of poisons, more or less deadly, within the body.

The present water that rises from the earth, or falls from heaven, will not prevent anti-infection of a body, the normal functions of which are perverted or interrupted. Nor will clean streets and pure food save those who are thus infected from physical ailments, insanity and impairment of their general usefulness.

Think it over, talk with your doctor about it, and ask your neighbors what they think of it.

Maybe if we give the microbe a rest, and settle down to practical sanitary work of a common sense type, these fearsome bugs may pull in their horns and cease to be so much in evidence as they seem to be at present.

Showers and Shoppers

THE STROLLER.

A Fifth avenue shopkeeper told me the other day that the weather of the past two weeks with its intermittent showers was of great benefit to his business. This was due to the fact that between rainstorms the sun shone brightly, where had the days been dark and threatening his business would have decreased.

According to the merchant the showers were the most effective method to get people into his store that has yet been discovered. A little storm in the morning would be followed by a bright, sunny spell at noon and milady would decide to come downtown for a stroll. About the time she would reach Fifth avenue the skies would again become overcast. In a few minutes the raindrops would begin to patter on her new spring bonnet and she would quickly make her way to the nearest store to find shelter there until the downpour had ceased.

There never lived the woman who, once inside a shop, could resist the temptation to explore the different counters in search of bargains and in but few cases will she leave the place without at least making a small purchase. Not only that, but while browsing about she becomes familiar with the stock on hand and will naturally return to the place she understands when making future purchases.

Oftentimes a person wonders where the Fifth avenue crowd disappears to when rain begins to fall, but the successful tradesman knows and for this reason one will always find that during a storm he keeps his doorway clear so that what might be termed involuntary patrons will have no trouble in entering.

The Art of Collection.

At a recent congregational meeting in Knoxville borough, called for the purpose of celebrating the anniversary of the organization of the church and incidentally to secure contributions to a fund being raised to lift the mortgage from the church property, quite a sum was raised, in fact enough to wipe out the congregation's debt. After the usual exercises, the Rev. Dr. Thomas N. Boyle, presiding elder of the Pittsburgh district of the Methodist Episcopal church, spoke about the history of the little congregation, its struggles and bright prospects. Dr. Boyle announced that he intended to raise $2,700, and, although the people had been very generous in their contributions to the church, he was going to ask them to loosen their purse-strings again.

The call for contributions brought out amounts ranging from $5 to $50. With each announcement Dr. Boyle told how much more was still needed to clear off the $2,700. When every person in the church had been consulted, Dr. Boyle told the congregation that $2,400 had been raised and he appealed to the people to make another effort to raise the total amount. The congregation sat in silence.

Dr. Boyle looked over the congregation and then said: "When I was down in Ohio years ago there was a man who did not believe in religion, but had a wife who was a church member. They had a small boy who attended the Sunday school. One day the father gave the boy 50 cents and told him it was his to do with as he pleased.

"Two weeks later he called his son to his side and said: 'James, how did you invest the money I gave you?' The boy replied that he had given the 50 cents to his Sunday school teacher for foreign missions. The father became angered, and told his son he never thought the day would come when he would have to acknowledge he was the father of a fool. After venting his anger on the small boy the father said: 'James, perhaps I have been too severe on you. You are only a small boy, but I am sorry you did not make a better investment.' The boy replied that his teacher had told the class a few Sundays previous that when a person gave anything to a church or for church work he was giving it to God and would get double the value of the gift in return and he had never caught his teacher in a lie. 'Well, I am disappointed in you, but here is a dollar and this time I want to see if you won't make a better investment.' The boy took the dollar and looking at his father a moment said: 'Pa, I believed my teacher, but I did not expect to get a dollar for my 50 cents so soon.'"

Hardly had the speaker concluded his story till a man rose in the audience and announced he would give $50. Before he could resume his seat his wife shouted "Put $50 more down for me." In a few minutes Dr. Boyle announced that the $2,700 had been pledged.

Ye Idiot and Ye Telephone.

Notwithstanding the many years that have passed since the public was first blessed with the telephone, there are many people who have yet to learn how to use a 'phone and a school for instruction in the use of telephones would not come amiss. Men and women who have occasion to use the instruments in residences and business houses many times a day know little more about how to use a telephone than to lift the receiver off the hook and shout "Hello." Even the telephone companies still find it necessary to insert printed instruction and an illustration on the use of the 'phone in their books to subscribers.

During the past week a telephone in a Shadyside residence rang and a young woman answered the call.

"Is that you Gertrude?" inquired a voice over the wire.

As the girl's name chanced to be Gertrude she answered "Yes."

"Well this is John," shouted a man at the other end of the line.

"All right, what is it?" she answered, thinking it was a member of the family in which there also happened to be a man by the name of John.

"Well, I just called up to let you know I'm here."

"Where are you?" asked the girl, not a little surprised.

"Why, here," answered the man somewhat testily.

"Well, what do you mean by here?"

"Is that Mrs. Jones talking?" suddenly shouted an angry voice.

"No, you must have the wrong number," said the girl, and the man who made the blunder got mad and demanded to know why she had not said so in the beginning. The receiver was hung up without further remark.

Dr. White Tells Washington Interviewer Drawbacks of School Rushing.

"Commencement time makes me think that we are making a woeful mistake," said Dr. J. W. White, a prominent surgeon of Pittsburgh, and closely identified with the school interests of that city, at the Arlington last night.

"Parental ambition for smart children and the applause given precocious work of the tots has led many a body to be ruined in a vain desire to astonish with the brain.

"Every physician will tell you that he has cases caused solely by overstudy and the anxiety attending the competitive examinations. I fear that the education of today will ruin generations to come."

Continuing, Dr. White said there is one counteracting influence which may prove the salvation of the girl who strives to match her powers, not only in the intellectual world, but in athletic sports, with her brother. "Outdoor exercise has led her to dress more sensibly than her mother did, and more like the old Puritan ancestors. The wasp waist has become as much out of fashion as the narrow, tapering shoes. Tight corsets and pinching shoes are not conducive to good results in golfing, basketball, or rowing. Much of the physical training given to our school children, however, is purely mechanical. It is taken from the outside and is not absorbed. Its results are not far different from work. It is not exercise. The effect of the physical system over the health and the mind cannot be overestimated, and I am of the opinion that the coming generation would be much better citizens if we were to give more heed to healthy, growing bodies than to precocious, crammed minds."—Washington Post.

The Amateur Philosopher.

You've lost your right arm, I perceive—
Up near the shoulder, too!
But why permit an empty sleeve
To bring regret to you?

You may not cope with other men,
Still why should you be glum?
Your good right arm is gone, but then
You cannot pound your thumb.

CAPT. MUNHALL HAS PASSED AWAY

Was a Pioneer in Coal and Oil Production, and With Brothers Amassed a Fortune.

DEATH CAME IN ATLANTIC CITY

Capt. John Munhall, pioneer riverman, coal operator, oil producer, banker and business man, died yesterday morning at a hotel in Atlantic City, whither he had gone three weeks ago for his health, being a sufferer from diabetes. His wife, his 10 children and his brother and sister were at his bedside when he died. Capt. Munhall was in his 71st year. His body will arrive at his home, 328 Winebiddle avenue, his morning.

Capt. Munhall was very wealthy. He had been associated in business with Carnegie, Charles Lockhart, the late William Frew and many other prominent Pittsburghers who became millionaires.

Capt. Munhall was born in Schuylkill county in 1833, and was brought by his parents to the neighborhood of Elizabeth when he was but a year old. When he was 10 years old he and his brothers, Michael and William, and his sister, Catherine, became orphans, and John obtained work in a coal mine. When 17 years old he entered business in Elizabeth, but failed during the panic times of 1858. Later he paid his creditors in full. He and his brothers held together and all three amassed fortunes.

In 1858, with his brothers, he built a steamboat, he and William cutting and hauling the timber out of the forest back of Monongahela. In 1861 he plied the Allegheny river in the steamer Grey Eagle, and later the two brothers joined with Maj. William Frew and Charles Lockhart in building the steamboats Brilliant and Albion and went into the oil business. In 1876 Capt. Munhall moved from Oil City to Munhall and formed the firm of Munhall Brothers, coal operators. He sold part of his farm to Carnegie, Phipps & Co., and a portion of the Homestead steel works is built on the land purchased from him. A few years ago the captain retired from active business, but continued to hold the position of vice president and director of the Duquesne National bank and kept a supervising eye over his many interests.

Capt. Munhall was married twice. His first wife was Miss Hettie Cunningham, and his second wife, who was Miss Margret McKelvey, is living. The children by his first wife are William, George, Harry, Albert, Otis and Esther, the wife of Joseph E. Schwab. The children by his second wife are Eliza R., now Mrs. Arthur Brown; Luella, E., John R. and Beulah. The captain's brother, William, and his sister, Mrs. Catherine McMullen, also survive him. Mrs. McMullen is the mother of S. A., teller of the Duquesne National bank, and of Father William McMullen, the head of the Pittsburgh Apostolate, missionary priests of the Catholic diocese of Pittsburgh. Capt. Munhall was a Presbyterian and an active member of the Sixth church, at Forbes and Murray streets.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

DENVER, June 9.—In the district court this morning, Attorney Platt Rogers, representing Mrs. Genevieve Chandler Phipps, filed a petition for the reopening of the ex parte hearing before Judge P. I. Palmer, at which Judge Palmer appointed Lawrence C. Phipps custodian of the Phipps children. Mrs. Phipps, accompanied by a retinue of servants, is expected in Denver tomorrow morning from New York. Shortly after her arrival her answer to Mr. Phipps' petition for a divorce and a cross bill will be filed. # CAMP OF UNION MINERS IN COLORADO

Bullpen in Which Union Miners in Colorado Are Imprisoned.

MINISTER ADMITTED HE WAS GUILTY OF ASSAULT

The Rev. S. P. Montgomery Said He Had Been Provoked Beyond Endurance.

The hearing yesterday afternoon of the Rev. S. P. Montgomery, pastor of the Jefferson United Presbyterian church, on a charge of assault and battery, produced a sensation second only in interest to the one at the church last Sunday, when the minister knocked out Edmond P. Heath, one of the elders of the church.

Another fight in the presence of Justice of the Peace James R. Lewis of West Elizabeth, before whom the hearing was held, was averted only by the prompt interference of bystanders. The hearing was held in the sitting room of Squire Lewis' home on the Pittsburgh-West Elizabeth road, where he keeps a general store. Mr. Montgomery and James Large, a well-known farmer, arrived at the squire's home first. They were shown into the sitting room. A few minutes later Edmond P. Heath, the prosecutor, came with his father, Samuel J. Heath, and his brother, the Rev. S. J. Heath, Jr. The hearing occupied but a few minutes, the defendant entering a plea of guilty.

"I am aware I did wrong," said Mr. Montgomery, "but I was provoked beyond endurance."

He was held for court on the assault and battery charge and his bail fixed at $500. The bail was furnished by Mr. Large, who is a wealthy farmer.

Harry S. Heath, a brother of the defendant, startled the gathering by advancing toward Mr. Montgomery menacingly saying:

"I'm a better man than you, and if you'll step out with me I'll demonstrate it."

As he stepped in the direction of the minister, his relatives grasped him and drew him away. The minister eyed the other coolly and without making a movement, and when he noted the efforts to hold Heath back he said:

"Don't hold him back. Let him come if he wants to." But Heath retired. There was turmoil for several minutes, during which Heath's father and brother strove to quiet him. When order was restored the bail bond was signed and the plaintiff, Edmond Heath and his father and brothers, left the room. Squire Lewis invited Mr. Montgomery and Mr. Large to remain in the sitting room till the Heath party had gone. This they did. It was noted a moment later that the Heaths, instead of going home, hung around the road in front of the store, where the minister's horse was tied. The assumption was that more trouble was brewing, but the minister was unmoved. Harry Heath again attempted to provoke a fight, calling the minister offensive names. The minister stepped into the carriage and drove off with Mr. Large.

ACCUSED OF ARSON.

Chicago Man Suspected of Being Leader of Northwest Side Gang of Firebugs.

CHICAGO, June 9.—Charles Hughes, who says that he came from New York, has been arrested on a charge of being a member of a band of incendiaries who, according to the police and fire departments, have started a number of fires on the northwest side of the city, causing a property loss in the aggregate of about $100,000.

Hughes was arrested on a street car by Edward Maher, a fireman, who noticed that his hair and eyebrows had been singed and that his clothing looked as though he had been through a few hot places. Hughes attempted to escape as soon as he noticed that the fireman was watching him, but Maher followed him to the street and placed him under arrest. The prisoner denies that he had any part in starting the fires.

Gov. Peabody to vest in the military absolute power in the district declared to be under martial law.

The Portland Gold Mining Company being a foreign company, incorporated under the laws of Iowa, it is stated by eminent lawyers that therefore any act affecting it may be reviewed by the United States courts.

James F. Burns, president of the Portland Mining Company, is in Denver to consult his attorneys, who, it is said, are preparing papers which will probably be filed in the United States circuit court, asking for a restraining order to prevent further interference upon the part of the state military authorities with the operation of the Portland mine.

Mr. Burns, it is further stated, will also ask that the military be withdrawn from the vicinity of his property in Victor, and that he be allowed to protect his men when they go back to work.

The military authorities are credited with saying that when the Burns injunction is sued for an attempt will be made to arrest Mr. Burns himself on the criminal charge that he incited riot. It is not claimed that there is ground for an accusation that Mr. Burns personally incited riot, the implication being that he should be held partly responsible for the recent troubles at Cripple Creek because he maintained the unions by giving employment to union miners.

DOESN'T CARE FOR LINE.

Gov. Peabody Rejoices That Bell Broke Up Gang of Dynamiters.

DENVER, June 9.—Concerning the contention that Dunnville, the new mining camp where the battle between Gen. Bell's soldiers and union miners occurred yesterday, was outside of Teller county, and therefore beyond the zone of territory included in the proclamation declaring Teller county to be in a state of insurrection and rebellion, Gov. Peabody today said:

"I do not know where the Teller county boundary line is, as compared with the location of Dunnville, but I have no objection to what Gen. Bell did, and I approve of his every action in breaking up that gang of dynamiters and capturing their guns. I do not think the location of the place will cause much unfavorable discussion."

DID MINERS WRECK PAPER?

Bell Declares They Did, Editor Protests They Did Not.

VICTOR, COL., June 9.—Regarding the raid on the Victor Record office, and the destruction of the newspaper plant, Gen. Bell said today:

"I cannot be too emphatic in my condemnation of this unmerited act. The socialistic element of the federation took the principal stand in this thing. Whoever the perpetrators of this crime may be, they will land in the bull pen if apprehended."

"Do you think that union miners wrecked your office because of your editorial on Wednesday, advising that the strike be called off?" Editor Kyner was asked today.

"I unquestionably do not," he replied. "As a matter of fact, the union men agree with the sentiment in my editorial."

Kyner said he would establish a new plant as soon as possible. He estimated his loss at $8,000.

F. W. Langdon, the linotype operator who was driven out of the Record office at the point of rifles, says he will not leave the district as ordered, but he will send his family away. The other employes of the Record say that they will remain in the city.

TWO BROTHERS CAPTURED.

They Are Charged With Firing Shots That Killed Roxie McGee.

VICTOR, June 11.—One of the chases in the general man hunt the military is conducting ended in the capture of C. C. Friedley, one of the three Friedley brothers, miners, suspected of having fired the shot that killed Roxie McGee in the riot Monday. Marshal Naylor and his squad captured George Friedley, another brother, today near Canon City and returned with him to Victor. In addition to the charge of having killed McGee, he is also charged with having attempted to shoot C. C. Hamlin, secretary of the Mine Owners' association, when he was addressing the meeting in Victor last Monday.

Soldiers Capture Miners.

COLORADO SPRINGS, COL., June 9.—A special to the Gazette from Cripple Creek says that a party of 20 mounted deputies, which left this morning for the vicinity of Beaver creek in search of a number of men who were reported to have fled in that direction after yesterday's fight at Dunnville, returned here with several prisoners.

MINING EXCHANGE IS USED AS A BULL PEN

In It Are Imprisoned the Council of Gold Field City.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

CRIPPLE CREEK, COL., June 9.—The Mining exchange hall is being used as a bull pen in addition to the Victor armory. Armed deputies are placed in the galleries of the exchange, the prisoners occupying the pit of the call room. Several guards are at the door, each carrying repeating shotguns that contain buckshot. Families and wives of the prisoners constantly endeavor to see and talk with the husbands and fathers incarcerated, in most cases permission being refused.

Five of the six members of the Gold Field city council are in the bull pen, so that the town is without an executive body.

The committee on safety has made a demand upon District Attorney Trowbridge that he remove his deputy, J. C. Cole, and also requested that S. D. Crump be appointed to fill the vacancy. Crump is the attorney for the Mine Owners' association.

Sheriff Edward Bell today appointed L. F. Parsons of Cripple Creek under sheriff of Teller county and the appointment was confirmed by the county commissioners at once. Mr. Parsons is secretary of the Cripple Creek Mining exchange.

Coroner George Hall, successor to Coroner James Doran, who resigned under compulsion, today empaneled a new jury which will hold an inquest over the men murdered at Independence by the explosion of dynamite.

LOAFERS MUST GO, SAYS SCANDRETT

POLICE MAKE EIGHT ARRESTS

Director Scandrett of Allegheny has given orders that the police and detectives arrest all persons who make a practice of loafing about the streets or in the numerous pool rooms in the Fourth ward. Officers last night arrested eight men who, it is said, have no visible means of suport. Their names are Dan Stack, 104 Sarah street; Arthur Hartman, 1480 Stewart street; Samuel Pratt, Middle street; John Carroll, 6 Wyoming street, Pittsburgh; Thomas Brooks, Robinson street; John Murray, Ohio street; John O'Mara, East Lacock street, and James Steele, West Lacock street.

If the orders of Scandrett are carried out the streets of the North Side, which are at present infested with loafers who ogle at women, and frequently insult them, will be cleansed of this nuisance.

"The persons who sell liquor illegally, or run gambling houses," said the director, last night, "are not the only objectionable characters of which we are going to rid the town. Since the weather became warm prominent thoroughfares, like Federal and Ohio streets, have been overrun with would-be mashers and smart young men who have a habit of accosting respectable women. It has become so of late that it is scarcely safe for any self-respecting woman to walk on certain streets. These loafers are the most contemptible sort of offenders and we are going to deal with them in a manner that I think will discourage the practice in the future. The detectives are acquainted with the petty thieves who hang about certain places and they will soon round them all up. When we have accomplished this, Allegheny will be a better city than it has been for years, for we have got rid of the speakeasies and gambling houses entirely."

MONUMENT WILL NOT BE UNVEILED

Only Dedication Ceremonies to Be Held Some Distance from Hawkins Shaft.

REGIMENTS ARE DUE TONIGHT

"We can accommodate 30,000 people and seat 10,000 of them at the Hawkins' dedication Saturday afternoon in Schenley park," said ex-Mayor W. J. Diehl, chairman of the general committee on arrangements, yesterday. "We expect almost as many people as that. In anticipation of a crowd of this size the committee has decided to dispense with the unveiling ceremony and conduct the dedication exercises at the music pavilion, which is about 500 feet distant from the monument."

Chairman Diehl explained that it would be impossible to accommodate more than 2,000 people in the immediate vicinity of the monument, owing to the arrangement of the land. There is a deep hollow on either side, with a table land about 50 feet wide. The unveiling, therefore, will be done away with, so that when the people file into the park they can get a view of the bronze at once.

An addition is now being made to the music stand. There will be seats on the platform for 300. Here will be seated the speakers, the relatives of Col. Hawkins, the committee and distinguished guests. In front there will be seats or park benches for 10,000 people. The Tenth regiment and Tenth Regiment association, the Grand Army and Legion of Honor veterans and Spanish war service men will be given seats.

Hampton Battery B, through Capt. William T. Rees, yesterday notified the committee that it would take part in the parade and ceremonies, the committee having decided to furnish mounts. There will be four guns in line.

Headquarters will be established at the Seventh Avenue hotel Friday evening. Each member of the staff will report in blue uniform and blue caps; officers with black boots and non-commissioned staff in leggins; all using black horse equipments. The parade will move on the 11th inst. at 1:30 p. m.; all staff officers must be at the Seventh Avenue hotel prepared to mount at 11:30. Communication to Maj. Anshutz will give the necessary information as to the whereabouts of your horse and what to do with your equipments.

Maj. W. Fred Reynolds has invited Gen. Wiley and staff to dine at the Schenley tonight. The Fifth regiment, instead of arriving Saturday morning, will reach here tonight at 11 p. m. over the Pennsylvania. The train will be run down Liberty street to Fifth avenue, where the men will disembark and march to Old City hall. The Thirteenth and Ninth regiments will arrive here at 7 p. m. tonight and will be quartered at the Exposition music hall.

Post William McKinley No. 3 and Post Col. Hawkins No. 6, American Veterans of Foreign Service, will take part in the Hawkins monument parade tomorrow. They will assemble at 11:30 o'clock tomorrow morning at the hall of Post 128, G. A. R., West Diamond square, Allegheny. All honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines who have seen service in the Philippines, China, Cuba and Porto Rico are invited to parade with them. Soldiers will wear khaki uniforms and sailors the naval uniform.

The national officers will be present and while here will make the preliminary arrangements for the national convention to be held in Allegheny on September 14, 15, 16 and 17. These officers are Robert S. Hansbury of Philadelphia, commander; Herbert O. Kelly, Altoona, senior vice commander; George Metzgar, junior vice commander, and John R. Teagdeden, Waynesburg, judge advocate.

SERVICES FOR CHILDREN.

Preaching Every Week in the South Side Recreation Park.

Sunday evening services will be conducted this summer in the South Side Recreation park in Carson street, South Side. Application was made to the joint committee of women's clubs yesterday morning at its meeting in the Twentieth Century club by the Rev. Mr. Nellis, pastor of the Union Baptist church in South Nineteenth street. The playground is conducted under the direction of the club women and they gladly gave their consent to the request to hold religious services there on Sunday evenings during the summer.

The South Side Recreation park was formally opened on Memorial day and each day since it has been crowded with the boys and girls of the neighborhood, while the men and women occupied the grandstand and were interested spectators of the games of the children. The fences were freshly white-washed and one side was lined with flower boxes in which blooming plants are growing, tended by the older boys, who are thus made part custodians of the playground, working harmoniously with the care taker and the women in preserving order among the children and taking care of the property.

The continued rain has made portions of the grounds very soft and Mrs. Samuel Miller, chairman of the park committee, was yesterday authorized to see that all draining and grading of the place needed is promptly attended to. The roof over the grandstand is a great improvement this season, and the tennis courts laid out in one corner of the place are proving attractive to the girls.

PIPE WAS RUSTED.

When Earth Was Removed Water in the Main Flooded Streets.

A 35-inch main in George street, Braddock, bursted yesterday and for an hour the water shot high in the air, carrying mud and gravel with it and sweeping in a torrent down the steep street to Braddock avenue.

Cellars stocked with goods were deluged and the first floors of some houses were flooded. A plumber who was about to tap the main for a service pipe said that he used no tools, but as soon as the earth and the crust of rust surrounding the main was removed the water shot out.

STEERAGE RATE WAR ON ATLANTIC STEAMERS

NEW YORK, June 9.—(Special)—The steerage rate war between the Atlantic steamship companies is now on. The battle seems to be directed against the Cunard line, which recently withdrew from the traffic agreement. Today circulars were sent out by the various lines in the International Mercantile Marine Company, establishing a $15 steerage rate from Liverpool to New York. Prepaid tickets will be sold on this side at that rate. No change is made in the eastbound rate.

FILIPINOS REACH NATIONAL CAPITAL

GLAD TO SEE SECRETARY TAFT

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
Room 10, Postal Building.
WASHINGTON, D. C., June 9.

Secretary Taft sat in the lobby of the Arlington hotel early this evening and talked in Spanish to the members of the honorary board of Filipino commissioners to the Louisiana Purchase exposition. He looked like a big brother of them all and knew every one of them personally, having converted many of them from insurgents into loyal citizens when he was governor of the Philippines.

Washington is expected to be the grand climax of their trip to the United States and things started out finely with an enthusiastic welcome to them when their train arrived and a reception in their honor by the commissioners of the District of Columbia at the Corcoran Art gallery tonight. Many of the commissioners hold important offices under the insular government. They are all men of education and prominence among their people. Their trip to the United States is really an object lesson of the greatness of the United States and it is expected to result in a thorough clinching of their loyalty.

They were all glad to see Secretary Taft and his private secretary, Frederick W. Carpenter, with whom they had much to do in Manila, and all look eagerly forward to their presentation to President Roosevelt tomorrow. The president will give them a formal luncheon, which will be followed by a garden party, to which the president and Mrs. Roosevelt have bidden many of the most prominent persons in official life.

It is generally known that the president desires that the Filipinos be shown every courtesy during their stay and accordingly the plans for the entertainment are elaborate. Col. Pettit of the general staff, Maj. Porter of the judge advocate general's office and Capt. J. R. M. Taylor, who knows more about the history of the Philippines than anyone else in Washington, have been assigned to the duty of seeing that the visitors have a good time. Mr. Pepperman of the bureau of insular affairs met the commissioners at Alexandria. Secretary Taft and Col. Edwards, chief of the bureau of insular affairs, greeted them at the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad station.

A delegation of Washington business men and representatives of the war department met the commissioners on their arrival at the depot on a special Chesapeake & Ohio train from St. Louis. Under the trainshed the commissioners were halted and president F. K. Raymond of the Washington Business Men's association delivered a speech of welcome. He greeted the visitors as fellow citizens and reminded them that they were in their national capital and that hosts and guests were under the same flag. Mr. Ferguson translated the welcome into Spanish for those who do not speak English.

Invitations for the White House garden party bear a note that army officers are to wear white or blue uniforms and there is a little grumbling going on about this official sartorial advice. White uniforms are seldom required in Washington and the officers who do not have them think it is too hot for the blue ones. There is some opinion that the officers should be left to their own ideas on this question.

In responding to the address of welcome of Commissioner MacFarland, at the reception tonight, Dr. Trinidad H. Pardo de Tavera, the president of the board of Filipino commissioners, made a brief allusion to the origin of the dispute which [illegible] between the Americans and the Filipinos.

"[illegible] the Philippines," he said, "we knew nothing of you. We lived under a government which ruled through fear and imposed upon us civil and religious tyranny. To the extent that we were accustomed to that kind of tyranny we feared it would be continued under American rule and be far worse. We did not know at the time of the beneficent purposes which animated you and no man can condemn us for fighting when we were under that erroneous impression. But so soon as we learned what these purposes were we were glad to accept these conditions.

"None of you can appreciate the emotions which welled up within us when our eyes rested upon the White House, within whose walls your beloved President McKinley evolved the intention of stretching out his beneficent hand to us to raise us up to the plane upon which you now stand and place within us the same beliefs that you now have in this great country.

"You have done something unique in the history of the world. Some nations have colonized for the purpose of extending their religious beliefs; others with the intention of extending their commercial and industrial interests, but you have carried these principles of liberty and democracy to the peoples of the countries where you have placed your foot and your flag."

AN EXPLANATION OF SCHOOL BOARD TROUBLE

President Hartman of Lawrence Sub-District Asserts Petty Politics Caused Deadlock.

According to a statement issued by President Jacob Hartman of the deadlocked school board of the Lawrence sub-district, Fifteenth ward, a bold game of petty politics is responsible for delay in selecting principal and teachers for the ensuing year.

The board met last night but the only business transacted was the perfecting of arrangements for the school picnic to be held June 23, at Olympia park. A week ago the board organized with the exception of electing a secretary and this elicited the statement from President Hartman.

He asserts that there were two candidates for secretary, William K. Hart, the former secretary, and John H. Freker, who on account of the deadlock has been appointed to the position pro tem by the president.

Prof. T. O. McAniss, principal of the school, has asked to be re-elected for a term of three years, but Hartman and Freker are opposed to this. Their terms expire in a year and they are only willing to vote for his re-election for one year for this reason. Mr. Hartman said that four teachers, whose names he will not at present give out, have not been re-elected and that this was done to whip Freker and himself into line. He said that if the two would support McAniss for a three-year term the board would grant the re-election of the four teachers and also elect Freker secretary. The teachers not re-elected are said to be the most prominent in the school. The matter will not be brought up until the next regular meeting in July.

The board of the Howard sub-district, Sixteenth ward, organized last night with the following officers: President, Joseph B. Smith; secretary, J. J. Swan; treasurer, Henry Nichols. The janitors were re-elected, but no action was taken in the selection of teachers.

READY FOR THE CARNIVAL.

Will Be Opened Tomorrow Afternoon With Many Sensational Acts.

The management of the United Labor Carnival, which opens at Recreation park, Allegheny, tomorrow afternoon, expects to entertain 20,000 spectators at the two performances. Manager J. S. Berger of the Berger Exposition Company, declares that the public will have no real conception of the magnitude of the affair until the doors are thrown open. Much money has been spent preparing the grounds and in the erection of the aerodrome, where many sensational acts will be shown. The grounds occupy a full city block and have been laid out in the most approved manner. Thousands of electric lights have been used.

FREIGHT SERVICE VARIES GREATLY

Merchants & Manufacturers' Association Tracers Show the Time of Delivery.

NEW CONCERN'S BUSY MONTH

Members of the Merchants and Manufacturers association of Pittsburgh are receiving from Secretary James W. Wardrop a compilation of the results of the May work of the association that contains many interesting facts. Principal among these is a list of the towns and cities to which the time required for the delivery of freight has been ascertained by the use of a tracer system designed by Mr. Wardrop. This tracer plan has shown a striking inequality in the work of the railroads. Half of their work is excellent. The other half is mainly very poor. The tracers cover several hundred cases in the latter half of May.

Out of 110 towns covered by reports received through the tracing blanks, the report shows that "one-day delivery" is given to 53. To the other 57 the delivery is problematical. For instance, a shipment to Kansas City, Mo., reached its destination in eight days, but it required an equal number of days to send some goods to Youngstown and one day longer to reach New Castle. Five days is the time required to reach Ambridge, the new town just below Sewickley. Erie was reached in two days and Niles, O., in five. Freedom and Leetonia in two and Economy in four is another paradox.

Cases of Slow Delivery.

On the Panhandle five days was required to send freight to Canonsburg, the same time needed to reach Springfield, O. Burgettstown deliver y was made but one day faster.

Three days to Franklin and Vandergrift, two to Rimerton and Aladdin, five to Kaul station and seven to Jamestown, N. Y., is the record of the Allegheny Valley. The West Penn required three days to move a shipment to Aspinwall, across the Allegheny river from Highland park. Two days to Tarentum, three to West Winfield and four to Avonmore are some more cases of bad delivery.

The Baltimore & Ohio also figures in some delays. Two days to Fairmont is not considered so objectionable as six days to Hyndman, Pa., which is just a few miles west of Cumberland. Eight days are required for a delivery to Frostburg, Md., also near Cumberland. A shipment to Eagle Mountain, Va., required ten days.

The Pittsburgh & Lake Erie required two days to deliver freight from Pittsburgh at Coraopolis and at Beaver Falls. Seven days to Madison station is a Pennsylvania record. Delivery in two days was given at Johnstown, Donora, Hollidaysburg, California and Ebensburg. Four days was required to reach South Fork and Gallitzin and three days to deliver at Bellefonte.

These cases are to be taken up with the railroads interested in each instance, and the causes studied with a view to finding and removing them. Better service will be insisted upon.

Other Work of Association.

The towns which are reached in one day from Pittsburgh show a brighter side to the picture. Among the most distant of the 53 may be mentioned Pt. Marion, on the Baltimore & Ohio; Emlenton & Sligo, on the Allegheny Valley; Newcomerstown, on the Panhandle and Ravenna, on the Ft. Wayne.

Special committees of the Merchants and Manufacturers association's board are now at work on a number of important plans. The "pink slip" on insurance policies is being taken up with the Board of Fire Underwriters. A committee on associate membership is distributing 10,000 blanks among the out-of-town merchants, bankers, etc., who are invited to membership. Trade excursions, both from and to Pittsburgh, are being arranged, and a committee of the association is cooperating with similar committees from councils and the chamber of commerce in arranging for the entertainment of a delegation of Filipino merchants who will visit here this month.

LEFT THE HOSPITAL TO GO TO CENTRAL STATION

Michael Sullivan, Found Prostrate, Had Been in Three Hospitals in Six Weeks.

The Allegheny police have a prisoner at central station whose case is puzzling them, and it is likely the department of charities will be asked today to inquire into the man's mental condition. Michael Sullivan was found lying in Shady avenue about 8 o'clock last night. He said he was sick and unable to walk. He was taken to the Allegheny General hospital.

To the physicians there he said that six weeks ago he was stricken with appendicitis while at work at McKeesport. He was removed to the McKeesport hospital and an operation was performed. Then he came to Pittsburgh and, falling in the street from exhaustion, was removed to the West Penn hospital. Several days ago he returned to his home, 26 Warner street, and last night started out to walk.

When Sullivan was taken to the Allegheny General hospital he refused to allow the doctors to do anything for him. Although it was explained to him that he was probably in a serious condition, Sullivan left the emergency ward and ran out into Sandusky street. Walking into Davis' drug store, at Ohio and Sandusky streets, just one block away from the hospital, the man lay down on the floor and said he wanted to be taken to the Allegheny General hospital. A telephone message was sent to central station and after making an investigation, Assistant Superintendent Glenn ordered the man locked up.

Freeport Needs Ministers.

The Rev. W. S. McClure has tendered his resignation as pastor of the Presbyterian church of Freeport, Pa., to take effect July 1. He will go to Jeannette, Pa. This leaves four congregations without regular pastors. There are but two of the nine churches here whose pulpits are regularly filled. One minister, who accepted a call to the United Presbyterian church, withdrew his acceptance because he received anonymous letters.

Ready to Erect Building.

The congregation of the Oakmont United Presbyterian church will lay the corner stone of the new church building at E and Fifth streets at 3 p. m. tomorrow. The Rev. Dr. J. D. Irons, the former pastor, and the Rev. W. Butler, the new pastor, will have charge of the ceremonies. A chicken supper will be served by the women of the church for the benefit of the new church fund.

POISONED MILK IS BEING SOLD

State Pure Food Bureau Is Hot on Trail of Allegheny County Milk Dealers.

RAIDS WILL START TODAY

Agents will be scattered throughout Allegheny county this morning to secure samples of milk from the dealers, and it is believed that before the raids end a number of dairymen will be caught in the dragnet of the state dairy and food bureau. The order for the raids was received yesterday by H. L. Banzhoff, chief agent for this county, from Dr. B. H. Warren, commissioner of the state bureau.

The investigation into the product of the local milk dealers will be most thorough, as Commissioner Warren is determined to stop the sale of poisoned milk, food and other products. Secretary of Agriculture Critchfield will arrive in Pittsburgh today, and James Foust, chief agent of 35 counties in Western Pennsylvania, is already here. Agent Banzhoff last night stated that prosecutions will be entered against every dealer who is found by the agents of the state dairy and food bureau to handle adulterated food products.

Since last Monday the agents have secured 90 samples of milk in Allegheny county. They were purchased from wagons in streets in which distributions were being made. Out of the 90 samples Dr. F. T. Aschman, the local chemist for the state bureau, has reported to the authorities that 32 per cent are adulterated. Eighteen of the samples were doctored with formaldehyde, the chief constituent of embalming fluid; five with boracic acid, eight watered and one colored. The fine in case of conviction is $50 to $100 or 30 to 60 days in jail, or both, in the discretion of the court.

Hearings will be held by Alderman John Groetzinger in 17 cases entered by the local agent against dealers this afternoon. Seven of the suits have been brought against meat dealers on a charge of selling embalmed meat.

Last summer the agents brought suits in 104 cases in which milk was adulterated with formaldehyde and 40 in which water was used. The dealers sued were all located in the counties of Western Pennsylvania outside of Allegheny county. In every case the suits were settled outside of courts. The agents last night stated that Johnstown was found the worst in the western counties and New Brighton and Beaver Falls were next.

BELLEFIELD CLUB OPENED.

New Quarters of Social Organization Dedicated.

With dancing and music the new club house of the Bellefield club in North Craig street, near Center avenue, was opened last evening. In addition to the several hundred members, all of whom were a self-constituted reception committee, there were a number of ladies present. There were light refreshments and dancing in the assembly room.

The building, which is of brick and hardwood, will represent an outlay of $25,000. It contains a billiard room, a very large bowling alley, an assembly hall, kitchen, janitor's quarters, shower baths, etc. The club was organized in 1888 purely for social purposes. John Farrell is now president, W. A. Nicholson vice president, John W. Grove secretary, and T. B. McMullen treasurer. Among the members are P. C. Knox, attorney general of the United States, Robert Pitcairn and James McCrea.

LECTURES ON SCIENCE.

A special feature was the projection of living animals upon a screen.

The guests of the evening, to the number of about 200, were received by the officers and council of the academy.

SORRY SHE DID IT.

Woman Had Husband Arrested, Then Felt Badly and Carried Him Supper.

After having her husband arrested last evening on a charge of disorderly conduct, Mrs. M. W. Croghan of 463 Beelan street became suddenly repentant, cooked Croghan a first-rate supper and carried it to him all the way from her home to the Oakland police station, where her husband was locked up. According to Mrs. Croghan her husband is a brakeman on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad and makes $60 per month. She wanted him to turn all the wages over to her and because, as she claims, he did not do so trouble arose.

After delivering the basket of good things at the station house Mrs. Croghan asked the officers what penalty might be inflicted on her husband. When told likely a workhouse sentence of 30 or 60 days, the woman showed indications of being still more repentant and left the place weeping.

Croghan was arrested by Officer Owen Walters at Forbes and Brady streets. He is 35 years old. The couple have been married two years.

"He Won't Die

Of consumption" is a remark often made of a fleshy man. The remark expresses the popular recognition of the fact that the sign of consumption is emaciation—loss of flesh. On the other hand, a gain in flesh is a sure sign that wasting diseases are being cured.

Emaciated people with obstinate coughs, bleeding lungs, night-sweats and weakness, have been perfectly cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. The several steps of the cure were recorded in ounces and pounds of increasing weight. When there is gain in flesh the wasting disease is being surely cured.

Mr. Will H. Whitmire, of Arkton, Rockingham Co., Va., writes: "Our son contracted a deep cold about the first of July, 1899, and had a terrible cough. We called a doctor and he pronounced it irritation of the bronchial tubes, with asthmatic trouble, and he informed me that my son was liable to die at any time. He told me that if we could keep the bronchial tubes open, he might cure him; but after treating him several weeks and my son growing worse all the time, I concluded to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pleasant Pellets.' I had seen several almost miraculous cures brought about by the use of these medicines, and of course I had wonderful faith in them. He used three bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery' at home and one vial of the 'Pellets,' and was then well enough to go to West Virginia, taking a supply with him. I am just in receipt of a letter from him from which I quote: 'I am well and hardy and getting very fleshy.'"

LEVI Z. LEITER DIES IN MAINE

MESSAGES FOR LADY CURZON

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

BAR HARBOR, ME., June 9.—Levi Z. Leiter of Chicago died of heart failure early today at the Vanderbilt cottage here, which the Leiters had taken for the season. Mr. Leiter had not been well for a long time and yesterday was able to take his usual drive. The drive covered a distance of about 12 miles. Mrs. Leiter accompanied Mr. Leiter, and remarked on his good spirits.

He spent the evening walking about the estate. The attack of heart weakness which seized him during the night was similar to others which he had experienced and for which he kept remedies prescribed by his physician constantly on hand. Mrs. Leiter did not consider the trouble serious and administered the usual medicine, but when the remedy failed to have the desired effect, Misses Daisy and Margaret were summoned and a doctor was sent for. Meanwhile repeated doses of the restorative brought no response on the part of the patient and before the doctor arrived Mr. Leiter was dead.

It was stated today at the Leiter cottage that pending the arrival of Joseph Leiter, the son, the time of the funeral would not be settled. It had been decided that the service would be held in Washington, D. C.

Career of Mr. Leiter.

Levi Zeigler Leiter came of fine American stock. In 1760 James Van Leiter came to America from Holland. He purchased a tract of land in Western Maryland from Lord Craven and on it founded the American family of Leiter. Flour mills were established on American creek and there the family lived for generations, a healthy, prosperous American life. The battle of Antietam was fought on the original Leiter grant. It was here that Levi Z. Leiter was born. There was a very pretty romance connected with his name. A young aunt, Barbara Zeigler, was engaged to wed a young farmer of Leitersburg, Levi Jordan. She fell a victim of consumption and it was impossible for the wedding to take place. Her last request was to name the child of her sister who had just been born. It was granted and coupling the name of her sweetheart with that of her own she called the boy Levi Zeigler.

Young Leiter stayed with his parents at Leitersburg until his twentieth year and then decided to strike out for himself. He went first to Springfield, O., where he worked for a year in the general store of Peter Murray.

Secured Employment in Chicago.

From there he went to Chicago, where he secured employment first with Downs & Van Wyck and later with Cooley, Wadsworth & Co. His advance there was rapid. He soon became recognized as one of the best credit men in the west, whose judgment as to whom credit should be given being rarely at fault. It was while a clerk with Cooley, Wadsworth & Co. that he became acquainted with a fellow clerk, Marshal Field, who afterward was to become his partner in the greatest business house in the west. Both these young men became partners in the business, but in 1865 sold out and bought a controlling interest in the business then owned by Potter Palmer. It was then the firm of Field, Palmer & Leiter, which afterward become Field, Leiter & Co. The firm was successful from the start and the business assumed colossal proportions, making millions for both partners during the 20 years the firm existed.

Mr. Leiter also invested heavily in Chicago real estate and when he sold out his interest to Mr. Field his fortune was estimated at not less than $25,000,000.

Active in Chicago Rehabilitation.

In 1871, when Chicago was blasted by the great fire, no man was more active in the work of rehabilitation. He was a director in the Chicago Relief and Aid society and worked early and late. The insurance companies were so hard hit that Chicago for a time was cut out of the insurance business. It was due almost entirely to Mr. Leiter's efforts and assurances that a great English company established a branch office in the city and the insurance business became normal again.

When he retired from active business Mr. Leiter with his family went to Washington to live. He leased at first the great house built by James G. Blaine and later built a palace of his own, one of the finest in the national capital. Here Mrs. Leiter entertained lavishly and soon established a place in the very front rank of Washington society. Her three beautiful daughters, Misses Mary, Daisy and Nancy, won recognition not only on account of their father's great wealth, but by their own beauty, wit and native charms. George Curzon, now Baron Curzon of Kedleston, viceroy of India, then an attache of the British legation, fell victim to the charms of Miss Mary and won her heart and hand. Their marriage April 22, 1898, was one of the greatest social events of the season. Her career since then has been too well known to require description.

Paid Debts of Son Joseph.

The first financial misfortune to befall the Leiters was in 1897 when Joseph, the son and the pride of the house, came to the conclusion that he could "corner" the wheat market. For a while he was successful and his paper profits were away up in the millions. Then the Armours broke the ice in Lake Michigan, got millions of bushels of wheat into Chicago, and the "corner" was broken. It took $7,000,000 to clear the Leiter name from the stain of debt. While neither legally nor morally bound for these debts Levi Z. Leiter, without a word, sold millions of dollars worth of property at a sacrifice, mortgaged other millions worth and every claim was paid dollar for dollar.

Another instance of Levi Leiter's stern sense of honor occurred about the same time. A newsboys' home with a savings bank attachment had been established under Mr. Leiter's patronage. The superintendent left and the accounts were so inextricably mixed that it seemed certain the boys would lose their savings. Mr. Leiter employed expert accountants, provided the means to meet every account and employed detectives to hunt up such of the young depositors, who had given up hope of getting their money and had disappeared.

Charity Without Ostentation.

Mr. Leiter's benefactions were large, but without ostentation. One with which the public became acquainted was the presentation to the government of a hospital, fully equipped, for the use of the troops at Chickamauga during the Spanish-American war. His benevolence and public spirit found expression in many ways. For many years he was a director of the Chicago Relief and Aid society. He was conspicuous in his devotion to the interests of the Chicago Historical society, and contributed liberally to the success of the art institute, of which latter he was at one time the president. The American Sunday School union was another channel through which his philanthropy manifested itself. He was the first president of the Commercial club of Chicago and a prominent member of the Iroquois Calumet union, Union league and Washington Park clubs of the same city.

Mr. Leiter's fortune is conservatively estimated at $25,000,000. Of this about $15,000,000 is in real estate in Chicago, New York, Washington and elsewhere, and the balance in personal property.

Fortune Will Go to Family.

This great fortune will go to his wife and four children, the presumption being that the costly gifts to Lady Curzon and the cost of Joseph's experiment in wheat will be deducted from their shares.

LONDON, June 9.—(Special Cable.)—Carlton House Terrace this afternoon was thronged with carriages of the aristocracy leaving cards for Lord and Lady Curzon on account of the death of her ladyship's father. Among the first of the callers was Lord Knollys and Farquhar, and Sir Dighton Probyn, bearing sympathetic messages from the king, queen and prince of Wales.

Mr. Leiter's death causes the cancellation of all the Curzons' innumerable engagements. The Curzons were to dine tonight with the king at a dinner at Buckingham palace in honor of the Austrian Arch Duke Frederick. The Curzons also were compelled to cancel the command to attend their majesties' first state ball tomorrow night and their majesties' Windsor castle party during Ascot week, as well as other brilliant functions for the season.

Investors With An Eye For Solid Propositions And Big Returns on the Investment Are Not Slow to Buy Real Estate at

ECONOMY

THE MARVEL NEW CITY

The persons who buy Economy real estate now will profit the most. Many wonderful locations; next to two entire squares that were purchased at $25,000 and $35,000, may be had at $625 to $1,250. You can make selection in the neighborhood where the banks, department stores and large hotels will be erected if you act soon.

The moment general business conditions show real signs of a substantial revival nothing on earth will be able to hold the prices down to where they are now, and this revival is sure to come in the next few months. The captains of industry who know the utter weakness of the supply-ability of the markets to meet any spontaneous demand that may occur are confident that a revival is even now beaming in the commercial firmament.

All the sites on Merchant street, the great business highway, will soon be gone. A block of lots at the corner of Merchant street and Bryden road that sold in the great opening sale at $6,400, could now be sold at an enormous premium, but it was bought as a site for a fine hotel.

Thirty minutes after the purchase the purchaser was offered $8,500 for it, in the middle of the afternoon he was offered $10,000 for it and before dark he was offered $12,500.

The frontage on Ohioview avenue is appealing to people who desire beautiful residence sites. The view of the river and surrounding country that this thoroughfare affords cannot be described in print to match up with the real merits of the location. Nothing in Sewickley that is finer. Nothing on Squirrel Hill, Pittsburgh, that is more worthy of being graced by mansions.

This new city that is already great in industrial wealth, is smokeless. It is a place for fine residences. Blast furnaces and other smoke-producers will not be located here. We are determined to make it a WHITE CITY—a city that will have the industries, but industries that don't make smoke. The beauty of the locality influenced us to make this decision. Then another thing—there are so many industries which don't make smoke that pay great wages.

Investors become impressed at once with the colossal American Bridge Works, where an army of nearly 2,000 workmen is already employed, and will be increased to 8,000, and, perhaps, 10,000 when all its buildings are completed. They see the beginning of what is to be a city of more than 40,000 population and the preliminary work on the miles of street improvements that are to be made. Still they can have no idea of what a transformation these street improvements will make when finished. They can have no conception of the change that the new churches, public schools, stores and other public edifices will make.

We have not told you what is occurring in the important realm of negotiations between men who have the capital and the wealth-producing activities to establish a variety of manufacturing institutions in this Marvel New City. We expect to be able to say something definite in reference to these ngotiations in the next month or two. Economy is the only broad expanse of territory left on the valuable

Water fronts of the Pittsburgh district.

Industries will be attracted to it continually. The American Bridge Works, enormous as it is, will represent only a fraction of the future industrial wealth of Economy, and our forecast of 40,000 population is therefore more conservative than the outlook warrants. There is land sufficient left for industries to make it possible to establish a city of 200,000 inhabitants.

If the end of the next fifteen years does not see 100,000 people living in Economy it will be strange indeed, considering all the conditions and reasons that exist in support of our prediction.

COAL OPERATOR ACCUSED OF MURDERING WIFE

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

OIL CITY, PA., June 9.—Michael Kissinger, 65 years old, a well-to-do coal operator of Catfish station, a few miles north of East Brady on the Allegheny Valley railraod, was committed to Clarion county jail today charged with the murder of his wife, Lavina, aged 60 years. The dead woman was Kissinger's third wife and had been married twice before her marriage to Kissinger. They had separated. Mrs. Kissinger and a 15-year-old son lived together at Catfish. On Tuesday evening Kissinger visited his wife at her home to get her to sign a deed for 100 acres of coal land for which he had been offered $7,500. It is said Mrs. Kissinger refused to sign unless he would give her part of the proceeds of the sale. A quarrel ensued and, it is alleged, Kissinger struck the woman, inflicting a wound an inch long on the back of her head. The son, who was in another room, heard his mother fall to the floor and ran to her assistance. She was dead when he picked her up. He ran to East Brady and notified the constable, who arrested Kissinger.

A post-mortem examination showed that death was caused by a blod clot at the base of the brain, caused by a blow on the head, and on the testimony of physicians and others at the coroner's inquest at East Brady the husband was sent to jail.

CAUGHT PRICELESS MESS.

Justice Found $650 Worth of of Trout and Woman and Son Go to Jail.

HARRISBURG, PA., June 9.—(Special.)—Her fish basket was empty when the state fish warden examined it, but he thought Mrs. John Tebo looked a little stouter than she should, and he found 35 short trout snugly tucked away in the loose part of her shirt waist. William Cought, the woman's son, had 35 trout in his possession at the time, and the mother and son were promptly arrested, tried, convicted and committed to jail.

This accident occurred near Potato creek, Cameron county, on Monday, and was today reported by the fish warden to the state department of fisheries.

After the warden found the fish in the woman's waist, he took Mrs. Tebo and son before a justice of the peace, who fined the son $300 and his mother $350. This is at the rate of $10 a trout, the penalty for taking these fish under size. Neither of them could pay the fine, and they went to jail for the customary alternative of one day for each dollar.

SENIOR CLASS IS IN DEEP TROUBLE

Faculty of Western University Will Have Police on Class Day to Keep Order.

PROGRAM FOR CLOSING WEEK

It has been decided by the faculty of the Western University of Pennsylvania that the senior class must forego the pleasure of the usual class day exercises or go through the exercises under police surveillance. The reason given is that the scenes attendant upon the event last year were not in accord with the best ethics of propriety. In fact, some members of the faculty assert that the riotous interruptions of the junior class, in their efforts to make a farce of the proceedings, were actually disgraceful, and that no such jollification shall be witnessed again.

This ultimatum of the faculty was made known to the committee of seniors that called recently upon the governing board. A compromise was sought, and the young men were informed that if they signed a pledge to conduct themselves quietly and secured a similar promise from the juniors, the class day ceremonies could be carried out according to ancient customs, without the usual racket. To this the seniors promptly acquiesced, but the juniors have refused absolutely to have anything to do with the pledge. The result is that the faculty has arranged for police assistance and the hearts of the senior class are sad.

Sunday, June 12, at 11 a. m.—Baccalureate sermon by the Rev. Dr. W. L. McEwan in the Third Presbyterian church, Pittsburgh.

FRANCE HAS GIVEN WARNING TO PORTE

Delcasse Says Sultan Was Informed Repression Must Cease in Armenia.

CONSUL MADE INVESTIGATION

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

PARIS, June 9.—Foreign Minister Delcasse made a statement in the chamber of deputies today giving a summary of the official investigation into the atrocities in Armenia. The question came up on the request of a Socialist deputy that France make a naval demonstration against Turkey in order to stop the Armenian persecutions.

M. Delcasse said he received on Monday a report from the French ambassador at Constantinople giving the result of the investigations of the French consul sent into the Sassoun district. It showed there had been a number of bloody combats, and villages had been captured by the troops and destroyed. But it was impossible to estimate even approximately the number of villages destroyed or the number of persons killed. Some accounts said 25 villages, and others claimed that 15 villages were destroyed. There was no doubt the uprising resulted in the killing of many rebels and also in the death of many peaceful peasants. But the presence of the French, Russian and British consuls was beginning to restore confidence. The facts in the case had been exaggerated, but they were none the less deplorable. The porte maintains in Armenia an administration of such a character that insurrection is the only recourse for the population.

Continuing, M. Delcasse said: "I have informed the porte that the time for repression is over, and that it must beware what responsibility it incurs. The French government will not cease to do its whole duty."

ST. PETERSBURG, June 9.—Advices from Constantinople to the Turkish embassy here say the troubles in Armenia have ceased and that absolute tranquility prevails.

Died in Funeral Cortege.

CORNING, N. Y., June 9.—(Special.)—The funeral of John Roberts of Stephenson Mills had two dead men when it reached the cemetery. Just before driving in, Elam L. Welch, a well-to-do resident, who was aiding as one of the pallbearers, fell over in the carriage and was dead when picked up. Heart disease was the cause.

Will Fight High Insurance Rates.

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 9.—The business men of Vancouver, Westminster and Victoria are appealing to public bodies to use their influence to protect them from alleged exorbitant fire insurance rates. The companies raised the rates, owing to the Baltimore and Toronto fires. Public bodies are appointing committees to take up the matter.

WOULD NOT TALK TO GRAND JURY

Nan Patterson Declines the Proffered Permission to Testify.

BROTHER-IN-LAW IS WANTED

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, June 9.—At the request of some of the grand jurors, Assistant District Attorney Rand this afternoon wrote to counsel for Mrs. Patterson asking that she be permitted to testify before the grand jury and explain her case. Her counsel, after a conference as to the advisability of granting the request, replied that they will not allow their client to go before the grand jury. Their letter says:

While we fully appreciate the very just spirit which prompts our worthy grand jury to extend this privilege to Miss Patterson, she is constrained to defer to our judgment not to avail herself thereof for the present.

From our conscientious understanding of the facts attending the unfortunate death of Mr. Young, we are thoroughly convinced that no indictment would be returned by this or any other grand jury, if the evidence of eye witnesses and others, whose statements the district attorney has already taken, is submitted to that body.

Under these conditions we can conceive of nothing which Mrs. Patterson can or should be called upon to explain.

Mr. Levy said that he had received many letters from people who say they were witnesses to the shooting, and that his firm would see the writer of each letter. Mr. Levy added that Henry A. Katz, who said he saw the affair, would be at his office tomorrow. Mr. Katz is a traveling salesman and since the shooting has been out of the city.

Judge Newburger, in the court of general sessions, has issued a body attachment for J. Morgan Smith, brother-in-law of Mrs. Patterson. This is practically the same as a warrant. The attachment was issued on an affidavit of Police Capt. Sweeney, who swore that a subpoena was issued for Smith for today, but that he failed to appear.

Subway Station Finished.

NEW YORK, June 9.—(Special.)—Sergt. Place and 50 policemen from the Tenderloin station were on hand today when the subway station at Twenty-eighth street and Fourth avenue was opened to the public, but there were no enthusiastic crowds to throng the subway and applaud the handiwork of the contractors and engineers who have kept the streets of Manhattan topsy-turvy for three years.

American Girl Weds Italian.

FLORENCE, June 9.—Miss Marguerita Fitzgerald of Baltimore, Md., was married here today to Agostino Sergio of Naples. Miss Fitzgerald is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Fitzgerald of an old Baltimore family and connections, who went to reside in Germany several years ago and afterward went to Italy, where they now reside.

JAPAN'S COURSE IN KOREA IS OUTLINED

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

SEOUL, June 8.—(Delayed in transmission.)—M. Hayashi, the Japanese minister to Korea, who is leaving this country shortly for Japan, summed up the Korean situation yesterday as follows:

"Up to the present I have attained my main object, that of keeping the Koreans quiet. From time to time I have made suggestions regarding our future course here. To be successful we must have control, which is only obtainable when there is the weight of dominant power backing advice given. The lack of this will render the services of any foreign adviser useless.

"There must be government, and palace intrigues must end. The useless army of Korea must be reduced, the officials must be paid a living wage and squeezing must be stopped. When complaints are entertained and acted upon extortion will cease. There must be education of the proper sort. The majority of the Koreans who speak foreign langues and have been educated abroad are absolutely without administrative ability and stand for little save speculation. The educational reform will take many years.

"It is also necessary to formulate comprehensive mining regulations to avoid friction between American, British, Japanese and other foreign capital. The Korean government must be completely submissive to intelligent supervision, and must be backed by force sufficient to preclude repudiation of its administration."

Donora Banks to Consolidate.

DONORA, PA., June 9.—(Special.)—At a meeting held here today of the stockholders of the Union Trust Company and Bank of Donora, it was decided to consolidate the two institutions by a transfer of the assets of the Bank of Donora to the Trust company. One of the largest stockholders of the Trust company is A. W. Mellon of Pittsburgh.

Butler Boy Believed Drowned.

BUTLER, PA., June 9.—(Special)—A telegram was received last evening by William A. Stein, a prominent merchant, from his daughter, Mrs. Alberta Coulter, of Cleveland, O., stating that her husband, James E. Coulter, is believed to have been drowned in Lake Erie. Coulter and a friend went out on the lake in a sail boat which has never returned. Both men are believed to have perished. Coulter was a son of Manager William L. Coulter of the Oil Well Supply Company and was 21 years old. Mr. Stein left for Cleveland today.

College President a Suicide.

ODESSA, MO., June 9.—L. H. Gehman, president of Odessa college, was found unconscious in his apartments in the college building today. NEW YORK, June 9.—After basking in perfect baseball weather for the last week, which was having a beneficial effect on many of the veteran champions, Manager Clarke and his men woke up today to find a severe northeast wind, accompanied by a cold, raw rain, which had been working overtime since midnight. Had it cleared up early it is doubtful if the Polo ground would have been in condition for playing.

Quite a few of the players tempted Dame Fortune at the race track this afternoon, with more or less success. To add to the bad weather, many of the players were feeling grouchy over losing yesterday's game after the Deacon had held the Giants down to three little hits. Manager Clarke, when asked at the Marlborough hotel tonight regarding the report sent out from Pittsburgh that he and Dreyfuss held a consultation here today, had nothing to say, but that he feels his place in the championship race keenly there can be little doubt.

"While we have split even in the six games played since coming east," said Clarke this afternoon, "I am not quite satisfied with our showing. Outside of our first game in New York, when Miller was slaughtered, we have played good ball, but the Giants seemed to have the odds on us when it came to a question of luck.

"Had we played the Giants today I was going to put Flaherty in the box against them. I have always liked Patsy's work. Don't confuse him with the Patsy Flaherty who played third base on the old Louisvilles. Flaherty will have his chance to make good tomorrow in the opening game at Boston, and I think he will." The team left on the midnight train for the Hub.

UPTEGRAFF AND PRICE ARE CHOSEN CAPTAINS

Shadyside Academy Elects Leaders of Baseball and Field and Track Teams.

Elections were held yesterday morning at Shadyside academy to choose captains for the baseball and field and track teams. Tom Uptegraff, middle fielder, was unanimously chosen captain of the baseball team and Kerr Price, who so successfully led the nine this spring, was elected captain of the field and track teams. Price was chosen over Jim. McCutcheon by a vote of 6 to 3. Uptegraff is one of the best baseball players in the academy and is popular. He played on the team two years. This spring he has been chosen middle fielder on the All-Interscholastic team. Price succeeds Charlie Ahl as captain of the field and track teams.

The players who voted were: Baseball—Price, Williams, Ahl, Uptegraff, Babst, Lally, Crane, Shultz, Schmertz, Allebrand, McKaig. Field and track—Ahl, Williams, Bakewell, Price, Morris, Pierce, McCutcheon, Scott, Sheppard.

Pittsburgh High school and East Liberty academy will soon choose baseball captains. The probable candidates at High school are Dave Johns, Al. Blaias and "Chuck" Bauer. Bauer is the logical candidate, but he may not be back next year. If Alex. McCracken does not return to East Liberty next spring, another captain will be elected. Thus far there are no announced candidates for the place. Infielder Hays seems like a winner at Pittsburgh college to succeed Ed. Davin.

Rain yesterday prevented the Pittsburgh High school-Allegheny High school game at Friendship park. Pittsburgh closes its season Saturday at California Normal.

The Interscholastics will practice this afternoon at Friendship park at 2 o'clock, and Capt. Price requests the following players to be out as early as possible: McCracken, Moffet, Crane, Spuhler, Uptegraff, Shultz, Bailey, Welsh and Eastley.

Kiski was beaten at Cokeville Wednesday, 11 to 4. The batteries were, Kiski: Seanor, Terrel and Fulton; Cokeville, Russell and Johnson.

The Pittsburgh College Juniors will play the East End Lyceum this afternoon on the bluff. Kummer and Murray will be the battery for the collegians.

The Pittsburgh College Juniors will play the Parkview A. C. at Oakland this afternoon. McKnight or McCarthy and Joyce will be the Juniors' battery.

GROVE CITY, PA., June 19.—(Special.)—The Athletic association of Grove City college today elected R. Guy McKinstrey, '05, of Mercer, as manager of next year's baseball team. He was assistant manager of the '03 baseball team and the '04 basketball team.

Carload of Merrymakers Have Narow Escape from Death in Iowa.

DES MOINES, IA., June 9.—Twenty-seven people, including several prominent Iowa politicians and a number of old soldiers, were injured in an accident tonight on the Mason City & Clear Lake electric line, as they were returning to Mason City from the last campfire of the state G. A. R. encampment.

A trailer on a heavily loaded train jumped the track while going at a high rate of speed and turned completely over. Fortunately a culvert kept the car from falling upon the passengers, who had been thrown from the windows. This was all that prevented loss of life.

A. B. Funk of Spirit Lake, a leading Iowa Republican politician, was slightly injured. Mrs. R. T. St. John, wife of the department commander of the Iowa G. A. R., was seriously hurt internally. None of the injured will die.

"LEFTY" JACKSON JOINS CROWE'S CLUB AT NILES

Homestead and Youngstown to Meet Today at Steel Works Park—Other Gossip.

Homestead and Youngstown did not play yesterday afternoon at Steel Works park, because of the rain, but these rivals are carded to meet this afternoon. Manager Risher will send Lew Moren on the rubber, while Marty Hogan will have either Thomas, formerly of the Central league, or Jack Dolan, the old Brooklyn pitcher, opposing him. Manager Hogan looks for a victory and last night he reported his team in excellent shape.

Hogan imparted the information that "Lefty" Jackson, the Pittsburgh pitcher, is in a bad way. "'Lefty' has a very bad shoulder, caused, I believe, by working too hard in the spring. He is not with us now, having joined the Niles team a week ago," he said.

The Pittsburgh Athletic club will play the Carnegie A. C. of Braddock a double header Saturday afternoon at Friendship park. The first game will be called at 3:15 and the next at 6 o'clock. Manager Wentz has this schedule for next week: Tuesday, Pittsburgh Elks; Wednesday, Smoky City Giants; Thursday, Iroquois club.

Harrisburg has released Farrell, a fielder, and Bowden, a pitcher.

Alliance is making a strong fight for Pitcher "Lefty" Boyle of Allegheny, who has been doing good work for Akron. Alliance claims it had Boyle before he signed with Akron.

Travis and Byers Made Poor Showing in English Tourney.

LONDON, June 9.—Walter J. Travis, the American champion, dropped out of the open golf championship contest at Sandwich, after today's round, under the rule whereby players with a score of 20 behind the leader are eliminated. Travis' score today was 88, and yesterday 83, a total of 171. Thompson (professional), yesterday's leader, is still ahead with a total of 151.

Travis again put badly and was also off in his long game, frequently getting away from the line and misjudging the strength of his approaches. Sherlick, the Oxford university professional, broke the record over the Sandwich course with the phenomenal score of 71, four better than the previous best.

E. M. Byers, American, did not return his card.

STEWARDS TOOK A HAND.

Poseur's Victory Looked Just a Little Bit Suspicious.

CHICAGO, June 9.—Poseur was made the medium of a coup in the first race at Harlem today, which she won with ease. Badly beaten by cheap fields in her last two times out, her sudden reversal of form today brought about an investigation by the stewards of the Harlem Jockey club, with the result that J. Gray & Co., and their trainer, M. Foster, as well as the horses running in the name of the firm, including Poseur, Gus Heidorn and others, were suspended pending an investigation. Only one favorite won during the day. The other five events went to three second choices and two outsiders. Summary:

First race, 6 furlongs—Poseur, 106, C. Gray, 8 to 1, won; Alma Dufour, 101, Sheehan, 11 to 5, second; Bensonhurst, 101, Aubuchon, 15 to 1, third. Time, 1:14 4-5.

DILKE WOULD ASK AID OF AMERICA

Urges England to Seek Our Co-Operation to Secure Reforms in Kongo State.

STATEMENT FOR GOVERNMENT

LONDON, June 9.—During the discussion of the foreign office estimates in the house of commons today Sir Carles Dilke (Advanced Radical) raised the question of the administration of the Kongo state. He discussed at some length the report of Roger Casement, British consul in the Kongo state, and advocated an appeal to the United States to act with Great Britain in the matter, pointing out that the United States was responsible for the creation of the Kongo free state, and saying he believed that such co-operation would be pregnant with good results. Sir Charles asked if, in the face of the facts admitted by the Belgian government, the time had not come to sweep away all the difficulties and force the government to act by stronger measures than mere words and dispatches with reference to this horrible scandal.

Other speakers supported Sir Charles' suggestion to appeal to the United States.

The Under-secretary for Foreign Affairs, Earl Percy, said the British government thought the Kongo government would readily recognize the necessity for a searching inquiry, but the former had been disappointed. The Kongo government imputed to Great Britain a campaign of calumny, prompted by trade jealousy, but this was absolutely ridiculous. Was it possible, he asked, in the face of the Kongo government's own testimony, to avoid the conclusion that the refusal to make an inquiry showed that the Belgian government was afraid of revelations or would not reform the system which permitted such atrocities?

Mr. Casement's report was communicated to the United States and to the European powers. The United States, Italy and Turkey assured the British government that they would give it their earnest consideration. The other powers said they believed their material interests were not sufficient to warrant active participation in the matter. The Kongo government's later proposal, to investigate the charges made, had altered the situation slightly, but an unsatisfactory feature of this proposal was that the Kongo government did not know what form the investigation would take or what tribunal would carry out any reforms which might be determined upon.

Earl Percy, after reviewing the situation in the Kongo State, charged officials with permitting "Insensate inhuman cruelties to be practiced in order that they might profit by the collection of rubber."

It was not a question, said the under secretary for foreign affairs, of the existence of the sovereignty of the Kongo State; of that the central government might rest assured, but the question was the fair fame of western civilization, the reputation of that creed upon whose principles that civilization was based. It was in this conviction that the British government appealed no less to other powers than to the Kongo State itself. It was in that spirit that the British government sincerely hoped the rulers of the Kongo state would prosecute the inquiry to which they were solemnly and publicly pledged.

SUBMARINE TORPEDO BOAT SPIRITED AWAY TO JAPAN

Protector Which Disappeared from America Was Seen at Gibraltar.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, June 9.—Following the disappearance of the submarine torpedo boat Protector from Bridgeport, Conn., after inspection by representatives of the Japanese government, and the report that the submarine had been loaded on the little 1,900 ton steamship Fortuna, which sailed from this port Sunday, comes a confirmation of this theory today.

Capt. G. Dannemann of the North German Lloyd steamship Prinzess Irene, which arrived here today from Gibraltar, reports that on Tuesday at 3 o'clock in the afternoon the Prinzess Irene, during a slight fog, passed the Fortuna, going so close to her that everything on the smaller steamship could be easily seen by those on the Prinzess Irene. On the after deck of the Fortuna, Capt. Dannemann states, was a large mass which a moment later he made out quite clearly, from descriptions he had read, as the mysterious submarine boat Protector.

Capt. Dannemann's story has led many to believe that the Protector is being carried straight to the Mediterranean, and is to be taken by way of the Suez canal to Asiatic waters. There has been much excitement in Bridgeport over the Protector, two visitors supposed to be Japanese engineers having examined her in the latter part of May, and someone having discovered that a mechanic, who watched the Japanese inspection, was really a United States secret service man.

FREIGHT RATES TOO HIGH.

Interstate Commerce Commission Decides Against Railroad on Fruit Charges.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—The interstate commerce commission today, in an opinion by Commissioner Fifer, announced its decision in the case of the Georgia Peach Growers' association against the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company and others, involving the liability of the carrier for damage to fruit through negligence, as well as the question of proper freight rates.

The commission holds that the transportation companies are responsible for damage to fruit through negligence of the carrier to the full amount of the injury sustained, without regard to the valuation placed on it. It was further held that the regulation whereby the freight rate on peaches and other fruit from Georgia points is increased in proportion to the carload valuation fixed by the shipper is unreasonable and unjust. The charge of $80 a car imposed by the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company on fruit from New York to Boston the commission holds to be unreasonable and unjust, and should be reduced to $50.

SOCIETY

INFORMAL entertainments prevailed yesterday. One of the smart affairs which are being given in honor of Mrs. John Joy Edson, Jr., of Washington, D. C., during her stay in Pittsburgh is the bridge whist at which Mrs. James H. Hammond was hostess yesterday afternoon. It was conducted at Mrs. Hammond's home in Clyde street, Shadyside, and the guests required the use of seven tables for the game.

Three prizes were awarded, the winners being Mrs. Murry Verner, Mrs. J. Grant Anderson and Mrs. Louisa Brown. The score cards were dainty little water color sketches in green and red. Refreshments were served in the dining room at the close of the game.

Miss Marjorie Whiting and Miss Catherine Luce of Chicago and Miss Edna Foster of Buffalo, the three visiting school friends of Miss Jeannette Williams, were the guests of honor at a prettily appointed luncheon given by Mrs. John Biggert of Shady avenue, East End, yesterday. The luncheon was served in the pretty green and white dining room of the new Country clubhouse. Covers were laid for 12, the guests including Miss Whiting, Miss Luce, Miss Foster, Miss Williams, Miss Martha Biggert, Miss Helen Braden, Miss Dorothy Shoemaker, Miss Marjorie Evans, Miss Marie Blackmore, Miss Elizabeth Eaton and Miss Janet Browne.

Lappe-Power.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Power will issue at-home cards after their return from their wedding trip. Their wedding last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Lappe, in Stratford avenue, was a pretty gold and white affair. The bride, Miss Carolyn M. Lappe, was attended by her sister, Miss Mary Lappe, as maid of honor, and by Miss Elizabeth Power, Miss Jean Bunton and Miss Katherine Carnahan as bridesmaids. William S. Power, a brother of the bridegroom, served as best man, and the ushers were Alexander Lappe, Lewis Hueeman and Claude Griffin. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock by the Rev. Dr. John M. Prugh, pastor of the Grace Reformed church, Mr. Lappe giving his daughter away. The bride was gowned in white liberty satin elaborately trimmed with chiffon ruching and duchesse and point lace. Her veil was fastened with orange blossoms and her ornaments were a baroque pearl and emerald pin, the gift of her mother, and a baroque pearl and sapphire necklace, the gift of the bridegroom. She carried a shower of roses and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor wore a dainty gown of white tulle over white silk. Her flowers were white daisies. The bridesmaids, wearing white chiffon, carried daisies. Mrs. Lappe was gowned in champagne colored crepe and received with the bride and bridegroom at the reception following the ceremony. After their wedding trip Mr. Power and his bride will occupy apartments in the Westminster flats in Aiken avenue. The bridegroom is vice president and treasurer of the W. S. Power Company, advertisers, and is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Power of Rochester, Pa.

A Late June Wedding.

A pretty home wedding on Thursday evening, June 23, will be that of Miss Anna May Lyons, daughter of James Lyons of Shady avenue, and William James Patterson, which will take place at the residence of the bride's father at 7:30 o'clock, the Rev. Mr. Gracey is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel G. Gracey of Wilkinsburg.

Benefit Play Postponed.

Great disappointment was occasioned yesterday by the necessity of postponing the benefit play to be given by the pupils of Miss Gleim's school. Because of the rain in the morning the committee decided to postpone the performance of "A Mid-Summer Night's Dream" until Saturday evening, when it is hoped the weather will be more propitious for an outdoor entertainment. The play will then be given as originally planned on the lawn beside Miss Gleim's school in South Negley avenue for the benefit of the Children's hospital.

This afternoon and evening the same institution will be brought before the public by the entertainment which will be given for its benefit at the residence of Miss Martha H. Childs in South Linden avenue. It will be a porch sale and auction of autographed books and pictures, continuing from 2 until 7 o'clock. # AMONG THE CLUBS

Summer Playground Plans Completed.

The last regular meeting of the joint committee of women's clubs yesterday morning was a particularly interesting one. The assembly rooms of the Twentieth Century club was crowded with the delegates from the 24 clubs included in the joint committee, and plans were practically completed for the opening of the summer playgrounds and vacation schools this season. There will be 12 playgrounds in Pittsburgh and eight in Allegheny. A second circular letter is ready to be issued by the finance committee asking for contributions to meet the expenses. The treasurer, Mrs. Samuel A. Ammon, yesterday reported $934 received. This is exclusive of the appropriation from the Central board of education of $3,500 and the $1,500 appropriated by the Allegheny councils.

The Pittsburgh chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will donate to the committee flags to the amount of $25 and will give a large flag to be placed in a prominent place in Bedford Basin park. The chapter gave a large flag to the South Side Recreation park on Memorial day, when it was opened for the season. It was decided yesterday to petition councils to change the name of Bedford Basin park to Washington park. The plans are progressing finely for the formal opening of the park on the Fourth of July.

Miss Eliza D. Armstrong, chairman of the flower committee, reported 41 helpers secured. The Central Young Women's Christian association has offered the use of its gymnasium for the arrangement of the flowers each week into small bouquets to be distributed to each child in the playgrounds, and the suggestion was made yesterday that someone from each playground report at the Central Young Women's Christian association before 11 o'clock on the weekly flower day to carry out to the playgrounds the bouquets, as this will facilitate their delivery before the children are dismissed from the playgrounds.

All the teachers needed have been secured and a plan to be followed this season is the engagement of a man in each playground, who will direct the games of the older boys. Thus the older boys will be encouraged to attend more than in past seasons, when the arrangement was not made for their benefit. Carpentry will also be introduced in the vacation school in place of basketry for the older boys, while a class in millinery will be opened for the older girls. The committee appointed to take charge of the arrangements for the outing to the Fresh Air home in Glenwood requested that each kindergarten director in the playground report the names of those children who are in need of a change of air, the offer coming from the managers of the Fresh Air home being so generous as to include not only the children in the playgrounds who will be in need of the change, but their mothers as well.

A teachers' institute will be conducted at the invitation of the trustees and faculty of the Chatham school in that school building in South Highland avenue. The institute will open in two weeks and will be for the benefit of the teachers who have been engaged for the playgrounds and vacation schools. Miss Alice Thurston has also offered the use of the Thurston Preparatory school for any additional meetings the joint committee may hold. An invitation was received yesterday from Miss Georgia Allison, supervisor of the kindergarten, to attend the entertainment to be given this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Pittsburgh Conservatory of Music in Dithridge street, when the kindergarten teachers will give an illustration of the games of all nations.

A meeting of the chairmen and all committees will be held on Thursday, June 23.

The American Waldensian Colony.

At the meeting of the Waldensian society yesterday afternoon in the Twentieth Century club Dr. Grant made an address. Dr. Grant has been working recently in the colony of Waldensians located in the mountainous district of North Carolina, near Asheville. She told of the mountain whites in that part of the state and described the beginning of a silk industry among these people. The culture of silkworms has been introduced with success, and already the people are showing signs of the improvement in their condition resulting from their interest in this work. The weaving of stockings is another home industry which is being established among the people of the North Carolina mountains.

Dr. Grant formerly worked among the Waldensians in Italy near the city of Rome, coming only a short time ago to this country. She was born in Italy, where she has lived for many years, and speaks fluently the Italian language. She is a cousin of Col. James M. Schoonmaker of Ellsworth avenue. Just at present Dr. Grant is staying with Miss Sue Maple, the corresponding secretary of the Pittsburgh branch of the Waldensian society. The women were so much interested yesterday in her story of the work in the Waldensian colony in North Carolina that they will make individual gifts to the work conducted there. The local branch yesterday also appropriated $500 to be sent to the Waldensian society in Italy.

The officers of the Pittsburgh branch include the president, the Rev. John McClurkin; vice presidents, Mrs. Ormsby Phillips and Mrs. Frederick G. Kay; treasurer, the Rev. Dr. John M. Prugh; corresponding secretary, Miss Sue Maple; recording secretary, Miss Nannie G. Gillespie. Among the directors are the following women: Mrs. John A. Thompson, representing the East Liberty Presbyterian church; Mrs. M. J. TWO SIGNALS.

DANGER SIGNAL No. 1—Comes from the kidney secretions. The experienced physician knows at once the kidneys are sick when he examines the urine. You can tell for yourself. Urin that is pale and foamy—that is highly colored, reddish, blood-like—that contains sediment or "brick-dust like" deposit on standing, points to sick kidneys. Infrequent or too frequent urination and all urinary difficulties are danger signals which call for prompt use of Doan's Kidney Pills.

DANGER SIGNAL No. 2—Comes from the back. Backache pains—in many forms—signal sick kidneys, tell of overworked, congested kidneys; warn you of impending danger. A "bad back" is misery enough of itself, but far worse is in store, for those who neglect its warning—nervous conditions—sleepless nights—despondency—failing eyesight—muscular soreness—Rheumatic pains and many exhaustive aches. Doan's Kidney Pills cure all ills of kidneys and bladder, and are indorsed by people you know.

Wesley Maury, employed at the Boat Supply store, 323 Water street, says: "In July of this year a severe pain caught me in the small of the back. I could not stoop and was almost incapacitated from business. At the end of the second day I thought I should have to give up until I could get rid of the pain. A friend coming into the store asked the trouble and I told him. He said: 'Go around to Eggers' drug store, get a box of Doan's Kidney Pills, take them and in a short time your back will be as sound as a dolar. I know this from personal experience.' Only too glad to follow his advice, I got a box, and before the pills were half used my back was as sound as ever."

DOCTORS WILL PROBE COLLEGES

ACTION AT ATLANTIC CITY

The Pittsburgh Gazette Bureau. Young's Ocean Pier. ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 9.

As a result of the expulsion of the Baltimore University School of Medicine from the Association of American Colleges for graduating students who had been former members of the Baltimore Medical college, the association has taken radical steps to prevent a repetition of such action on the part of colleges.

Secretary-Treasurer Fred C. Zapfee of Chicago, who is greatly interested in the subject, was instructed to make a detailed report of the question in all its phases, especially entrance requirements for admission to medical colleges and to confer with similar committees from the American Medical association, various state boards of health, examining boards and the National Association of Homeopathic, Electro and Physio-Medical Practitioners.

He was instructed to cover the matter fully and get the subject down to a uniform business and professional basis, whereby the requirements will be more severe, thereby assuring the graduates that they are proficient to practice and causing no alarm among the general public, at the same time eliminating the danger of a medical college being made a party in questionable graduating exercises.

EASTERN STOCKS VERY DULL WITHIN A NARROW RANGE

Smelting, Steel Preferred and Reading Closed Firm. Strong Foreign Bank Statements—No Gold Exports—Airbrake Higher.

By JOHN O. BAGLIN, Financial Editor.

There was a very considerable falling off in business in the New York stock market yesterday, the sales footing up less than 150,000 shares. Activity and strength were confined to a few specialties, the rest of the market moving within extremely narrow limits. The sentiment among traders, however, was rather cheerful, despite the dullness, and the strength of the foreign markets was a factor at the opening here. American Smelting common was the strongest of the industrials, advancing to 54⅛ and closing with a moderate net gain. United States Steel preferred was also firm, but the extremes for the day were 54½ and 53⅞, the close being 54⅛. Pressed Steel Car common advanced to 27½ on light transactions, and National Lead common advanced to 21⅞, but subsequently lost all the advance.

Reading continued the leader of the railroad list, opening ½ higher at 46⅝ and closing at the top. The Pacifics and the grangers were quiet but steady. The decrease of $342,000 reported in New York Central's gross earnings for May had no effect upon that stock. The market remained listless throughout, but finally closed steady to firm.

Sterling exchange was lower, and the rate is still below the point at which gold may be profitably exported, hence there were no engagements. Call loan rates remained easy and unchanged, the final loan being at 1¼ per cent.

Contrary to expectations, the governors of the Bank of England did not reduce the minimum rate of discount yesterday, but the weekly report of the bank showed a large increase in reserve and a decrease in loans of $14,305,000. The percentage of reserve to liability is now 50.13 per cent, against 46.33 per cent last week. The report of the Bank of France for the week was one of the best ever issued, showing a gain of $7,620,000 in gold and a decrease of $23,475,000 in loans for the week. The gold holdings of the bank now foot up the largest total ever reported. The statement of the Imperial Bank of Germany showed a decrease of $1,400,000 cash on hand and a decrease of $13,190,000 in loans. The foreign money market is relatively as easy as that in New York, and in all the great markets a contraction in loans is in progress. Conditions are therefore favorable for more activity in the stock market, so far as money rates are concerned, but foreign exchanges are almost, if not altogether, as stagnant as Wall street.

Grain markets were again lower yesterday, the movement discounting an expected favorable crop report to be made by the government after the close of business hours today. The state report for Kansas, issued yesterday, estimated the condition at 87 per cent, as compared with 82 per cent a month ago and 89 per cent at the corresponding date last year. The acreage is estimated at 4,940,000 acres and the yield at about 70,000,000 bushels. Last year the acreage was estimated at 6,181,000 acres and the yield at 104,000,000 bushels. The government report today will, in addition to giving the average for winter wheat, contain the first estimates on spring wheat and oats. On May 1 the average condition of winter wheat was 76.5, the same as on April 1. Today's figures are expected to show an improvement on this condition. On June 1 of last year the estimate was 82.2 for winter wheat and 95.9 for spring wheat, but the average for both at the close of the crop season was only 74.7, which was the lowest since 1900. Last year's total crop harvested 637,000,000 bushels, while unofficial estimates for the present year range from 575,000,000 to 590,000,000 bushels, the reduction being due more to acreage abandoned during April than to deterioration in condition.

Wall street is looking forward with a great deal of interest to the showing to be made this afternoon, and pending its appearance the stock market is likely to remain extremely dull and narrow. If the showing should be above expectations, traders may use it for a rally during the brief session tomorrow.

The only important change in the local stock market yesterday was the advance of $1 50 a share in Westinghouse Airbrake, which rallied to 128½ and closed at 128 bid. Pittsburgh Brewing preferred rallied to 45½, but the rest of the list remained either unchanged or closed a fraction lower. The only dealings in the coal stocks consisted of 31 shares Pittsburgh preferred at 54¾@55. There was nothing doing in the common or River Coal preferred, but a block of $14,000 River Coal bonds changed hands at 111. Crucible Steel was weak, declining to 34¾.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

Crucible Steel preferred yesterday declined to 34¾, which is the lowest price since the closing of the deal for the transfer of the Clairton property to the United States Steel Corporation. Last April when these negotiations opened—or rather when the public learned the fact that the matter had again been taken up—Crucible preferred started at 31 and advanced to 45. As the deal dragged along the price reacted, but on the decline the buying was said to be good, and was generally credited to insiders. During the past two weeks dealings in the stock have been light, and the price seems to have declined through sheer dullness. A report was published in Wall street yesterday, which is supposed to have emanated from unofficial sources in this city, that the earnings of Crucible were at the rate of $200,000 a month. Local traders were inclined to be skeptical regarding this estimate. Crucible preferred dividend is cumulative and the stock has a prior right in the assets. Leaving the common stock out of the calculation, the preferred is quoted on a basis of about $8,750,000 for the property.

There were no sales of Pittsburgh Coal common yesterday, the stock being quoted at 14⅝ bid, 14⅞ asked. Only 31 shares of the preferred changed hands at unchanged prices. River Coal common and preferred did not change hands, but a block of $14,000 of the bonds sold at 111, Robinson Bros. to C. L. McCutcheon.

On the exchange $10,000 West Penn Railway and Light syndicate receipts were offered at 85.

There were no sales of Westinghouse Electric all day, but the stock held steady at 77⅜ bid, 77⅝ asked. Union Switch and Signal was not mentioned. Dividend action on the latter will be taken next week.

National Fire Proofing common remained firm at 7⅞@8, but the preferred was weak and lower, selling down to 27 and closing at 26¾ bid.

A Philadelphia dispatch quoted a director of the Philadelphia Company as saying: "The indications are now that the matter of the Verner franchise will be settled between the directors of the Philadelphia Company and the holders of the ordinances at leisure. The Verner people have shown no disposition to push their claims, and there is no particular reason for hurrying the matter. I believe that up to the present time no price has been either promised or paid for the franchises, but I consider it settled that they will not be used against us."

United Gas Improvement directors declared the regular quarterly dividend of 2 per cent, payable July 15 to stock of record June 30.

Regarding street gossip on the prospects for a dividend on Reading common, a Wall street observer remarks "These rumors could be dismissed as entirely improbable were it not for the fact of the large amount of Reading securities that the Pennsylvania and Lake Shore roads own, and which are now put up as collateral in their loans. A declaration of a dividend on the common stock might be made which would be sufficient to make these underlying securities meet the interest on the bonds which they secure."

There was some activity in Leather preferred accompanied by the old story that arrangements were being made for the payment of the back dividends.

A call from the comptroller of the currency for a statement of condition of the national banks is now looked for daily.

At one time a drive was made at Amalgamated Copper, accomplishing but little results, the basis for the attack being a statement by one of the new agencies that negotiations between Mr. H. H. Rogers and Mr. Heinze had been broken off. It is, however, a question whether any such negotiations ever existed.

Chicago special to New York Evening Post says that if the question of this year's harvest is regarded in the east as the crucial problem in relation to the financial situation, it is no less regarded so in the west. Business conditions throughout the west are now very different from those in 1901, the year of crop failure in corn and oats. The stocks of old grain had not then been reduced to the point of exhaustion, as they have at present, and with the good prices prevailing, farmers were enabled to buy all the goods they wanted with the extra money earned by them through the advance in price for their surplus from previous crops. Today the farmer has no such surplus from bumper harvests to fall back on. There has already, for six months, been curtailment in the buying of all kinds of necessities. Stocks of goods in hands of interior retailers have not been reduced. Jobbers are not carrying as heavy stocks, and manufacturers are, to a large extent, shut down, who, three years ago, were running full of orders. The fact that jobbers and manufacturers have been liquidating, and owe less today than in six months, is negatively favorable, but it is the crops which must determine whether they can start up actively again.

London was said to be somewhat disappointed over the failure to reduce the discount rate of the Bank of England. But the statement of the bank left no room for anxiety over the financial situation in London, the $2,600,000 bullion increase being accompanied by a loan contraction of over $14,000,000, bringing the proportion of reserve to liability to over 50 per cent. At the same time the Bank of France showed a further rise in its gold holdings of over $7,500,000, with a reduction of over $23,000,000 in its bills discounted. It was not surprising, therefore, that a violent advance in the sterling rate at Paris should reflect the turn in the current of the stream of capital away from the French capital again. The sterling rate eased in New York, although an additional consignment of $2,697,000 in Japanese gold arriving at San Francisco was made available to New York bank reserves by telegraph. The result is something like a redundancy of capital at the great financial centers of the world with a corresponding apathy of speculative and even of investment demand seems to point to a world-wide cause.

NEWS FROM THE MINES.

Commercially pure sulphur has been found in the crater of Sunset peak, an extinct volcano of wonderful colorings, lying east of San Francisco mountain, near Flagstaff, Ariz. J. J. Sanders of Prescott has located the crater as a mining claim and proposes to sink through the debris at the bottom in the hope of striking a large deposit of sulphur.

John Crawford and a small party of Arizona prospectors have returned from the famous Tiburon island, in the Gulf of California. They found no mineral of whatever nature, though they had glowing reports of great ledges. The Indians, reported to be cannibals, were found pacific and squalid.

The great Crowned King mine, in the Bradshaw mountains, is to be actively worked again, a settlement having been struck between the main owners, who have been warring at law for several years. The first great improvement is to be a 4,000-foot tunnel, striking the ledge below the present deepest workings. The ore is pyritic in character and in places runs hundreds of dollars in gold to the ton. The vein is said to carry $20 to the ton.

The Peggy Gold Mining Company, working the wonderfully rich fraction of ground containing about one-half of an acre, on Gold hill, Cripple Creek, has just secured a lease from the Mary McKinney Company on a block of ground 75x100 feet, from the surface down to any depth desired. The block adjoins the Le Claire on the west side, and contains the extension of the extremely rich ore shoot that has made the Le Claire so valuable.

The Peggy company is required to pay a royalty of 33 1-3 per cent. This is quite high. The Peggy company has already this year paid $69,000 in dividends, and the ore shoot in the bottom level is showing richer and better than ever. To pay profits from such an exceedingly small piece of ground gives one an idea of the richness of the rock being shipped. The Le Claire vein strikes across the McKinney block diagonally, and all of 100 feet of the vein will be within the boundaries of the lease.

The Keystone Mining Company of Greensburg, Pa., organized during the past year, has obtained possession by purchase of nine claims in Mineral Park, Ariz.

All work on the Marquette & Arizona property at Bisbee, Ariz., has been suspended and apparently there will be a lack of activity in that vicinity for some time to come.

The Quartet mine in the Searchlight, Nevada district, Nevada, is working about 135 men and the 10-stamp mill is running continuously on good ore. In a crosscut on the 700-foot level sufficient water has been struck to run an extra 10 stamps, which are on the ground.

The Calera Mining & Milling Company, which is controlled by Philadelphia people, is about to purchase considerable equipment, including a stamp mill for its mines, located in the vicinity of Calera, Zacatecas, Mex.

The Metal Market.

NEW YORK, June 9.—London cabled a decline in tin, with spot 5s lower at £121 12s 6d and futures 10s lower at £120 17s 6d. The selling and the continued light demand weakened the local market, which closed easy at $26 60 @26 85. Copper declined 5s in London, closing at £56 5s for spot and futures. The market locally was quiet and a little lower, with lake quoted at $12 75; electrolytic at $12 62½@ 12 87½, and casting at $12 37½@12 50. Lead was steady at £11 13s 9d in London and was also unchanged locally, where it closed at $4 25@4 35. Spelter was unchanged in New York at $4 75@4 87½ and at £21 15s in London. Iron closed at 51s 6d in Glasgow and at 42s 9d in Middlesboro. Locally iron is unchanged. No. 1 foundry northern is quoted at $14 50 to $15 00; No. 2 foundry northern at $14 00@14 50; No. 1 foundry southern and No. 1 foundry southern soft at $13 25@13 75. ### Foreign Money Markets.

LONDON, June 9.—Money, 2@2¼ per cent; rate of discount, short bills, 1⅞@2 per cent; three months' bills, 1 15-16@2 per cent. Money was in fair supply in the market today, although the amount had been reduced owing to recent heavy withdrawals. The continued demand for accommodation steadied discounts, in spite of the strength of continental exchanges. On the stock exchange the work of concluding the settlement was satisfactorily carried on. Business on the new 19-day account was not brisk, although some interest was shown in Americans, owing to the anticipated better crop report. Consols were easier on dearer money and fears of further loans. Home rails were dull. Americans opened somewhat irregular, hardened and became more animated than they have been recently and closed easier. Canadians were weak on bear selling. Kaffirs generally were flat.

PARIS, June 9.—Three per cent rentes, 97 francs 92½ centimes for the account; exchange on London, 25 francs 21 centimes for checks. On the bourse today internationals were somewhat stronger, owing to the reports of Russian successes at Port Arthur, but later they fell off and closed heavy; Russian imperial 4s closed at 90.60.

BERLIN, June 9.—Discount rates, short bills, 2 per cent; three months' bills, 2⅞ per cent. Trading on the boerse today was very quiet.

Banks and the Treasury.

NEW YORK, June 9.—(Special.)—In redemption of checks drawn by depositors of gold at the San Francisco and Seattle assay offices, today's official records show that the subtreasury paid out yesterday $16,215. Total payment by government to New York banks for the day, $3,243,000. Payment by banks to government, $3,390,000. Balance on the day's transactions, $147,000 paid by banks to government. Total net payment by banks to government since Friday, $18,000, against $2,601,000 paid by government to banks for the corresponding period a week ago and $1,464,000 paid by banks to government a year ago.

Sterling exchange fairly steady, with actual business in bankers' bills at $4 87.60 for demand and at $4 85.70 for 60-day bills. Posted rates $4 86½@4 85½. Commercial bills, $4 85⅝. Bar silver, 55½c. ### The Drygoods Market.

NEW YORK, June 9.—The drygoods market is in a lingering attitude, with buyers operating in a hand to mouth manner. Developments on the price question are awaited when it is expected buyers' attitude toward the market will change somewhat. The outlook for an improvement, however, is not bright until more definite knowledge regarding prices is obtained.

STOCKS RULED FIRM ON SMALL BUSINESS

Granger Issues Were Influenced by Reports of Good Western Crops.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, June 10.—The Herald this (Friday) morning says:

Stocks ruled firm yesterday on a small volume of business, but the market was uninteresting, except in so far as it displayed a paucity of offerings. The talk was of crops, and the current information received from the west was to the effect that they were progressing favorably. The sentiment created by such news doubtlessly influenced the granger stocks which were generally firm, with little business being done. With the exception of movements in some specialties there was no feature to the market.

The anthracite coal road shares retained their recent strength on continuation of good trade reports. The reports of the Bank of England, the Bank of France and the Bank of Germany, in their weekly statements, were considered favorable, with the exception of the Bank of Germany. Gains in cash and a strong reserve condition for all those institutions. Disappointment was expressed among the professional element that the activity of the previous day had spent itself.

The opening showed fractional gains above the closing prices of the previous night, but the trading lacked aggressiveness and was desultory. The granger stocks together with American Smelting and Refining, were higher. London was said to have sold some stocks upon the failure of the Bank of England to reduce its rate of discount. Some profit taking of the same character which brought about the reaction on Wednesday afternoon again developed, but at the lower prices it was found that supply was forthcoming. Sellers wanted "eights" higher than the buyers were willing to give, with the result that the market became exceedingly narrow. There was no urgency to sell, and the advantage, if any, rested with the sellers.

ELKS' MINSTREL SHOW.

Lodge No. 11 to Give a Benefit Entertainment at the Nixon Theater.

The twenty-fifth annual benefit of the B. P. O. Elks lodge No. 11 will be held at the Nixon theater next Thursday evening. A minstrel performance will be given under the personal direction of James P. Dunlevy. The Pittsburgh lodge has among its membership some of the best professional and amateur talent in the city. Rehearsals for the performance have been going on for months, and it promises to surpass any minstrel show given by a lodge of Elks.

Tickets can be secured at the club house or from any member of the lodge. In former years talent was brought from all the eastern cities to appear at the annual benefit, but of late the Pittsburgh lodge has used its own talent.

The Harvester is due tomorrow from Madison, bound for Pittsburgh with a tow of empties. The Catherine Davis passed down with a tow of logs for Louisville this evening. There is a prospect of a rise out of the New river district, which is one of the principal feeders of the Big Kanawha. This will allow of the operators sending out more coal before the June rise has been exhausted. The new steel stages which have been put on the Coney Island wharfboat are greatly admired by rivermen.

WHARF NEEDS ATTENTION.

Mud and Refuse Have Become Nuisance and Protests Are Being Made.

Rivermen are again making complaints about the condition of the Monongahela wharf. The trouble this time, however, is due to more than the mud left by receding water, protests against which were made all last winter. Packet men say that the condition of the wharf from the River Coal Company's wharfboat up to the Smithfield street bridge is not only a disgraceful looking spectacle, but is unsanitary and quite likely to be the cause of spreading contagious diseases. In some places the sediment along the wharf is fully 18 inches deep; it has been laying there for weeks and has come to be no small annoyance to patrons of packet boats as well as those who operate the lines. Unless the city cleans the wharf soon it is certain that the rivermen who are interested will take some very decisive action in the matter. The wharf's condition is the more objectionable now, because so many passengers are going to and from the boats. People who have been patronizing the Mayflower and Francis J. Torrance, which anchor near the worst place along the wharf, have been making especially strong protests against the nuisance.

Arrivals.

Departures.

Local River Notes.

The stage of water in the Ohio river according to the guages at Davis Island dam at 9 o'clock last night was 7 feet and stationary.

The Virginia will arrive tonight.

The Greenwood and Lorena will be here today.

The Rose Hite is the Morgantown packet today.

A big attendance is wanted at the meeting of Harbor 25 tomorrow morning. There will be nomination of officers.

The Greenland will arrive tomorrow noon from her first trip to St. Louis. She will leave again June 13 for her second trip to the fair, returning here July 4.

The River Coal Company will send the Iron Age, Tom Dodsworth and Wash Gray to the Elizabeth ways for repairs. Many other boats will be sent there for a general overhauling later.

The towboat Charley Hook lost a barge of coal while pulling into the landing of the Ninth street plant of the American Steel and Wire Company Wednesday night. The tow consisted of only three barges. When making the landing one of the barges struck a snag and went down immediately in 15 feet of water. By hard work the crew of the Hook, assisted by other boats, saved the rest of the tow. The barge that was lost contained about 15,000 bushels.

Work has been started upon the new dam and series of locks authorized by congress to be placed in the Monongahela river below the Pittsburgh, Virginia & Charleston railroad bridge at Port Perry. The site of the locks has been decided upon and piles have been driven for the foundation. The work is being pressed from both sides of the stream. Several towboats and dredges are employed. The locks will be capable of handling the largest towboats and pleasure steamers.

Pilots are complaining about there being no lights on the new Wabash bridge at Mingo Junction. They praise the bridge as being one of the most satisfactory across the Ohio, but say it is hard to avoid the big piers while passing there at night. The matter has been taken up with Commander A. P. Osborn of the government lighthouse board. Pilots are also expressing some fear of gas mains, which they say is a growing menace to navigation and one of the most dangerous obstacles they have to contend with.

WON'T VIOLATE AGREEMENT

"We refused to call out our men in sympathy with the anthracite strikers, and it is unreasonable to think we will refuse to mine coal because the masters and pilots are demanding an increase of wages, also considering that our miners accepted a reduction."

The above statement was made by Patrick Dolan, of the United Mine Workers, when told of the report that the masters and pilots gave out a statement that the miners would refuse to mine coal to be transported in vessels by crews not members of the pilots' union.

"Since last November," he continued, "our miners have practically done no work. In spring, when the coal trade should have its prosperous season, the pilots demand an increase of wages which has thrown out of employment fully 75,000 men. I believe all workmen should get as much as possible. But the trend has been to accept lower wages. The masters and pilots are not conversant with the business situation, or they would not be so unreasonable."

WILL ASK FOR DECREE.

Court Is to Be Requested to Declare Elliott Borough Annexed.

The legal steps required before the borough of Elliott can be annexed to Pittsburgh will be taken tomorrow, when Attorney O. P. Robertson will go into the quarter sessions court and ask for a final decree, declaring Elliott borough annexed. The ballot boxes will be opened and the count of the recent election made. The vote was three to one for annexation.

Elliott borough cannot enter Pittsburgh until January. Before that time it will become necessary for the Pittsburgh councils to pass an ordinance designating the number of wards into which the borough shall be divided. The six councilmen of the borough will occupy seats in the common council of Pittsburgh. The terms of two will expire in March, 1905, but four will serve for two years longer.

Efforts to Extend Limit of Pool Have Not Proved Success

In the new development in Cabell county, W. Va., some new wells are coming in and others are due in the sand. Two miles east of the Beckett farm No. 1 the first well completed in the New Milton development, E. H. Jennings & Bros. & Co. have drilled their test on the John Handley farm through the Big Lime and have a duster. They are now drilling it down to the Berea grit. The efforts made so far to extend the producing limits of the pool for any considerable distance have not met with success.

South of developments the Harshbarger Oil and Gas Company has started to drill at its test on the Kilgore heirs' farm. The Latonia Oil and Gas Company is due in the sand at its test on the E. S. Jack farm. On the east side of the Folsom district, in Harrison county, E. S. Easton's No. 6 on the Ben F. Rogers farm is holding up at 430 barrels a day. In the same district, the South Penn Oil Company has drilled its test on the L. D. Harbert form through the Gordon and has a duster. In the same district the No. 6 on the O. M. Hall farm has been completed and is a duster.

The South Penn company's test on the Elisha Atha farm has been drilled 18 feet into the Gordon and is fishing. The test on the R. Grubb farm is drilling in the Gordon, but has found no oil or gas. No. 5 on the Wesley Robinson farm has been drilled 466 feet into the Gordon and has filled up 700 feet with fluid. It is still drilling, but has very little show for a second pay.

South of the Littleton district, in Wetzel county, the South Penn Oil Company has drilled its No. 3 on the S. Johnson farm into the stray sand and the hole has filled up 2,000 feet with fluid. It will make a producer. In the Pine Grove extension the South Penn company has drilled its test on the Higgins-Hays farm 25 feet into the Gordon and the hole has filled up 600 feet with fluid. Near Glen Easton, Marshall county, the South Penn Oil Company has given its test on the P. M. Conners farm a 40-quart shot. It responded with a nice flow and will be put to pumping. This location is some distance in advance of developments and will call out some new work.

In the Yellow Creek development, in Calhoun county, C. F. Lowther & Co. have completed and shot their test on the Mary F. Taylor farm in the Berea grit and it produced 130 barrels the first 24 hours. The Sillman No. 1, the Camden-Sommers No. 3 and the W. W. Knight No. 2 are holding up at 120, 110 and 100 barrels a day, respectively. Several important test wells will be due in this district next week.

In the Bens Run district, in Pleasants county, H. Neeley & Co. have completed a test on the John Adams farm and will not have better than a three-barrel pumper in the Big Injun. In the same district W. H. Boden & Co. are drilling a test on the David Williamson farm. The Parker Oil Company is drilling a test on the Joseph Parker farm and the South Penn company is drilling a test on the Isaac Smith farm to the Berea grit. In the Waverly district, in Wood county, Detlor & Amsler have completed their No. 8 on the W. E. Sharp farm and have a show for a 10-barrel pumper in the Cow Run sand.

In Jefferson county, O., on Linestone run, near Dillonvale, the Jefferson County Oil Company has completed its test on the M. B. Cole farm and has a 35-barrel producer in the Berea grit. In the same district the same company is drilling a test on the N. Cole farm. The Black Diamond Oil Company is drilling on the D. Fleming farm and the Octo Oil Company is drilling a test on the Z. Burris farm. This is the development in which the Jefferson County Oil Company drilled in a well on the Stringer farm a few months ago and got a producer that started at 20 barrels an hour. Northwest of Woodsfield, in Monroe county, the Southern Oil Company's No. 1 on the George Wahl farm is holding up at 160 barrels a day.

WORKED FOR LICENSE.

Thousands of Dollars Spent by Wholesale Liquor Dealers to Further Their Cause.

NEW YORK, June 9.—The protective bureau of the National Wholesale Liquor Dealers' association during the past year took part in 287 elections where the local option or other liquor issues was involved, and in the campaigns circulated 4,000,000 pamphlets and expended $23,000, according to the report of the executive committee which was presented at today's session of the convention of the association.

In the opinion of the committee, says the report, a much larger sum of money could have been wisely used if available. The report adds that in 74 per cent of the cases in which the bureau took part the liquor interests were successful.

In the Business World.

BOSTON, June 9.—In the United States district court today Atherton N. Hunt of this city was appointed trustee in bankruptcy of the Dr. Green Nervura Company. The concern failed recently with Pettingill & Co., advertising agents. Claims aggregating more than $100,000 were presented and proved. Col. Darling, the receiver, stated that the apparent estates were about $36,000, exclusive of $11,000 which has been offered for the company's plant. Of the claims presented those held by newspapers all over the country aggregated more than $80,000 on advertising accounts.

TWO RAILROAD PURCHASES MADE

Blair and Johnston Holdings in Twenty-Third Ward Go to B. & O. for $100,000.

DEPARTMENT STORE PROJECT

The Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad Company has concluded the purchase of the Johnston and Blair properties in the Twenty-third ward for $100,000. The Blair property, which lies nearly across the Monongahela river from New Homestead, was articled for about a month ago, the reported consideration being $55,000. The other property faces in Second avenue and adjoins the holdings of the United Traction Company. The two tracts comprise 40.5 acres, making the price per acre less than $2,500, which is considered very reasonable in view of their location and desirability for manufacturing purposes. Title to the land was obtained from William M. Sloane of Princeton, N. J., and Harvey Childs, Jr., of Allegheny, who were trustees for the Johnston estate; Virginia J. Harris of Philadelphia, George D. Blair of New Castle and Thomas S. Blair of Woodmere, Long Island. In the transfer the sellers waive all claims to damages resulting from railroad construction and also reserve the right to a private entrance at one side. The properties lie just above Glenwood, where the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company is erecting its big shops, and will be used for more track room.

New rumors of a big department store deal in Wilkinsburg have been afloat this week, and it is said that if a site can be secured the capital for the erection of a large building and starting a store will be forthcoming at once. The site now being considered is the property in the north side of Penn avenue, between Wood and Center streets. It measures about 300x264 feet and lies between the Call block and the Masonic hall. There are several owners at present. The ground is improved with a number of old buildings of little value and is considered worth from $450 to $500 a front foot. Philadelphia capitalists are reported to be the intending buyers, and if they get all or part of the site propose to erect a six-story modern fire-proof store building to cost at least $200,000. The leases on most of the present buildings run to next April, which is said to be hindering the progress of the deal. This project is the outcome of another which was broached some time ago, namely, to add more stories to the old Wallace block now owned by A. J. Puffinburg and organize a stock company to install a big department store.

East End Flat Brings $35,000.

Through the office of Robinson, Brackman & McClelland a local investor has purchased the apartment house at the northwest corner of East End avenue and Juniata street, Twenty-second ward, for $35,000. The property belonged to Robinson & Bruckman, and the deal is said to have been on a cash basis. The building was erected two years ago, and is probably the best apartment house in that district, being a three-story fireproof structure standing on lot 51x150 feet. The building contains six flats of six rooms and bath each and commands an annual rental of $3,000. This amounts to more than 10 per cent on the reported purchase price.

A significant feature of the real estate situation just now is the number of well located business rooms that are standing vacant. In Fifth and Fourth avenues, as well as in Smithfield street, there are a number of first-floor store rooms which have been vacant for weeks and which one year or 18 months ago would have been snapped up as soon as it became known that they were to be vacated. The same is true in the East End, where two of the best business rooms in Penn avenue are advertised for rent. In general it is the opinion of real estate men that the high rents asked have been the direct cause of this condition. Until landlords provide better buildings so that they can derive a good revenue without extracting exorbitant rents from men who must make their business pay they cannot hope to fill their vacant rooms.

Work is progressing rapidly on the magnificent residence which F. T. F. Lovejoy is building on his property overlooking Fifth avenue. The house is now up to the second story and will soon show an adequate idea of its cost and size. It is said that the building will contain over 90 rooms, all to be finely finished, which will make it the largest private residence in the city.

Kurtz Brothers of Wilkinsburg have purchased a site in South avenue, between Wood street and the Pennsylvania railroad, in Wilkinsburg, and will soon start the foundations for a three-story brick flat to cost $10,000.

Architects Nirdlinger & Simpson have plans for remodeling the building of the Home Trust Company at Wood street and Sixth avenue. A new front and new entrance will be put in, affording direct communication between the banking and real estate departments of the company, which are now inconvenient in their arrangement.

Mars—The Thompson-Vowinckel company sold for William Gillian to Louis Althouse an improved lot in Mars, Pa., for $2,500. Also for Mrs. Mary Miles to John Harmon a farm of 77 acres near Strattonville, Clarion county, Pa., for $2,100, and for Elmer Welch to J. Hunter a farm of 84 acres eight miles west of Greensburg on the pike road for $4,000.

Coral street—John J. Devine sold to Mary E. Buchanan an improved lot, 27x118 feet, in the south side of Coral street, Twentieth ward, for $6,700.

Mt. Vernon street—Charles D. Leopold sold to Margaret Kable an improved lot, 25x93 feet, in the south side of Mt. Vernon street, Twenty-first ward, for $4,000.

The monthly report of Building Inspector Dies, issued yesterday, shows that the cost of buildings for which permits were issued during May was over double that of the corresponding month of the previous year. During the month 444 permits were issued for new buildings, additions and alterations, the total cost of which was $1,981,973. This is a gain of $1,017,514 over May, 1903.

Building permits were issued yesterday to John Schuler for repairs to a store and dwelling at 21 Frankstown avenue to cost $7,700, and to J. P. McGarvey for a three-story 12-roomed apartment house in the rear of 32 Fulton street to cost $5,500.

BUSINESS IS BETTER; MORE NEW STOCK HERE

Texas Peaches and California Melons Arrive—Changes on Hay and Grain.

Business was reported good very generally yesterday. Grocers say trade is unusually active for this season and that demands are pretty well centered on flour, sugar and the staples. Canned goods are moving out as they ordinarily do at this time of year. Cheese is in good request, especially the new York and Ohio makes. Prices are comparatively low and this, together with the good quality, has stimulated trade perceptibly during the past few days. Eggs and butter are pretty steady.

The first California cantaloupes of the year came in yesterday and commanded prices that were too high to quote. Florida tomatoes are now out of the market; Mississippi and Texas stock are coming in, but not in big supply; good stock is scarce and commands full prices. Texas peaches arrived yesterday for the first time and the call for them was flattering. Both peas and beans are firm and seem to be wanted about as much as any article in the produce line just now. Watermelons are moving much more freely, the arrivals yesterday having amounted to about five cars. Prices on this stock are quoted lower. Old potatoes are quoted higher; several sales were reported yesterday at $1 50; the stock is now quoted at $1 40 and $1 45. There were no arrivals of the old yesterday, but about eight cars of new came in. Strawberry receipts were light and stock was none too good.

Both hay and oats are holding better than steady; timothy hay is commanding more confidence right along and a much better market is thought to be forthcoming. Oats are wanted; shelled corn is quoted lower, the market being rather easy. No changes reported in straw or feed.

HAY, GRAIN AND FEED.

Receipts bulletined: Pennsylvania lines, 12 cars oats, 8 cars corn, 6 cars hay, 2 cars feed; Baltimore & Ohio railroad, 7 cars hay, 4 cars corn, 2 cars straw, 1 car oats; Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railroad, 2 cars hay, 1 car rye, 1 car straw.

Dealers charge an advance of 5 cents a bushel on oats and $3 a ton of hay and millfeed from warehouse in less than carload lots.

Coffee and Sugar.

NEW YORK, June 9.—The market for coffee futures opened steady at unchanged prices to an advance of five points on continued moderate primary receipts and an advance in Santos. European cables, however, were rather disappointing and demand here being light, prices in the afternoon showed a reactionary tendency with the market finally quiet and unchanged to five points lower. Sales were 32,250 bags, including July, 5.75c; August, 5.85c; September, 6.00c; December, 6.25@6.30c; January, 6.35@6.40c; March, 6.55@6.60c, and May, 6.70@6.75c. # WHEAT AGAIN CLOSES WEAK ON CHICAGO BOARD

Various Reports Have Tendency to Lower Prices of the Leading Cereal.

CHICAGO, June 9.—Spreading of harvesting operations had a weakening influence on the wheat market today. In July wheat there was a net loss of ⅛@⅜c. Corn is off ⅛c. Oats are down a shade and provisions are 2½c lower to 10c higher.

For the first half hour the wheat market showed considerable firmness, due to wet weather in sections of the southwest where harvesting is in progress. Firmness of foreign markets, especially at Paris, helped to create bullish sentiment at the start. Opening sales were at an advance of a shade to ¼c at 87@87¼c. The price soon rose to 87⅝c. Part of the early demand was due to a rumor that the Mexican import duty on wheat was to be suspended. Later there were dispatches from Tennessee stating that cutting of wheat had commenced and would be general the beginning of the coming week. It was intimated that the crop would be the largest in years. With the area of harvesting operations extending daily, wheat traders began to realize that new wheat would soon be coming into the market. With this end in view, many traders were disposed to take the selling side.

Numerous favorable reports as to crop prospects in general brought out selling orders from some of the large holders. The Kansas state report was quite bearish, showing the condition of wheat June 1 to be 87, against 82 last month. Advices from the spring wheat territory told of continued improvement in crop conditions. Predictions were reiterated that the government report, to be issued tomorrow, would be exceedingly bearish regarding spring wheat. In the face of these influences buying lacked vim, and prices steadily declined. A rally occurred just before the close on covering by shorts, but the market still retained an easy tone. After selling off to 86¼c, July closed at 86⅝c. Clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 82,500 bushels. Primary receipts were 234,900 bushels, compared with 254,600 bushels a year ago. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 145 cars, against 143 cars last week, and 205 cars a year ago.

Wet weather had a bullish effect on the corn market early in the day, and moderate advances over yesterday's closing quotations were realized. Heaviness of wheat and predictions of improved weather, however, brought out numerous selling orders, resulting in a decline. A feature of trading was selling by outsiders, who were doubtless influenced by favorable crop prospects. Late in the day nearly all the loss was regained on covering by shorts. July opened ⅛c to ⅛@¼c higher at 48¾@49c, sold between 48½c and 49⅛c, closing at 48⅞@49c. Local receipts were 382 cars, with 19 cars of contract grade.

Oats were extremely dull and held within a narrow range. Weakness of wheat caused some selling, but scarcity of offerings and a good cash demand had a steadying effect. After opening unchanged to a shade higher at 39⅝c to 39⅞@39⅞c, July sold between 39⅝@39½c and 39⅞c, closing at 39⅝c. Local receipts were 61 cars.

Provisions were firm on covering by shorts and on buying by packers. The impression that a prominent packer was short a big line of ribs tended to strengthen the market. September pork closed with a gain of 10c at $12 20. September lard was off 2½c at $6 75. Ribs were up 5c at $7 12½. Estimated receipts for tomorrow: Wheat, 27 cars; corn, 498 cars; oats, 93 cars; hogs, 20,000 head.

PRODUCTION OF COKE AND SHIPMENTS LESS

Little Prospect of Any Improvement in Near Future—Prices Tend Downward.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CONNELLSVILLE, PA., June 9.—Coke production dropped off last week 12,000 tons and shipments were 20,000 tons lighter, with little prospect of any improvement in the near future. About 25 per cent of the ovens in the region are now idle. Coke prices had a still further downward tendency during the past week, although there is a hesitancy to make contracts farther ahead than July. The ruling prices at the ovens are now $1 40 and $1 45, but it is predicted that $1 30 and $1 35 will be reached by the first of July. There are 18,123 ovens in blast and 4,930 idle. Those in blast are running 72-hour coke. Ovens blown out last week numbered 1,063. An average of 5.86 days as compared to 5.80 the previous week was made. Production in the region proper amounted to 208,813 tons as compared to 220,833 tons last week.

Shipments in cars amounted to 8,495 as compared to 9,532, a decrease of 1,037 cars. Shipments were distributed as follows: To Pittsburgh and river points, 3,442, a decrease of 235 cars; to points west of Pittsburgh, 3,792 cars, a decrease of 742 cars; to points east of Everson, 1,225 cars, a decrease of 95 cars. The shipments in tons were 194,537, as compared to 215,704, a decrease of 21,167 tons as compared to last week. Shipment from the Masontown field were 1,455 cars, a decrease of 20 cars.

President Murray Is Not Authorizing Much New Work

Oscar G. Murray, president of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, arrived in Pittsburgh yesterday afternoon shortly after 4 o'clock in a special train from Painesville, O. He conferred briefly with local officials and left at 6:45 p. m. for Baltimore.

On his trip of inspection the president is being accompanied by C. S. Sims, general manager, and others from Baltimore, as well as the division officials. General Superintendent W. C. Loree spent two days with the party. It was thought that President Murray would spend more time here in view of the contemplated improvements about to be made. One of the party said, however, that the president is not out for authorizing the beginning of new work, but rather to see to what extent the road can be run without further expenditures.

"The next improvement of consequence," said a member of the party, "will be the building of the new main line over the Alleghenies. The final surveys have been made for most of the route and preliminary surveys have been completed for the remainder of the route. By this route the Baltimore & Ohio will have a low grade line from Baltimore to Pittsburgh, and will cut off 33 miles. It will be used mainly as a freight line for Pittsburgh and Chicago. The present line by way of Cumberland will be used for traffic to and from the B. & O. S. W. and passenger business."

Pennsy Station Agents Organize.

The station agents of the Pittsburgh division of the Pennsylvania railroad between Latrobe and Pittsburgh met at the Union station yesterday with Supt. S. C. Long and formed a permanent organization. Monthly meetings will be regularly held. Supt. Long presided. A committee on duplication of work was appointed. It is composed of E. R. Stewart, agent at Wilmerding, chairman; John Keiser, assistant trainmaster, Pitcairn; J. W. Hare, agent, Braddock; George H. Adams, agent, Latrobe, and J. T. Loughry, agent, East Pittsburgh. The meetings, it is expected, will prove of immense value to the agents.

Ready to Enter Buffalo.

By the end of the year it is said that the Buffalo & Susquehanna railroad will be running both freight and passenger trains into Buffalo. It has been reported time and agin that this line is heading for Pittsburgh, and the story stands unconfirmed or denied.

Many Engineers Are Firing.

Owing to the "shopping" of engines and the laying off of men, many of the younger engineers of the Baltimore & Ohio are trying their hands with the shovel. It is argued that they can make more money firing than waiting for a run to turn up.

Railroad Notes.

J. J. Puller, traveling passenger agent of the Seaboard Air Line at Pittsburgh, has gone east on business.

Michael Trump, acting general superintendent of the Pennsylvania railroad at Altoona, spent yesterday here.

The Pennsylvania railroad has extended an invitation to a prominent German government engineer to inspect its properties. It is said that the emperor desires the engineer to especially investigate the manufacture of American locomotives.

CHARITY LOSES CLARK BEQUESTS

Large Estate to Pass to Relatives Because of Indefinite Character of the Will.

THAW ACCOUNTS ARE FILED

Charity loses a large portion of Eliza L. Clark's estate because of the indefiniteness of her will. Judge Over, in passing upon the distribution of a fund of $11,364 21, decides this most vital question in the will, which in view of the wealth of the estate is perhaps the most remarkable ever filed in this county. All the charitable bequests fail, although it is evident the testatrix wanted it to go for that purpose.

The decedent was the surviving daughter of the late James Sharp, a pioneer of Sharpsburg, and the estate she left, which includes a considerable part of that town, is estimated to be worth about $250,000.

In her will the only bequests she made outside of those to charity were, a lot each to Sarah Loyd and Mrs. Lucy Stroup; Alfred Loyd, $1,000; Sarah Loyd the choice of household effects, and $1,000 to Mrs. Maggie Clark and her son. The legacies the court permits to stand. In her will the decedent said she wished the old Sharp home would be modified to become a home for convalescents and she suggested: "A row of lots off the front toward helping along, if thought best. The spring at the foot," she suggests, "for the public, especially for the poor," and, she added, she wished a bust of her father placed on it and the name Sharp's spring affixed.

The vagueness of her charitable bequest is exhibited in the following: "I wish all my matters kept secret as possible. Poor men who are unable to work and are honest and truthful, especially firemen who have been injured in discharge of duty, I would like to receive something, be assisted in some way, if my estate will allow it, and all worthy poor people."

In another clause she states: "Something for colored schools in the south; I will mention the one in Knoxville, Tenn., and industrial schools, and others that may be very needy. My wealth or what I own being in land, it will need some management to make it do as much good as possible; this my executor, I trust, will do." In conclusion she states: "As I said, I do not know how far my purse will reach; of course my executors will arrange that."

Judge Over passes on the following questions: "Are the charitable bequests void; are the pecuniary legacies charged to the land; do Mrs. Maggie Clark and her son take a thousand dollars each?"

The court then says: "That the charitable bequests are void there can be no doubt, as the will was no attested by two witnesses as required by the act of April 26, 1855, and even if it had been, the provisions relating to the charities are so vague and indefinite they could not be carried into effect. The testatrix's intention evidently was that her real estate, except the homestead and lots devised to Mrs. Loyd and Mrs. Stroup should be sold, and she blended its proceeds and her personality into one fund to be applied to charitable purposes, and also to the payment of the legacies given to Alfred Loyd and Mrs. Maggie Clark and her son. These legacies are a charge on this fund and payable out of it, notwithstanding the fact that the charitable gifts are void."

The court then interprets the gift of 1,000 to Mrs. Clark "and her lame son," to be shared jointly and that each is to receive $500.

A decree in distribution in accordance with the opinion, which is the first in the case, was made.

The seventh and partial account of Benjamin Thaw and others, executors, under the will of the late William Thaw, has been filed. In a period extending from January, 1901, to December, 1903, debits aggregating $466,045 40 are shown and credits to the amount of $386,943 03. The balance $86,000 is claimed as a credit by the executor as it was distributed as a cash surplus among the heirs. Alice C. Thaw appears as having received $8,100 and the countess of Yarmouth as having received $2,500 of the surplus.

The domestic differences of W. A. Golden and his wife were aired in common pleas court No. 2 before Judge Shafer, in habeas corpus proceeding instituted by the husband for possession of their seven children. Husband and wife told conflicting stories of the unhappiness that existed and eventually led up to the separation. Judge Shafer accorded some time in talking to the eldest children quietly. The wife, the husband testified, was a sister of the wife of the late Detective Fitzgerald. Counter charges were made by the litigants, and the case went over until today for further hearing.

JAIL CASES COME FIRST.

Defendants Out on Bail Will Have to Wait for Trial in Criminal Court.

Judge Rodgers in criminal court yesterday announced that no more cases would be tried in which the defendants were out on bail until the jail had been relieved of some of the large number of prisoners. During the day a number of cases were disposed of. William Mack and George Ferris pleaded guilty and Robert Smith and Dennis Wilson were convicted of holding up and robbing James Kearns in Collier township, March 19. T. J. Whalen and Mose Price pleaded guilty to entering a Baltimore & Ohio freight car in Allegheny on March 8 and stealing $560 worth of drygoods. They will be sentenced later.

John Schools pleaded guilty to unlawfully wounding the minor son of Jacob Carter of 2242 Center avenue, but on payment of costs, sentence was suspended.

Patrick Dolan pleaded guilty to unlawfully wounding Patrick Cramer, and on the costs being paid, sentence was suspended. Dolan is said to have hit Cramer in the face with a beer bottle, knocking his eye out.

Charlie Long, a Chinaman, was granted an appeal from the decision of Magistrate Stewart, who fined him $50 and costs for disorderly conduct. The Chinaman alleges he is employed in a Chinese restaurant at 507 Wylie avenue and that on the night of June 3 some colored men came into the place to eat. When they had finished they refused to pay and turned out the lights in the place. The Chinaman called the rest of the help in the house and the negroes were thrown out. He then alleges that they returned in half an hour and began a quarrel and that he was arrested, the negroes being allowed to leave. Long claims his witnesses were not heard at the hearing, and that in default of the fine he is now confined in jail.

MAGISTRATES WARNED.

Judge Frazer Will Make It Interesting for Officials Who Fail to Return Informations.

Judge Frazer is at war with magistrates who fail to return informations against prisoners in the prescribed five days, as the law requires. He said yesterday that hereafter those who did not make the returns would be cut out of all fees and would have to answer to the court. They will be sent for and will have to give an explanation in the court room, and if it is unsatisfactory, may be fined for contempt of court. The clerk of courts has been notified of the action of the court and will refuse to pay any fees where the return is not made in the five days.

Judge Frazer said he had trouble for some time with delinquent magistrates and that it must come to a stop.

FIANCEE GOT $7,000.

Canadian Heirs of Crawford Robinson Must Fight to Prove Sole Claim.

Mrs. Robert Sample and her sister of Ottawa, Canada, who claim the estate of Crawford Robinson as sole heirs, will have to make a fight for what is left of it if they expect to secure it. Robinson died in 1901 and R. A. Balph took out letters on his estate. The account of the administrator shows the personal property of the estate amounted to $13,296, and the balanace for distribution among the heirs is $12,569. The Canadian heirs claim the estate is worth about $40,000, but if so, it must include the real estate.

Attorney Balph does not know Mrs. Sample or her sister, but heard there were heirs in Canada. He says, however, if she does prove to be an heir, there are a number of others, including cousins and aunts. Several heirs live in Ireland and a commission has been taken out to inquire into this. A young woman who was engaged to be married to Robinson who was boarding at her home, claimed $7,000 for boarding, nursing and other attentions, and this was allowed by the court.

Grand Jury Returns.

The grand jury yesterday returned the following true bills: Felonious assault and battery, Charles Bollenberg, Henry Hill; aggravated assault and battery, Walter Coleman; assault and battery, Anna Haberman, Jake Jacobson, Frank Lutzetal, John Nims, William Schmidt; larceny, Jacob Alpern, Albert G. Kurtz, G. W. Kauf, George B. Drake, Joseph Shawilski et al., Anna Vey, Fred Walters; larceny by bailee, Fred Briggs, J. Richman; misdemeanor, E. J. Beckdel et al., Patsy Blair et al., Peter Loudonska; refusal to assist an officer in making an arrest, Frank Scholl; embezzlement, Watson Y. Jones; false pretenses, Charles Larocco; selling liquor illegally, Peter Loudonska.

LEGAL BRIEFS.

Ransom & Harrison have entered equity proceedings against Wilfrid Lumley for an accounting in a transaction involving electric and gas fixtures.

Mrs. Florence Ashton, a milliner of Washington, Pa., filed a petition in bankruptcy. She gives her liabilities as $1,060 61, with assets of $2,019 38.

Suit for $1,000 damages has been entered by Lizetta Wilkinson again Flora Pettiford. The plaintiff alleges the defendant wrongfully charged her with stealing $15.

Judge Shafer took off the judgments in the suit of H. F. Toner and others against Ada McFarland. The judgments had been taken against two of the defendants by default and the court finds that they were void because not taken during the term of court in which default was made.

The bill in equity entered by the National Croatian society against St. Nikola sub-assembly No. 54, was dismissed. The National organization sought to restrain the defendant from turning books or assets over to any other society. There was a dispute over an assessment and the defendant claimed members had not paid it. Judge Shafer said the sub-assembly could not pay money it had never collected. He suggested that the complainant can find a remedy under its by-laws to expel the sub-assembly.

Miss Alice M. Smith, of Minneapolis, Minn., tells how woman's monthly suffering may be quickly and permanently relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have never before given my endorsement for any medicine, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has added so much to my life and happiness that I feel like making an exception in this case. For two years every month I would have two days of severe pain and could find no relief, but one day when visiting a friend I ran across Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound,—she had used it with the best results and advised me to try it. I found that it worked wonders with me; I now experience no pain and only had to use a few bottles to bring about this wonderful change. I use it occasionally now when I am exceptionally tired or worn out."—MISS ALICE M. SMITH, 804 Third Ave., South Minneapolis, Minn., Chairman Executive Committee Minneapolis Study Club.

Beauty and strength in women vanish early in life because of monthly pain or some menstrual irregularity. Many suffer silently and see their best gifts fade away. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helps women preserve roundness of form and freshness of face because it makes their entire female organism healthy. It carries women safely through the various natural crises and is the safeguard of woman's health.

The truth about this great medicine is told in the letters from women published in this paper constantly.

Mrs. C. Kleinschrodt, Morrison, Ill., says:—

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have suffered ever since I was thirteen years of age with my menses. They were irregular and very painful. I doctored a great deal but received no benefit.

"A friend advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which I did, and after taking a few bottles of it, I found great relief.

"Menstruation is now regular and without pain. I am enjoying better health than I have for sometime."

How is it possible for us to make it plainer that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will positively help all sick women? All women are constituted alike, rich and poor, high and low,—all suffer from the same organic troubles. Surely, no one can wish to remain weak and sickly, discouraged with life and without hope for the future, when proof is so unmistakable that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will cure monthly suffering—all womb and ovarian troubles, and all the ills peculiar to women.

$5000 FORFEIT if we cannot forthwith produce the original letters and signatures of above testimonials, which will prove their absolute genuineness.

CLAIM NON-UNION MEN WORK ON NEW CAPITOL

Labor Leaders Complain to Commission at Harrisburg. Investigation Promised.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

HARRISBURG, PA., June 9.—Complaint that certain sub-contractors on the new capitol are employing non-union labor was made to the capitol commission by representatives of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh labor unions at its meeting here today.

George F. Payne of Philadelphia, contractor for the capitol, who was asked by the commission for an explanation, said that he has been informed that all the men working on the building were union men and that he was careful to employ no others. The labor men replied that some of the alleged non-union men belonged to a fraudulent union, which has only a few members and was not recognized officially by the labor organizations. The commission promised to inquire into the matter and communicate with the labor unions.

Following is a list of the union leaders who appeared before the commission: Jacob Tazalaar, of the American Federation of Labor; James S. Meade, of the Philadelphia Electrical Workers; Thomas Blackburn, of the Pittsburgh United Labor league; Harry Curtin, Philadelphia; William Lynch, president of the Central Labor union, Philadelphia; J. S. Hackins, of the Building Trades council, Pittsburgh; Frank E. Smith, of the Brotherhood of Painters and Decorators; Charles C. Gunther, of the Pittsburgh Trade council, and George E. Murray, of the Brotherhood of Carpenters.

The work of the commission today was confined to routine matters, after which the commissioners made an inspection of the capitol.

Mrs. Bennett also asks that the court order Mr. Bryan to bring into Connecticut jurisdiction $150,000 of the estate now in New York in the possession of Alfred P. It is not believed that Mr. Bryan will oppose this.

The appeal of Mr. Bryan from adverse judgment in the superior court on the question of his own interest in the estate, will be argued before the supreme court soon, and Mrs. Bennett's suit for removal of Mr. Bryan as executor is also still in the courts.
